CORONER MAKES ANNUAL REPORT

Lists 4174 Cases Handled During Year

City Contributes 2697 With 1477 in County

Traffic Mishaps Cause 745, Homicides 110

There were 4174 cases handled by the Coroner during the fiscal year ended June 30, last, Coroner Frank A. Nance stated in his annual report, submitted yesterday to the Board of Supervisors. In the principal divisions of cases, he reports that traffic fatalities totaled 745, miscellaneous accidents 435, suicides 291, industrial accidents 171 and homicides 110. The Coroner also passed on 2237 deaths from natural causes.

Cases handled in the city totaled 2697 and those handled in the county numbered 1477. Investigations numbered 1337, while 2847 autopsies were performed. Toxicological tests amounted to 4177, microscopic examinations 640, bacteriological examinations 78, and total number of cases handled in the pathological laboratory during the year was 442. In the city, 551 inquests were conducted while 402 were conducted in the county, and 369 cases were referred to the District Attorney. Dr. A. F. Wagner performed 1567 autopsies, Dr. Frank R. Webb 1163 and Dr. Lawrence Parsons 117.

DECEMBER DEADLY

Last December was the heaviest month for Coroner's cases, with 441, last February being second with 377, while last January was third with 360. Of the persons whose deaths became Coroner's cases during the year, 2855 were males and 1319 females.

Of traffic fatalities, which furnished the largest single division of cases, 695 were motor vehicle deaths, thirty-seven electric railway and thirteen steam railway. Among the oddities revealed in this section of the Coroner's report were deaths due to motor vehicles striking scooters, a tricycle and a buggy. "Exceeding the speed limit" was held responsible in 159 cases, right of way violated in ninety-one, incompetent handling in eighty-nine, and crossing street carelessly in seventy-five.

Traffic fatalities were more than twice as numerous from noon to midnight than in the earlier half of the day, during the year, the actual numbers being 244 in the a.m. and 501 in the p.m. The most dangerous age for traffic fatalities was from 30 to 45 years of age, 206 persons of those ages being killed.

AIR CASUALTIES

Aviation casualties took a growing toll of lives in Los Angeles during the year, Coroner Nance reporting twenty-five airplane deaths, while three fatalities listed under industrial accidents include two failures of falling parachutes to open and one fall with disabled airplane.

Among the fifty-three drownings of the year, four were in bathtubs and one was in a defective diving suit. Fourteen persons struck matches in gas-filled rooms and died in the ensuing explosions. Falls, which resulted in deaths, ranged in height from roller coasters and draw bridge to a fall out of bed. One person fell over a dog leash, receiving fatal injury.

Accidental discharge of firearms killed eighteen persons, twelve cases being due to careless handling. Nine deaths resulted from infection, forty-seven poisoning, and fourteen from scalding. Only one person was killed in a boxing match during the year.

MANY SUICIDES

Of the 291 suicides, 189 were men and 102 were women, while the most morbid age appeared to be the years from 30 to 45, with the following twenty years a close second. Seven of the suicides were between 10 and 20 years of age. Last June showed the highest number of suicides, forty.

July, 1928, was high month for homicides, thirteen being reported, while there were twelve last September and eleven in January.

Of the 110 homicides, eighty-seven recorded as unjustifiable and twenty-three as justifiable. Shooting killed eighty-two persons, stabbing nine, poisoning and drowning one each, fighting five, suffocation three, and struck with object, nine. Ten husbands killed wives, while no wife is recorded as killing a husband.

Salaries of the Coroner's office totaled $79,975, and operating expenses $18,281.27, making a total of $98,256.27 for the year. Receipts totaled $40,028.25.

HOFER RITES TODAY

Business Man Was Veteran of Two Wars and Member of Masons

Funeral services for Albert M. Hofer, for many years a business man in Los Angeles, a veteran of two wars, and well known in church work, will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the W. A. Brown chapel, 1815 South Flower street. Burial will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Mr. Hofer died suddenly at his office at Tenth and San Julian streets from heart disease last Tuesday, his forty-ninth birthday. He was in the wholesale market produce business. He was a member of the Masonic Pentalpha Lodge and the Al Malaikah Shrine and Scottish Rite bodies, and was well known in the activities of the Vermont Square Methodist Church.

Mr. Hofer enlisted in the Spanish-American War at the age of [illegible] He fought in the World War and was gassed in France. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ruby Hofer, [illegible] Fifth avenue, two daughters, Misses Helen and Gloria Hofer, 3473 Westmount street, and two sisters, Mrs. George Thompson of Los Angeles and Miss Edith Hofer of Pasadena.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES TO BE CLOSED LABOR DAY

ARABS EYED FROM AIR

Planes Drone as Moslems Pray

British Flyers on Guard Over Huge Assemblage at Jerusalem

Resentment of Jewish Home Movement Assigned for Uprisings

CAIRO, Aug. 31. (Saturday) (AP)—Reports to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency from Jerusalem early today said that twenty-two Jews were killed and scores wounded in a massacre perpetrated by Moslem Arabs Thursday night and Friday morning on the Jewish population at the ancient city of Safed. Jewish settlements in the Jordan Valley and in South Sharon are said to face grave danger of attack.

JERUSALEM, Aug. 30. (AP)—British airplanes, guarding against possible further disorders in Jerusalem, today circled above the area of the Mosque of Omar, where a huge Moslem throng assembled for the Friday prayers.

The correspondent for the Jewish Telegraphic Agency reported that thirteen planes were above this area, while others also were circling other places where trouble might develop.

While Jerusalem, though tense, was calm, reports were received of further attacks on Jewish colonies. The Jewish Telegraphic Agency correspondent reported that nine Jews were killed in the town of Safed during Thursday night. Troops finally quelled the trouble.

The colony of Talpioth between Jerusalem and Bethlehem was attacked by Arabs also, but these were driven off by a platoon of British troops.

STUDENTS MENACED

Word was received in official quarters that a considerable force of Arabs had crossed the Syrian border and was moving south. At the same time a group of high-school Jewish students, including thirteen Americans, was reported near the Syrian frontier on an outing and the American Consul was appealed to for protection for them, in view of the Arab advance.

British officials at the first word of the border crossing promptly dispatched strong forces to the north with the hope of checking the Arabs before they become embarked on warfare. Similar tactics were successful a few days ago against another band which crossed into Palestine from Trans-Jordania.

A government communique today said civil authorities had dispersed [illegible] Bedouins who had been massing quietly at Solith. Seventy Arabs were captured at Colonia after repeated attacks on the Jewish colony at Motz. The communique added strictest moderation in the use of firearms had been urged up-

CHINA PLAN ACCEPTED

Soviet Agrees to Proposal

Expresses Readiness to Drop Demand for Retention of Rail Chief

May Lead to Negotiations for Settlement of Dispute; Russians Executed

MOSCOW (U.S.S.R.) Aug. 30. (AP)—The soviet government tonight accepted proposals of China for conclusion of a joint declaration for settlement of all questions arising out of the bitter dispute over control of the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria.

The foreign commissariat expressed willingness to abandon the Russian demand for reinstatement of the same Russian general manager of the railroad as a preliminary to discussions. It offered to seek approval of the soviet government for appointment of a new manager if China would replace the old chairman of the railroad directorate, whom the soviet holds directly responsible for the present trouble.

SOVIETS EXECUTED

The acceptance came just when reports of execution yesterday by Chinese of four soviet citizens seemed to indicate that severe measures of retaliation would be taken by Russia.

Rumors that the Chinese and soviet governments were attempting to come to an agreement in their dispute over the Chinese Eastern Railway in Manchuria had been current for a week. It was reported they were begun by the representatives of the two governments in Berlin. The fact that the German diplomatic corps has been looking out for Russian interests in China since the break lent support to this phase of the rumor but both Russian and Chinese sources made repeated denials.

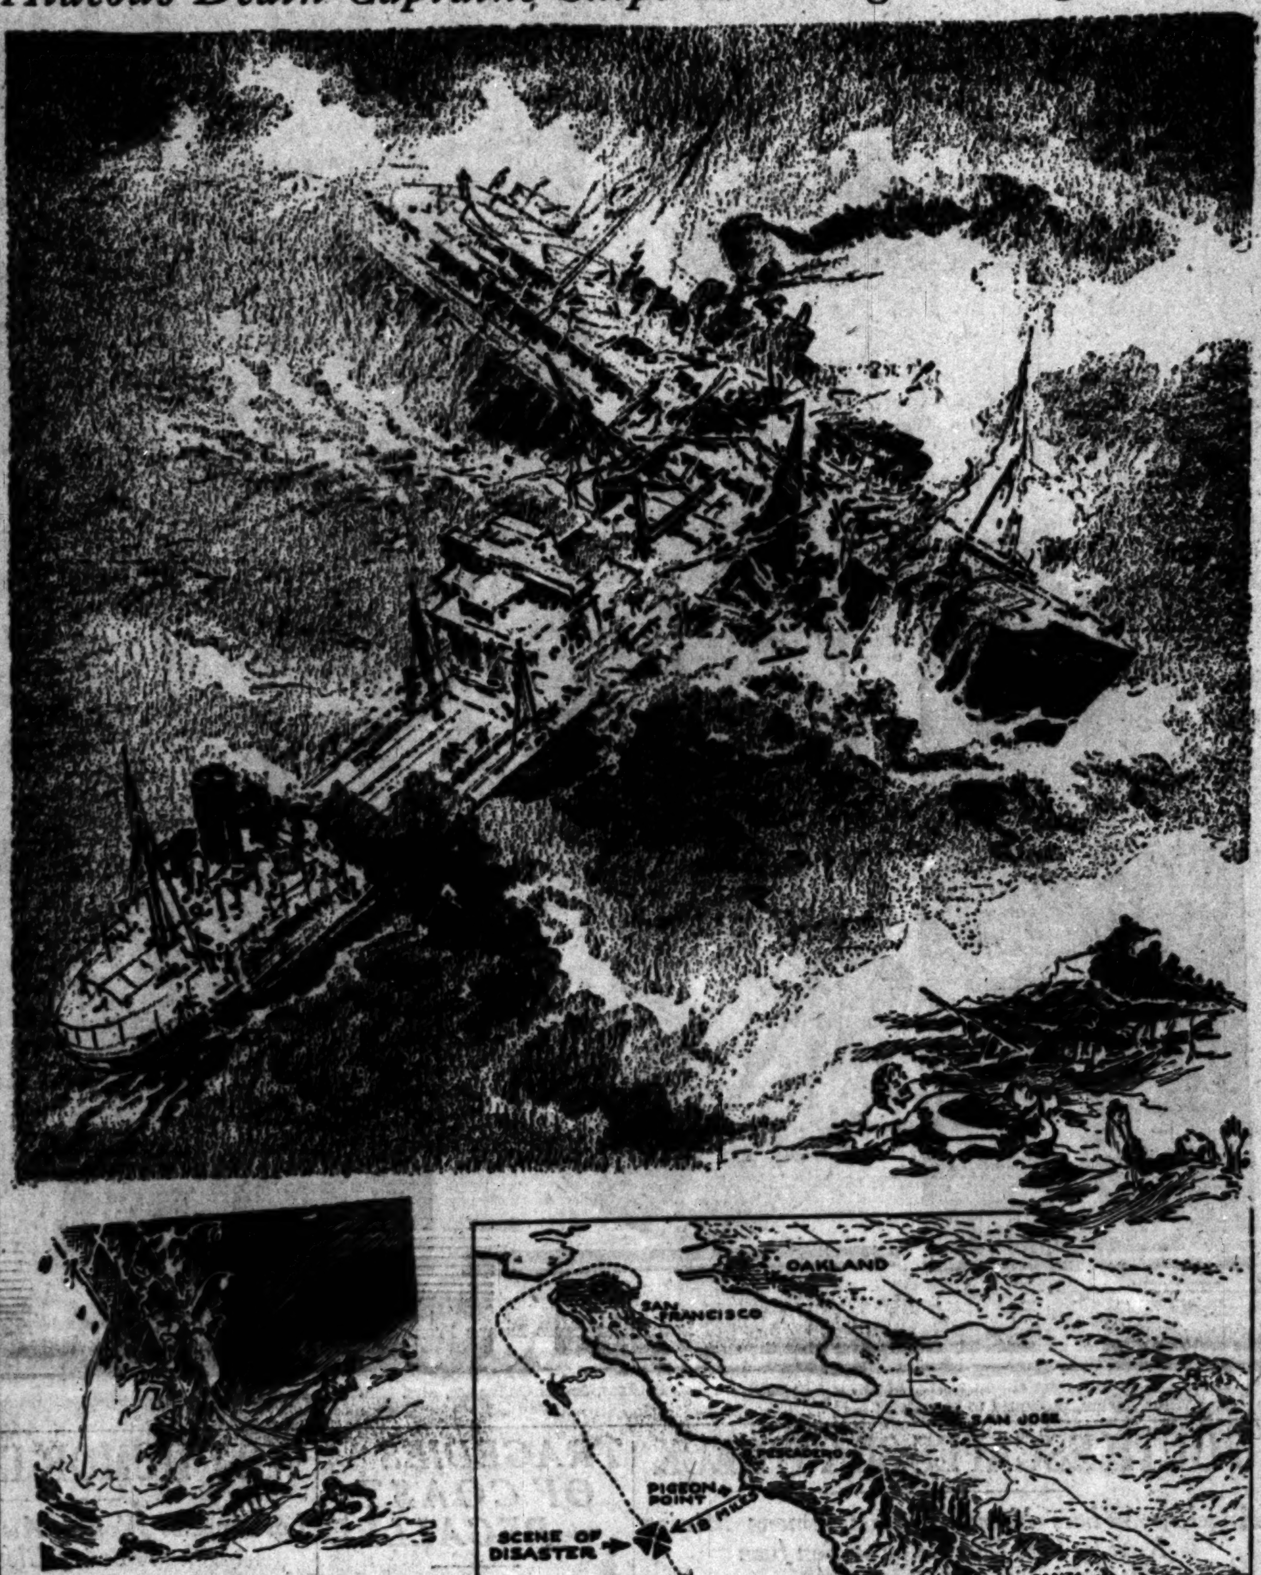
DENIAL AUTHORIZED

The Chinese legation in Berlin announced today receipt of a message from Nanking authorizing it to deny it had been notified that Russia was ready to discuss settlement on condition that a soviet citizen be appointed general manager of the railroad. The treaty of 1924 provided for joint operation of the road but the Chinese recently expelled all soviet employees on the ground that they had used their railroad offices to further propaganda.

HEAT STRIKES PRAIRIES

WINNIPEG, Aug. 30. (AP)—Another torrid wave settled over the prairies today and shot thermometers to the neighborhood of 100 deg. in many districts. The weather is considered ideal for harvesting, which is being rushed forward without delay in all three western provinces.

Hideous Death Captains Ships Hurtling to Tragic Tryst



When Grinding Timbers and Rending Iron Sang Dirge of Sixty-Eight

Times Staff Artist Charles H. Owens here has depicted the disaster that overtook the steamer San Juan, rammed early yesterday morning by the tanker S. C. T. Dodd, with a loss of sixty-eight lives. The diagram shows where the accident occurred.

BLUNDER LAID TO SAN JUAN AS SEA DEATH LIST GROWS

Dodd Captain Says Course Altered; Survivors Tell of Terrors as Sixty-eight Sink to Doom

BY FLOYD J. HEALEY
"Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Trapped in their bunks or below decks or drawn down into the depths of the ocean in the sickening whirlpool of the sinking ship before they had time to realize what had happened, at least sixty-eight men, women and children went to their deaths when the White Flyer Line steamer San Juan was cut in two and sank off Pigeon Point, a few minutes after midnight this morning. The loss is the official figure given today by officials of the operating line but it probably always will remain an estimate because of last-minute passengers taken aboard whose names do not appear on available sailing lists. Reports tonight show forty-two persons rescued of an estimated 110 on board.

The San Juan, which had been in service for forty-seven years and is said to have been the oldest ship in passenger service sailing Pacific waters, finished its career as the victim of one of the most horrifying tragedies in Pacific history and the worst off the California coast since the Rio de Janeiro sank off Mile Rock, at the entrance of the Golden Gate, in 1901.

Its skipper, Capt. A. F. Asplund, true to the traditions of the sea, went to his death on the bridge of his temporary command, rounding out in a few short moments of heroism a lifetime of fifty years in sail and steam.

ALMOST CUT IN TWO

The San Juan was cut virtually in two by the Standard Oil tanker S. C. T. Dodd six hours after the passenger vessel left San Francisco Harbor for Los Angeles with 110 passengers and crew members aboard.

Thirty-one were picked up and were brought into port today by the Dodd. The McCormick freighter Munami sent radio word it had picked up eleven others. They were transferred to the United States cutter Shawnee, which immediately put out for San Francisco Harbor.

With the arrival of the Dodd, details of the catastrophe became available for the first time and left hearers aghast at the rapidity with which the maritime disaster took its place in history.

When the Shawnee came in tonight, these details were augmented by the first definite information that the San Juan's boilers had exploded before it settled to its grave in the deep.

The explosion, the survivors said, shattered the only lifeboat which it had been possible to launch. The blast hurled the lifeboat and its occupants into the air, injuring five of them seriously. But it also probably saved their lives as it hurled them clear of the maelstrom that sucked many others to their deaths.

The San Juan, cut wide open by the sharp and heavy stem of the tanker, sank before passengers and crew members in berths, staterooms and below decks had time to realize the vessel even had been struck.

August Olson, second officer of the ill-fated vessel, said it went down in less than three minutes.

SAN JUAN BLAMED

From the stories of the survivors and of Capt. H. O. Pleumchen, master of the tanker, it also appeared that an error in seamanship may be developed by the official investigation which will place Capt. Asplund of the San Juan in the unenviable position of being responsible for the crash. According to the report submitted by Capt. Pleumchen, the riding lights of the San Juan, northbound, were plainly visible to the Dodd, despite a thick haze of fog that covered the sea all around.

As the vessels approached each other in the normal routine of passing, the required signals were sounded by the siren of the oil tanker and there appeared to be not one thing to indicate the impending disaster. Both vessels were riding a steady course, the skipper reported.

Then, in that moment which changed an ordinary passing of ships in the night into an epic drama of the sea, the San Juan is asserted to have veered sharply off its course, directly into the onrushing prow of the oil tanker.

LIBEL SUIT FILED

The reply of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation Company, operators of the vessel, was a libel suit filed in United States District Court against the Standard Oil Company, operators of the tanker.

The complaint charges that the Dodd was proceeding at an excessive rate of speed through fog, was failing to keep a proper lookout and was failing to give proper signals. The suit asks damages of $1,000,000 for the vessel, the survivors and members of the families of the dead.

Capt. Pleumchen said when the San Juan veered in front of him, his engines were reversed at once.

Capt. Pleumchen said his engines were reversed immediately. But it was too late. The ships came together with a crash that tore three jagged holes in the tanker's prow

Hollywood Man Shot by Bandits

SEATTLE, Aug. 30. (AP)—Refusing to obey a bandit's command to "stick 'em up" as he awaited a street car here tonight, J. P. Twohy, Seattle and Hollywood contractor, was shot three times. He was in a hospital in a critical condition. The bullets took effect in the head, chest and adbomen.

Mrs. Twohy, who was with her husband at the time, said he merely smiled at the gunman when he was ordered to surrender his purse. Without another word, she said, the bandit fired.

LOS ANGELES FLYER SETS AIR RECORD

Cleveland Crowd Cheers Reid in Nonrefueling Solo Endurance Triumph

BY TERREL DE LAPP
"Times Staff" Representative

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31. (Exclusive)—Cheers from 20,000 throats rent the air at Cleveland airport early today as T. G. (Jack) Reid, plucky Los Angeles flyer, and his sturdy Emsco Whirlwind plane, also a Los Angeles product, broke the nonrefueling solo endurance flight record and proceeded to establish a new one.

At 12:01 Reid tied the world's solo endurance record for men, of 36h. 56m., established at the Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport on May 26, last. Lieut. Herbert J. Fahy, flying a Lockheed Vega plane, set the record.

An hour later Reid had broken officially the record, and was still going strong.

He announced through signals that he will remain aloft until his supply of gasoline is exhausted. He expects it to hold out until dawn.

Reid took off at 11:04 a.m. Thursday, the emergency tanks of his Emsco Whirlwind plane filled with 610 gallons of gasoline, his food hamper outfitted with a dozen sandwiches, four thermos bottles of coffee and a supply of water and sweet chocolate.

SUBMARINE CREW 'ESCAPES'

Ill-Fated S-4 Tests "Lung" to Avert Disaster; Twenty-six Leave Ship at Bottom

NEW LONDON (Ct.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Twenty-six officers and bluejackets came out of the after hatch of the submerged submarine S-4 this morning and shot to safety through the waters of the Thames River with the use of the Navy's new invention, the "lung," in the first instruction class working under actual conditions at the submarine base.

Lieut. C. B. Monsen, inventor of the lung, and one or two others previously used the apparatus with success, first at Key West, Fla., and then at the submarine base. A class had practiced with the lung at the swimming pool of the local Y. M. C. A., but today marked the first series of escapes from a submerged submarine of an entire crew of officers and sailors under actual conditions.

The S-4, the submarine which laid in seventeen fathoms, 102 feet of water, off Provincetown, Mass., from December 17, 1927, until March 17 of last year with the loss of her entire crew, was submerged at its pier at the submarine base with the class of officers and crew aboard.

The men had entered the submarine in bathing suits, many of them wearing only trunks. The weather was not so good as it might have been and the water was reported very chilly.

A buoy was placed near the after end of the submersible to mark the approximate area where the men would be apt to appear on the surface of the water.

Communication was established with the boat by means of a battery list phone, a practically new apparatus, by which an operator standing on the pier talked clearly with all compartments of the submarine during the operations.

Spaniards Tell How Submarine Struck Vessel

SANTANDER (Spain) Aug. 30. (AP)—The crew of the Spanish submarine C-2, which came into port last night, today described how the submarine, which had been patrolling the route of the Plymouth-Santander regatta, collided with the fishing bark Gerado Abascal, sinking her. The submarine rescued two of the bark's crew of three, one of whom drowned.

Flying Teacher and Pupil Killed

RAPID CITY (S. D.) Aug. 30. (AP) Capt. W. W. Spain, assistant instructor at an aviation school, and William C. Kearns, 18 years of age, student flyer of Marysville, Kan., were killed in an airplane wreck yesterday. They spiraled from about 1500 feet and apparently leveled off about fifty feet from the ground, stalled and nosed into the ground.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Aug. 30. [To the Editor of The Times:] I thought they had the Jerusalem and Palestine thing pretty well settled as to who's it was. But it seems the Turks have broke out again. Why don't the Jewish people recruit a lot of these East Side boys from New York and out in Chicago that fought so good in the war and send them over there?

You can't lick those Turks with mass meetings and passing resolutions.

A few regiments of those young boys would break these Mohammedans from sucking eggs. Instead of going to that wailing wall with just some wails, why, take a gun. That would break 'em from interrupting prayer meetings.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

AIR TRAGEDY AVERTED AT GREAT RISK

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—Harold Mays, a Stout Air Line pilot, risked his life today to prevent a head-on collision of two airplanes and tonight is a hero of the National Air Races here.

Because of Mays's quick action Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh was saved from a smash-up.

Arriving at the air race field from Detroit, Mrs. Lindbergh was imperiled when the plane she was in suddenly was faced by the craft Mays was flying. Both planes were near the ground.

Mays took the "only way out"—nose-dived to the ground. His plane turned over, but neither the pilot nor William Goss, another Stout Line flyer, was injured.

A moment later, Mrs. Lindbergh was landed safely, and she took off immediately with her famous son, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

Next to Mays's daring dive, the most thrilling event on today's air race program was the stunting of Charles (Speed) Holman of St. Paul in a three-motored Ford monoplane.

Holman toyed with the giant ship as if it were as easily handled as a small plane. He looped, barrel-rolled and flew upside down. It is said to have been the first time such tricks ever were done with a large three-motored plane.

Clarence Chamberlin of New York took the first closed-course race on the program, going 114.8 miles per hour in a fifty-mile event for light planes. I. W. Brown of New York was second. There were eleven planes in the race.

Famed Aviatrix Clings to Life

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—The same courage that took Lady Mary Heath through many unusually dangerous airplane flights in Africa kept the famous Irish aviatrix alive here tonight, despite her fractured skull and many other injuries.

Critically injured when her plane fell through a factory roof here yesterday, Lady Heath did not recover conscousness until nearly twenty hours later.

DOOMED MOTHER HURLS LITTLE SON TO SAFETY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Little Hollis Pifer, 6 years of age, of Los Angeles, rode in on the after deck of the tanker Dodd today, the only child survivor of the San Juan sinking. The story of his rescue is one of the dramatic instances of a heart-rending catastrophe. It is the story of a mother's first thought, of her child.

When the Dodd rammed the San Juan Mrs. Marjorie Pifer ran out on deck with the child in her arms. The ships were interlocked, the Dodd's bow buried deep in the San Juan's side. Mrs. Pifer hurled her son into the air. He landed on the deck of the Dodd, looming above. The ships pulled apart and the mother went down with the San Juan.

"Mother kissed me before she threw me," Hollis sobbed.

and cut the San Juan in two as if its aged plates were so much tissue paper.

In a trice the wildest confusion reigned.

For a moment the two vessels hung together in a state of suspended animation. In that brief fraction of time, a man and a boy were seen to leap to the decks of the Dodd.

In another moment, the Dodd, with engines still tearing up the water full speed astern, backed off.

Passengers and crew members on the decks of the San Juan leaped, fell and slipped into the waters. It was their one chance to save their lives, however slim.

While the shrieks of the struggling and the drowning rent the air, the San Juan's prow rose high in the air in its final death struggle. Then it shot downward into the sea, carrying two-score persons to their graves without the slightest chance.

As it went down, the maelstrom of waters that follows sinking ships sucked desperately swimming survivors down after it. Their last cries of agony sickened those who had managed to get far enough away to escape the whirlpool, but they had themselves to think of. They had to stay afloat in the icy waters until rescue ships could pick them up.

RESCUE WORK STARTS

The Dodd's life boats were swung out just as quickly as it was humanly possible, according to Capt. Pleumchen's report and the work of rescue got under way.

After the two vessels crashed together, Clifford Paulson, senior radio operator on the San Juan, had time to flash out:

"We are struck."

Then he leaped from the radio room into the sea. He was one of those picked up.

As the two steamships swung apart, the Dodd's wireless began spitting out its SOS bringing to its aid first the Munami.

The same wireless call sent rescue ships from all over the vicinity speeding to the rescue work, among them the cutter Shawnee, the Coast Guard patrol boats McLane and Ewing, the Coast Guard cutter Algonquin, a Standard Oil tug and the Red Stack tug Sea Lion.

The one man who could tell what caused the San Juan to swing off its course, if that is what happened, never will be available in this world to tell his story. He was Capt. Asplund, who carried the secret of the crash down into the sea with him.

ANXIOUS CROWD

The arrival of the Dodd at Pier 45 today brought thousands of sightseers and hundreds of relatives, some stolid, some weeping, some hysterical. Each and all were there to receive news of the living—or the dead; hoping it would be the former.

Miss Caroline Asplund, daughter of the San Juan's captain, collapsed on the pier when told that her father had gone down with his ship.

Police lines were bent, twisted and shattered at times, but managed to hold, while the milling thousands fought to get a glimpse of those who had been snatched from the maw of death.

Many of them were injured and were rushed to hospitals on their arrival. Others were in condition to go to their homes or to the homes of relatives or friends.

As the stories of the survivors were told, the horror of the plunging night grew. Each repetition increased rather than dimmed the indescribable minutes through which the rescued had lived before they were picked up and trundled into makeshift bunks on the tanker, the Munami and the Shawnee.

ANGELENOS SAVED

Several Los Angeles persons are among the survivors.

Harry N. Kidder, salesman living at 2822 Brighton avenue, Los Angeles, was returning to his home city after a vacation spent here.

"I was in my berth," he said, "when the collision came. I jumped out and grabbed my clothes, doing the best I could to dress.

"I ran to the deck. There was such a list people fell on me. The boat must have gone over just at that time because the next I knew I was under water. When I came to the surface I came up alongside two ten-inch planks. They saved my life.

"I clung to them until I was picked up by a boat."

WIFE LOST

John Healey of Anaheim, who suffered a lacerated abdomen, multiple cuts and bruises and a lacerated right leg, was returning to his home with his wife. They were sitting in their stateroom when the crash came.

When the end of consciousness came for Healey, his wife was clinging to his coat. He never saw her again.

"Just after the crash," he said, "my wife opened the stateroom door and cried: 'Oh, Daddy. There is a ship on top of us.'

"I told her to grab a lifebelt and I would see what was the matter and come right back. When I tried to run back the lights were out and I could not find my way.

"But my wife had found her way to the deck. We met again there.

"As the boat began to list, we climbed to the rail. Then there seemed to be another blow and the boat turned completely over, it seemed.

"The last words from my wife were:

"'I'm going to hang on to you.'

"We were torn apart in the water."

STORY OF TRAGEDY

A moving story of tragedy imposed on tragedy was told by Martin Hanson during lucid moments recovering from the shock. Hanson lost his wife and two children. He is a young Danish architect who has been in this country about four months and in San Francisco three weeks. He had drawn his entire funds, $400, and with his family took passage for Los Angeles, where he thought he might find work.

"We were all in our stateroom, in bed," said Hanson, "when there came a crash. I did not know what had happened, but I told my family to wait a moment and I would see. I had just reached the deck when the boat sank under my feet.

"The next second I was beneath the water. I never saw my wife or children again."

Hanson was in a pitiable condition from shock and grief.

He gave his wife's name as Anna and the children's as Eric, 6 years of age, and Ole, 4.

BOY RESCUED

Solomon Karansky, 909 Temple street, Los Angeles, had said good-by to his father here last night and was en route south. His father stood in the throng as the Dodd steamed in today with its survivors. The senior Karansky wept silently on the pier. Suddenly he saw his son, 14, at the rail. The father leaped and shouted with joy and a short time later father and son were close in each other's arms.

Solomon said:

"I felt a big bump and ran out. Women were hurrying about in their nightgowns crying and asking for life preservers. We could not get any. I felt the boat sinking beneath my feet and jumped overboard. A lifeboat picked me up."

CREW DENOUNCED

Theodore Granstedt of Mountainview was emphatic in denouncing the crew for what he described as its "cowardly desertion of the passengers, and especially the women and children."

"When the crash came the entire crew deserted their posts and saved themselves," declared Granstedt. "They jumped for themselves and made no effort to launch a boat or save a soul.

"I was in my stateroom with Mrs. Granstedt when the Dodd struck us. We jumped out of our berths and tried to light the light, but could not. We threw clothing over us and went to the deck, the boat then having a heavy list to the port side.

"We stood a moment on the deck with some friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Olson and their daughter, Helen, of San Jose.

THROWN IN WATER

"Just then the boat took a final and unexpected lunge and we were all drawn down into the whirlpool. I saw nothing more of the others. When I came to the surface, four other persons were in the water near me, but not my wife or any of the Olsens. I held on to a piece of wood and remembered nothing more until I was revived on the Dodd."

Granstedt was rescued from the water from the deck of the Dodd, and was the last survivor picked up by that vessel. He was hauled aboard with a rope and the crew worked over him for several hours before he regained consciousness.

He suffered acutely from shock and submersion.

CREW FIGHTS

That the crew fought in their quarters to escape by the companion-way after the crash was stated by Jen Mehanner, member of the crew.

"I was sleeping in my bunk in the crew's quarters when the crash came," he said. "I was thrown out of bed, as we all were. Not more than two minutes later the lights went out and then there came a mad scramble like rats for the companionway. I managed to get out and to the deck as she was sinking and jumped.

"I landed near some wreckage. Everything was confusion. There was no order and no chance to lower any boats. It came too sudden."

August Olson, second officer on the San Juan, said:

"My watch stopped at 11:55. I was down in the dining-room ready to go on duty at 12 o'clock. I walked to the upper deck when I heard the crash, and went to the boats to stand by. I was shoved off. The ship sank three minutes after she was struck."

C. J. Tullee, first mate, said the boat went down two or three minutes after the collision.

STEWARD TELLS STORY

George Haines, steward on the San Juan, said:

"I heard a crash and hurried to the deck to see everybody running about madly and jumping overboard. The ship was beginning to settle. The captain went down with her and the last man to leave, as far as I know, was the chief officer. He turned to me and said:

"'You damned food, jump.' And I did, a boat picking me up after a time."

Henry Holgate, cook, described one woman he saw who apparently saved herself by exceptional swimming ability.

"The Dodd hit up amidships about the ship's salon. There was no chance. We began to sink immediately. I jumped as soon as I got to the deck and managed to grab a hatch cover.

"I saw a woman jump about when I did. She was a strong swimmer and she finally got hold of a hatch cover and must have been saved."

"I heard three blasts, which I understand is a reverse signal, then felt a crash. My partner, Mr. Wade, and I rushed on deck. I went over the port side and he took the starboard. It was terrible to see women and children screaming and grabbing for boxes and other fragments of wreckage. We were picked up by lifeboats from the Dodd."

His body cut and bruised, his clothing soiled and ragged, Robert Winston, 17 years of age, an orphan, had purchased his ticket aboard the San Juan with his last $8, he said, hoping to find work in Los Angeles. He told of a dark, foggy night and a rough sea, and of being thrown violently out of his bunk about midnight when the San Juan was rammed.

"I rushed on deck," he said, "and tried to assist in the lowering of a lifeboat. The ship was sinking fast and when the job seemed impossible I grabbed a life belt and jumped overboard."

Then followed a mad struggle in an ice-cold sea full of screaming, drowning humanity. A man grabbed frantically at him and a box struck him squarely in the face. The man went down and did not come up. When he had managed to get about 100 feet clear of the vessel she sank and the water pulled him down with the submerging hull.

STUDENT GOES DOWN

By a miracle he managed to come to the surface and was dumped roughly into a crowded lifeboat.

Paul B. Wagner, 24, one of those missing, was a graduate student of physics at Stanford University. A graduate of the California Institute of Technology in the class of 1928, he had just completed a year's work toward an advanced degree at Stanford and was on his way south to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagner, 1921 Victoria street, Los Angeles.

James Gallagher, one of the survivors picked up by the Munami and transferred to the Shawnee, was the first to get permission to send a radio message from that vessel. He wirelessed his parents at 3236 Lanfranco street, Los Angeles, that he had been rescued.

Eleven survivors were brought here tonight by the Coast Guard cutter Shawnee. Four of the more seriously injured were taken to the Harbor Emergency Hospital.

Those taken to the Harbor Emergency Hospital are Mrs. William Fellows, Los Angeles, bruised on the body and legs; not serious.

Miss Rosa P. Rulfo, San Francisco, badly bruised on the head and body.

LEATHERS AT WHEEL

Leathers was at the wheel when the collision occurred. He said he managed to get a life preserver, but gave it to a woman who had none. As the sinking boat gave its final lurch Leathers was thrown into the water. He swam about sometime until he found a piece of wreckage upon which he crawled. He does not know what became of the woman. He was not badly hurt.

Mrs. Fellows was rescued by her husband who was unhurt. Mr. Fellows is an employee of the Broadway Theater in Los Angeles. He said when the collision occurred he dashed on deck, saw that the boat was sinking and returned to his stateroom to get Mrs. Fellows. He got a life preserver, placed it around his wife and dashed back with her on deck. He said he saw the boat go down with an unlaunched lifeboat with several men in it.

Clinging to each other, Fellows and his wife were dragged beneath the surface of the water by the suction of the sinking vessel. They came up together and swam to a piece of wreckage, upon which they floated for fifty minutes before being rescued by a lifeboat of the freighter Munami. Later they were transferred with others to the Shawnee.

Lying with bruised body and legs on a cot of the Emergency Hospital, Mrs. Fellows said: "I owe my life to my husband. I never could have swum to the wreckage without him, nor stayed upon it."

Local Passengers Escape From Sea's Clutches

The sea took a toll of approximately seventy lives when the steamer San Juan was rammed by the Standard Oil tanker, S. C. T. Dodd off the Pacific Coast a short distance south of San Francisco, early yesterday morning. The collision occurred in a dense fog and the San Juan sank within a few minutes. The two craft, the S. C. T. Dodd at left and the San Juan, at right, are shown above. Below, left to right, Clifford Paulson, James Gallagher, Mrs. Maude Dansby, rescued; Purser John Cleveland, missing; Harry H. Kidder, rescued and Willis Barton, presumed to be missing.

YOUTH ESCAPES SEA WRECK

Angeleno Whose Name Appears Among Missing Kept by Fate from Being on San Juan

One of the odd quirks of fate that played about the sinking of the San Juan was told last night by R. O. Gorman, a youthful interior decorator, who said he had purchased a round-trip ticket from the Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation Company a week ago, had gone to San Francisco on the Humboldt and when the time came near for his return to this city received a wire from his employers asking him to return as soon as possible.

"I sold my return ticket to Willis Barton, who said his address here was 750 Isabel street, Los Angeles, and came down the coast on the Harvard. Barton, I suppose, used my ticket and lost his life on the San Juan.

"The list of dead gives my name as among the missing, but I feel sure that if any body was found it must be that of Barton. He has a sister living on Isabel street and a father living in Bell," Gorman said.

Gorman told his story to The Times last night in the hope that the family of Barton might be located and to learn whether his substitute had been able to escape death in the cold waters off Pigeon Point.

Barton was 20 years of age and lived with his sister, Mrs. Frank C. Donnell, at 750 Isabel street. He had lived in Los Angeles about six years and worked as a soda-fountain clerk. He was born and reared in Cleburne, Tex., and was unmarried.

TRAGEDIES OF COAST RECALLED

San Juan's Sinking Worst Disaster Since Loss of Rio de Janeiro in 1901

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—The sinking of the San Juan off Pigeon Point this morning was the worst sea tragedy on this section of the Pacific Coast since February 22, 1901, when the Rio de Janeiro went down near the entrance to San Francisco Harbor with a loss of 128 lives.

Other outstanding disasters on this coast in the last seventy-five years follow:

Owners of Wrecked Ship Take Prompt Action to Collect Damages

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—The Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation Company today filed two libel suits totaling $1,800,000 against the Standard Oil Company in Federal court here. The suits were in connection with the ramming of the liner San Juan by the Standard Oil tanker S.C.T. Dodd.

Losing no time in protecting their interests in the court, the navigation company filed the suits not many hours following the crash. The complaints, one of which seeks $1,500,000 and the other $300,000 damages, assert the collision, which cost approximately seventy lives, was the fault of the Dodd.

The ship was traveling at high speed, the complaint declares, and the crash was the result of negligence and failure to keep adequate watch aboard the Dodd.

WRY HUMOR IN SEA HORROR

Los Angeles Woman Arrives in Port After Rescue Wearing Clothes of Sailor

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Out of the terror and tragedy surrounding the sinking of the White Flyer Line steamer San Juan, early this morning, a touch of grim humor was retained tonight by Maude Dansby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fisher, 8923 Beach street, Los Angeles, who was the only woman to reach this city aboard the Standard Oil tanker S. C. T. Dodd. Mrs. Dansby was brought into port here arrayed in a sailor's garb, the only thing, she declared, that she could find in an emergency to cover herself after her rescue from the sea.

"How do I look in these clothes?" she asked, pirouetting like a mannequin. "I never was so pleased with any clothes as these. All I had on was my birthday suit when they picked me up.

"We sat around earlier in the evening wishing for a little excitement. Well, we got it. Plenty. And not the kind we were looking for, though.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE

"A shipwreck is terrible, but it is a mighty thrilling experience if one lives to remember it.

"There was a terrific crash. I did not stop for clothes. I ran out on deck in my nightie. Everyone was terribly frightened. We knew something awful had happened. The ship began to sink. I jumped into the water."

"Were you scared?" she was asked.

"Say, did you ever spend three-quarters of an hour in the ocean with people screaming and sobbing around you? Oh, no, I wasn't scared. Not a bit!

LUCKY IN RESCUE

"I'm a good swimmer, so I just kept moving and after a while some one, I don't know who, lifted me into a boat. So here I am and darned lucky to be here.

"It was the biggest thrill I ever had in my life. But I won't be sorry to get into some real clothes again and to put my feet on terra firma."

Mrs. Dansby was kept on the Dodd until unidentified friends arrived with some clothing. She departed with them, refusing to give the address in San Francisco where she is staying.

COTTON MILL DYNAMITED

MARION (N. C.) Aug. 30. (AP)—The "opening room" in the Clinchfield cotton mill here was wrecked by an explosion of dynamite today. Deputy Sheriffs on guard at the mill, where a strike is in progress, failed to catch the dynamiters.

Revised List of Survivors in Shipwreck

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—The following is the revised list of survivors of the San Juan disaster brought to San Francisco today by the Standard Oil tanker S. C. T. Dodd:

C. J. Tulee, first mate.
A. Olson, second mate.
R. Papanfuss, third mate.
Clifford Paulson, first wireless.
Paul Hillsman, second wireless, San Francisco.
W. Gainley, winch driver.
Charles Lane, chief pantry man.
G. G. Haines, waiter, San Francisco.
Lawrence Roberts, fireman, San Francisco.
James Naughton, oiler, San Francisco.
Jens Mehanner, seaman, San Francisco.
J. A. McDonald, oiler.
Raymond Alkofer, waiter.
H. Steffanson, winch driver, San Francisco.
Julius Sepp, seaman, San Francisco.
Anest Zoarifaki, seaman.
Caesar Ceballos, oiler, San Francisco.
John MacCarthy, third engineer, San Francisco.

PASSENGERS

Harry H. Kidder, San Francisco.
Martin Hanson.
Mrs. M. Dansby, 8923 Beach street, Los Angeles.
S. Karanky, 909 Temple street, Los Angeles.
John Ealey, Anaheim.
Roy Eades, Los Angeles.
John Garcia, Santa Barbara.
J. H. Houghton, 822 Thirty-fifth avenue, San Francisco.
Hollis Pifer, 6 years of age, San Francisco.
Henry Holgate, a negro.
L. B. Heatley, Manila.
Robert Winston, San Francisco.
Theodore Grandstedt, Mountain View, Cal.

Rosa Perez Rulfo.
L. E. Leathers.
James Gallagher.
Harry Wade, San Francisco.
Mr. and Mrs. William Fellows, Los Angeles.
H. E. Hamilton, Los Angeles.
William Jones, San Francisco.
Bernardino Garcia, San Pedro.
Morris Constantine.
Alex Cowie, San Francisco.

CRASH INQUIRY QUICKLY BEGUN

Bureau of Navigation Starts Investigation in Bay City

Captain of Dodd Asserts San Juan Backing

Collision Laid to Error of Drowned Skipper

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—The formal investigation into the collision between the San Juan and the S. C. T. Dodd was launched with surprising swiftness late today and will be continued at [illegible] a.m. tomorrow. Capt. John K. Bulger, supervising inspector of hulls and boilers for the Bureau of Navigation, will preside and will be assisted by Inspectors Turner and Dolan.

The investigation will settle responsibility for the crash, each of the operating companies placing the blame upon the other, and also will seek to determine the seaworthiness of the San Juan, which had been in service for forty-seven years.

BLAMES SAN JUAN

Capt. Pleumchen appeared before the steamboat inspectors within a matter of several hours and declared the disaster would have been avoided if the San Juan had continued on its course instead of starting to back.

The statement left the inference that the reversal of engines of the two ships played a part in their striking.

The Dodd, Capt. Pleumchen declared, signaled she was backing. The Dodd struck the San Juan about one-quarter length from her stern, the tank skipper asserted. Had the San Juan remained on her course, he said, the two vessels would have cleared in another seventy-five feet.

IN THREE MINUTES

Capt. Pleumchen fixed the time of the crash at 11:34 p.m. and its location fifteen miles south of Pigeon Point. The ship, he said, sank in less than three minutes.

Called to the bridge at 11:[illegible] p.m. by the third mate, who reported the atmosphere was "thickening in," Capt. Pleumchen said he ordered fog whistles blown.

He sighted the San Juan, he said, a quarter of a mile distant, showing her red port light. After blowing a triple blast three times, he said, and giving his engine room the reverse signal, he realized the crash was inevitable.

The Dodd's bow struck the San Juan's side at the after part of the engine room, he said, and both ships came to a dead stop.

GENTLE COLLISION

"There was hardly a jar," Pleumchen testified. "It was my intention then to go ahead in order to hold the San Juan in the hole, but her bow started to swing alongside us and she began to submerge. I had then already given a general alarm on my ship. When the two ships were almost touching each other a woman on the San Juan handed a small boy over our railing and a man jumped aboard.

"I gave the order to lower away and lifeboats Nos. 1, 2 and 3 were floated, commanded by my first, second and third mates, respectively. Not a second was lost and I had the searchlight played, which we continued to play on the wreckage and the surface between the two ships. The three boats, cruising among the drowning, picked up twenty-six men and women and one swimmer was hoisted aboard on a line."

NO FOG THEN

That the air was clear and the visibility high up to a few minutes before the crash was emphasized by Pleumchen, who said the San Juan was sighted on the edge of a fog blanket which swept over the two vessels as they crashed. The Dodd was going full speed, ten and one-half knots, he testified, with all lights on and a sailor ahead as lookout. The gathering fog made the rescue work extremely difficult.

Capt. Pleumchen, his deck and engine-room officers and surviving officers and crew members of the San Juan will testify at a hearing before Inspectors Turner and Dolan tomorrow, when the log and bell books of the Dodd will be introduced. Pleumchen has been master of the Dodd since June 18, [illegible].

Whether the San Juan was in fit condition to go to sea laden with passengers is admittedly one of the factors to be gone over in detail.

SHIP SEAWORTHY

At the time of her last inspection, however, early in the summer, the San Juan was pronounced entirely seaworthy, despite the fact she was built in 1882 and was one of the oldest vessels in service in Pacific waters.

Life-saving equipment included six lifeboats with a total capacity of 132 persons, although total capacity of the ship was placed at 127. There were, according to Bureau of Navigation records, 119 adult life preservers, seventeen children's life preservers, four ring buoys, two luminous ring buoys and one Lyle gun.

The vessel was drydocked August 21, 1928, for overhauling, a new rudder, cleaning of the sea valves and the installation of a new propeller.

RECORD OF REPAIRS

On April 18, last, she was put into dry dock for cleaning, painting, overhauling of sea valves and cleaning of her bottom.

According to Steamboat Inspectors Turner and Dolan the San Juan was in good condition, despite her age.

Shrieks of Fear-Crazed Passengers Plunging to Doom in Black Waters of Sea Described

EYEWITNESSES RELATE STORIES

Captain of Dodd Says Other Ship Changed Course

Survivors Tell of Panic on Board Sinking Craft

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Graphic stories of the collision and sinking of the steamer San Juan were told here today by survivors of the catastrophe, who arrived on the steamer S. C. T. Dodd, which rammed the San Juan.

Capt. H. O. Bleumchen of the Dodd made the following statement on arrival at the wharf.

"The Dodd was proceeding northward on its regular course and sighted the lights of the San Juan," he said. "The vessels were on passing courses when the San Juan apparently changed its direction so as to cross the path of the Dodd. I then ordered the engines full speed astern in the hope that the San Juan would maintain its speed and a collision be averted.

"The regular signals were given by the Dodd as to the nature of the maneuver. For some reason, the San Juan adopted the same maneuver, unfortunately, and thereby defeated the idea of the Dodd.

"The two vessels came together and were so close after the accident that a boy passenger of the San Juan and one of the men were able to step from the deck to the Dodd. The San Juan sank rapidly. Boats of the Dodd were lowered rapidly and with assistance of two hours of clear weather, a large number of passengers taken aboard."

OTHERS TELL STORIES

Other eyewitness stories follow:

John Garcia, passenger—I was asleep in my berth at the time of the wreck. I heard the crash and grabbed a life preserver and jumped into a lifeboat. It tipped over, and I came up again and drifted around in the water for an hour. I was picked up by the Dodd crew.

S. Karansky—I was pretty nearly knocked out of my berth. I looked around to see what was doing, and women were running around in nightgowns, crying for life preservers and they couldn't get any. I saw all the people lined up trying to get into the Dodd, but it was too far away. One woman ran around shouting "take this baby first." I jumped over into the Dodd and landed on my face, and they took care of me. Then I saw people screaming and the San Juan went down like it was lead.

George Haines, steward—The chief officer stayed on until the last thing. He turned to me, and said: "You fool, jump." Then I jumped. I was one of the first picked up.

"TERRIBLE SHRIEKS"

L. B. Heatley, Manila—I heard the three blasts and went on deck. There was a lady there with a little child. She asked for a life preserver, for the boy, and I went to get her one. But she had left, so I gave it to somebody else. My partner came on deck and he went to port and I to starboard. The water was rushing up over the stern, and came right by the saloon door. I made a rush for the side, and dived over. I guess I was in the water an hour and a half. I saw women crying. It was terrible, shrieks and yelling for boats to come, people clinging to boxes. I held on to a large tool box until rescued.

A. Olson, second officer, San Juan—I had been down in the dining-room, ready to go on duty, and had walked to the upper deck where I heard the crash. I went to the boats to stand by, and was shoved off. The ship sank two or three minutes after it was struck.

RIVER STAMP AUTHORIZED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Announcement was made today by Postmaster-General Brown of the issuance on October 12, next, of a special 2-cent postage stamp to commemorate the completion of the Ohio River canalization.

Injured Passengers Being Removed at Bay City

They Escaped Death by Narrow Margin

Removing injured from the tanker S. C. T. Dodd at San Francisco. These survivors of the sea tragedy were picked up by the tanker following its collision with the steamer San Juan in which the latter craft went to the bottom approximately fifty-five miles south of San Francisco. They are being taken ashore at San Francisco.

WRECK VICTIM'S ESCAPE CLOSE

G. H. Houghton, Los Angeles, Relates Experience

Dives from Upending Deck Before Plunge

Passengers Trapped Below Had No Chance

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—In the black of night, groping in an unlighted stateroom, George H. Houghton, Los Angeles business man, put on all his clothes, one shoe, adjusted his life preserver, clipped on his eyeglasses and then just as the San Juan upended and plunged under the waters of the Pacific, he leaped and started swimming.

Houghton, survivor of a blood-chilling disaster but as cool as though merely returning from a pleasure trip, told this story today to the Associated Press.

SURVIVOR'S TALE

"I went to bed at 9 o'clock last night, but didn't sleep sound. The ship's whistle shrieked steadily. At 11:54 the San Juan whistled three times, and repeated it. I knew that meant to reverse the engines.

"A minute later there came a dull, rending crash. The impact was on the other side of the ship and approximately amidships.

"The crash didn't throw me from the berth but I scrambled out in a hurry. The lights went out a few seconds later. I found my trousers, vest, and coat and had them on in a jiffy. I had no idea we had been struck by a boat but thought at first we had piled up on the rocks.

"The screams and noise were terrible. I held the door of my stateroom open while I was fastening on the life preserver and saw dim shapes reeling about in the dining-room, just below me. I think they were passengers from the rooms on the lower deck.

SHIPPING WATER

"The stern of the San Juan was shipping water. I made my way out on deck and saw we had been in a collision. I went back to my stateroom and felt around for my other shoe. I couldn't find it but I picked up my glasses. I could see a group of persons huddled down by the main dining-room stairs.

"They were shouting, crying and calling for life preservers. Some were praying. It reminded me of 'Dante's Inferno.'

"The thought came to me that if the lights had been on it would have been a different matter. As it was, those below didn't have a chance.

"The ship quivered and I bolted for the deck. I saw some of the crew trying to launch one of the lifeboats, up forward. I think they got it off all right, but don't know what happened to it when it hit the water.

VESSEL SINKS

"A thousand things ran through my mind and I must have lived an eternity in six or seven minutes. I felt the boat heave and the stern dipped under. I gave a jump, landed on the rail and jumped out as far as I could. The water was just below my feet then.

"I went under, came up and began swimming away. I don't know how far away I was, but I saw the San Juan with her prow almost straight up. Then she sank like a plummet.

"A low fog was hanging over the water. There must have been a lot of persons in the water because I could hear screams and shouting to my rear. Some one was swearing. I heard shouts of 'launch the boats.' Gradually the cries subsided. It became deathly still.

RESCUE AT HAND

"Flares started bursting and lights burst through the fog. I knew they came from a ship near by. I kept swimming. Pretty soon a chap drifted near me out of the fog. I think it was the second mate of the San Juan. He was riding on some wreckage.

"We started talking. He said he had a whistle. I told him to blow it for all he was worth. He did. He was tooting away lustily and drifting away from me. He was the only one I saw while I was in the water. Pretty soon a lifeboat from the Dodd came out of the fog. They saw me and hauled me in and here I am."

Houghton estimates he was in the water anywhere from half an hour to forty-five minutes. Nearly six feet tall and weighing 200 pounds, he is an exceptionally strong swimmer. He lives in Hollywood.

SEA GIVES UP BODIES OF WOMEN

Salesman Says Shipwreck Victims Found by Cutter May be from Anaheim

Two bodies picked up by the Coast Guard cutter Tahoe from the scene of the sinking of the steamer San Juan off Pigeon Point may be those of Mrs. Lila Kendall and her mother, Mrs. L. H. Mohler, both of Anaheim, according to Earl Thompson, a traveling salesman of Bartlesville, Okla., who was in Los Angeles yesterday and said that he knew the two women intended to take the San Juan from San Francisco to Los Angeles.

Thompson was shown a news dispatch from San Francisco giving a meager description of the two bodies taken unidentified from the wreckage floating around the wreck scene and said that it tallied closely with the Anaheim women. He described Mrs. Kendall as being about 34 years of age, slender, sandy hair and about 120 pounds in weight. Mrs. Mohler, he said, was about 50 and was rather heavy.

The message of the Tahoe read: "Recovered two female bodies. One middle aged, about 150 pounds; one gold ring, initials "J. L. M.;" another with ring, green stone; gold rosary around neck. Other young; about 125 pounds; upper teeth missing; two Catholic emblems around neck; no other identification. Dense fog; continuing search."

ILL-FATED SHIP VETERAN OF SEA

San Juan Launched Nearly Half-Century Ago

Fruit Also May Remain on Trees in Florida

Regulations Previously Had Demanded Destruction

In their respective days both the San Juan and the S. C. T. Dodd, involved in yesterday's disaster, held high rank as ships that go to sea. But the San Juan's day was many years ago. She was built in 1882 by J. Roach & Sons at Chester, Pa., with a wrought-iron hull, which prevented her deterioration in salt water as rapidly as steel ships of today.

Her length at that time was something to boast of, 283 feet, though it is trivial now. She had a gross tonnage of 2152 and her double-end boilers and two-cylinder compound engines developed 1250 horsepower. For years she was a dependable trader in the Central Americas for the old Pacific Mail Steamship Company, passing to the present owners only a few years ago.

The S. C. T. Dodd still is regarded as a modern tanker, although built by Moore Shipbuilding Company in Oakland in 1920. She grosses 7054 tons, boasts 3200 horsepower, a length of 425 feet and is of steel construction, which resisted the impact with the San Juan so well that yesterday she was reported practically undamaged. Standard Oil of California is her present owner, although originally built for the Shipping Board.

Boy Saved But Fate of Chum Not Disclosed

Relief and anxiety were combined in a radiogram received yesterday by the father of Solly F. Karansky of 905 West Temple street, which said the 14-year-old boy had been rescued without injury, but did not give details of the fate of the boy's chum, Sam Smith, 15-year-old son of J. Smith, a tailor living at 438 Custer avenue.

There was nothing in Solly's message to indicate what had become of his friend Sam, and the father was frantic, not knowing whether the two boys had separated in San Francisco or had left together on the San Juan for Los Angeles.

NEW YORK SURGEON REPORTED MISSING

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP) — Dr. Frank M. Ende, 39-year-old New York surgeon and second in charge at the City Hospital there, has been missing, police said today, since the 19th inst. when he came to Chicago to attend a convention of the American Society of Physicians and Surgeons.

SISTER SHIP OF SAN JUAN IN COLLISION

Steamer Humboldt Rams Fishing Barge Stanford Off Santa Barbara

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 30. (AP)—The White Flyer Line steamer Humboldt, sister ship of the ill-fated San Juan, which sank off Pigeon Point after being rammed by the S. C. T. Dodd, was in another crash at approximately the same hour as the San Juan sank, it was reported here today.

The Humboldt rammed the fishing barge Jane L. Stanford, which was anchored in Santa Barbara channel.

A gaping hole was torn in the Stanford's hull by the prow of the Humboldt, and the barge has sunk almost to the waterline.

Because of its wooden construction and the fact that it has no engine, it is not expected to sink, marine authorities said. Preparations are being made to tow it ashore.

The Humboldt, San Francisco bound, struck the barge when heading for the Santa Barbara wharf. Its bow sank more than eight feet into the Stanford's side, according to reports here. The liner was damaged slightly.

The cause of the collision has not been determined. After repairs at the wharf it proceeded northward. Three of the barge owners, who were aboard at the time of the collision, were taken ashore by the Humboldt. They declared the Stanford's lights were burning at the time of the crash.

SHIP'S DOOM STUNS KIN

Relatives Besiege Offices of San Juan Line Here Seeking News of Loved Ones

Equalling, in a measure, the horror of the sinking of the steamer San Juan, yesterday's suspense and lack of complete passenger lists brought a flood of pleading telephone calls to the local offices of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation Company in the Spring-street entrance of the Arcade Building and a steady stream of anxious relatives and friends. The uncertainty of the actual list of dead and survivors was brought, according to A. H. Fay, local passenger agent for the line, by the last-minute sales of tickets where no record was made of the passenger's name and by the numerous persons who had written to friends they would travel on some ship of the company but were not sure when they would leave.

From 4 o'clock yesterday morning until late in the evening Mr. Fay and his assistant answered phone and personal calls from the relatives and friends, some of them not even sure the ones they sought were on board the San Juan.

YOUNGSTER SAVED

News dispatches from San Francisco told of the rescue of Hollis Piffer, 5-year-old boy who greeted his grandmother on the dock in San Francisco. Here in Los Angeles, Mr. Fay told of the visit to his office of the boy's father. Trembling, the man grasped one of the first lists of passengers and without waiting to learn whether his family was safe or leave his address, stumbled out of the office moaning: "They were there." The boy's mother and aunt went down with the ship.

Other persons were stricken and sent to bed by their physicians from the strain of waiting for word from their families. Mrs. H. H. Kidder, 2622 Brighton avenue, was under the care of her family until she received word that her husband, Harry Kidder, had been one of those rescued by the crew of the tanker Dodd and taken into San Francisco uninjured.

HUSBAND RESCUED

Mrs. George Houghton of 428 North Ogden Drive received a wire from her husband sent from the tanker Dodd, carrying the consoling word "rescued."

The family of James Gallagher spent an uneasy ten hours yesterday until the erroneous spelling of his name was corrected and news dispatches brought the good news of his rescue to his wife.

Despair, however, clung to other homes as the lists of survivors were compiled and anxiously sought-for names were missing. At 1623 Cherry street, relatives of Juan Perez Sanchez did not learn of his fate until late in the day and a like tension prevailed at the home of Jose Cazares, 3676 Third avenue. Both are among the missing.

Mother of Film Actress Listed Among Missing

An intended "surprise visit" from her parents ended in tragedy for Greta Grandstedt, Hollywood film actress, who yesterday said she learned her father, Theodore Grandstedt, and her mother Emma had been passengers on the ill-fated San Juan. News dispatches told of the rescue of the father, injured, and no word came from the mother, who is listed as among the missing.

The actress, who lives with her 15-year-old sister, Vivian, at 1843 Cherokee avenue, was prostrated last night when she learned of the possible death of her mother and the injuries to her father.

Daughter of Purser Tells, Fated Plans

Tearful, but with head held in pride of her father, Mrs. Marie Carr, 551½ West Forty-sixth street, told of the plans made when she was to meet the San Juan as the vessel docked here this morning with John Cleveland, her father, purser-steward of the vessel, waiting to greet her. Cleveland went down with the ship.

Mrs. Carr, herself the wife of a seafaring man, told of Cleveland's long sea service and said he had been third steward of the liner City of Honolulu when it foundered 700 miles from Los Angeles on its first round trip from the Hawaiian Islands to this port.

Cleveland had taken the combined post of purser and chief steward on the last trip of the San Juan, Mrs. Carr said, and in celebration of the promotion had given a party on board the vessel when it was in San Pedro about a week ago.

Large Amount of Freight Lost as Vessel Sinks

The cargo of the ill-fated San Juan included about 400 tons of freight for Los Angeles consignees, according to the local offices of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Navigation Company.

A. H. Fay, manager of the office here, said he has received word from San Francisco that his company either will purchase or charter another vessel to take the place of the San Juan and that the schedule will be maintained without interruption.

The larger portion of the cargo for Los Angeles aboard the San Juan was sacked sugar, with the balance made up of small parcels of general merchandise destined for this city and San Diego.

VETERANS ASK DRY-LAW VOTE

Convention Goes on Record Favoring Referendum

St. Paul Session in Uproar Over Discussion

Michigan Man Named Chief Commander of Body

ST. PAUL, Aug. 30. (AP)—In its most fiery session of its thirtieth annual encampment, the Veterans of Foreign Wars today went on record favoring a national referendum on the Eighteenth Amendment after tabling a resolution asking for an out-and-out repeal of the dry constitutional amendment.

While dozens of delegates clamored for the floor at the same time and the convention went into an uproar, the two proposals for resolutions received various shouts of approval and derision. Finally quieting down, the convention permitted speakers to take the floor for and against the resolution.

Louis Glicksman of Revere, Mass., made a long appeal in favor of the resolution for a national referendum on the dry law after the resolution urging a repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment had been defeated by a viva voce vote.

OTHER RESOLUTIONS

Glicksman took particular issue with a statement of the retiring chief in command of the veterans, Eugene P. Carver, Jr., of Boston, who told the group that neither resolution had any place before the organization and that it should limit its business to matters strictly pertaining to the nature of its organization.

Glicksman shouted, "If we had been given a fair shake on the question of the Eighteenth Amendment in the first place when the war was on I wouldn't protest now."

The resolution calling for repeal of the amendment was presented by the New York department. The resolutions committee presented the resolution calling for a referendum, urging that it be adopted in place of the New York proposal for repeal. The proposal for a referendum asked that it be taken without great delay.

Baltimore was selected as the 1930 convention city. St. Petersburg, Fla., was the only other city formally entering an invitation. Los Angeles, which considered presenting an invitation, decided to withhold it and the entire California delegation gave its support to St. Petersburg.

DUFF ELECTED

Hezekiah N. Duff, Lansing, Mich., junior vice-commander, was elected unanimously commander-in-chief at the closing session.

The following major officers also were elected unanimously:

Father Martyr to Tradition of Sea

"It Wasn't Dad's Fault"

Miss Caroline Asplund, daughter of the captain of the ill-fated San Juan, wept bitterly when the survivors of the sea tragedy returned on the S. C. T. Dodd to San Francisco and her father was not among them. She is shown supported by a friend and a police officer.

SKIPPER JUST "FILLING IN"

Daughter of Capt. Asplund Tells of His Career and How He Took San Juan to Oblige Owners

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—While still hoping that her father might have been rescued, Miss Asplund, daughter of the ill-fated skipper of the San Juan, today told of his career.

The father had sailed the seas for fifty years without serious mishap, she said, and eventually had retired to enjoy the evening of life with his two daughters and his 4-year-old grandson, Kenneth Fogarty. The other daughter is Mrs. H. C. Fogarty.

According to Miss Asplund, her father recently went back into service at the request of his old employers.

He had been master of the San Juan years before. Capt. Asplund carried supplies to France and England during the war as master of the freighter St. Helens.

On his retirement several years ago he bought a home here and his daughters and his grandson came to live with him. Capt. Asplund was induced to take command of his old vessel, the San Juan, about two weeks ago when its regular master, Capt. John J. Winkle, applied for vacation leave. Capt. Asplund was 65 years of age.

Shipping records show various forms of ill luck, mostly of minor nature, dogging his steps. Two were of serious proportions. In 1915, his ship ran down a launch in Oakland Creek, killing the one-armed captain of the small boat. Capt. Asplund's license was suspended for sixty days.

Ten years ago, he lost the steamer Merced, which went aground on Blunt's Reef.

AIRCRAFT INSTITUTE ANNOUNCED

Guggenheim Fund Will Endow Research Work at Arkon Municipal Field

AKRON (O.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Establishment of a research institute here to advance the science of lighter-than-air craft was announced today by Dr. George F. Zook, president of Akron University.

The institute, first of its kind in this country, is to be established here in a building on the Municipal Airport by the Guggenheim Fund for the Promotion of Aeronautics in conjunction with the city government.

The Guggenheim fund will provide $75,000 and Akron City Council is to be asked to furnish $95,000.

The institute would be operated here through the California Institute of Technology, which already is operating a research institute at Pasadena, Cal., for the study of heavier-than-air craft.

NEWSPAPER AT CAPITAL PURCHASED

Sacramento "Union" Sold by Fleishhacker Group to William H. Dodge

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Purchase of the Sacramento Union, "oldest daily west of the Rockies," was announced tonight by William H. Dodge, former president and general manager of the central group of Scripps-Howard newspapers.

A statement by the new owner said "rumors that Herbert Fleishhacker and associates had sold the Union to Mr. Dodge now are confirmed."

Mr. Dodge succeeds Carl H. Brockhagen as publisher, on September 1. Luther W. Rood will be retained as editor, he said.

The new publisher came to California after his retirement from active business in 1927.

The San Francisco Bulletin, also owned by the Fleishhacker interests, was sold this week to the Hearst newspaper chain and merged with the San Francisco Call.

FOG FOILS EFFORTS OF RESCUERS

Santa Cruz Mariners Put Out in Hopes of Helping But Can't Locate Wreck

SANTA CRUZ, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—The entire countryside from Half Moon Bay to Santa Cruz turned out to assist as best they could in the rescue of the passengers and crew of the ill-fated liner San Juan.

Several small boats loaded with searchers put out from Santa Cruz as soon as news of the tragedy reached the city and farmers and workmen up and down the coast spent their time studying the sea and searching the beaches for bodies of the drowned.

A dense curtain of fog that lay some three miles offshore baffled efforts of small boats to break through and locate the wreckage of the ship. This fog, according to the log of the Point Pigeon light station, opposite which the tragedy occurred, showed a continuous offshore blanket of mists from early last night until today. The fog horns of the light station were kept in almost constant operation from 7 p.m. yesterday.

A paradox of the tragedy was the lateness of the hour the land stations nearest the disaster learned of it. Not until newspaper men from San Francisco swarmed up and down the coast were the citizens of the district advised of the wreck. All messages and calls for help were radioed from the tanker Dodd and other rescue ships and picked up by land stations in San Francisco, Seattle and Los Angeles, hours before the smaller stations picked up the word.

Unable to learn the exact location of the wreck, the boats from Santa Cruz and Half Moon Bay groped for hours in the fog unable to sight the rescue ships or find a trace of the San Juan.

Flyer Actually Invites Group of Cameramen to Snap Pictures of Him

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP) Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has made friends with the newspaper photographers. He astounded an observation tower full of them at the national air races yesterday by walking the length of the dusty field, and asking a "photog" if he wanted to make a picture.

"I promised to pose yesterday but I was so busy I forgot about it," Lindbergh explained. "I'm sorry. If you want to make some pictures today go ahead."

The dumbfounded cameramen recovered, grabbed their bags and made off across the field after climbing over each other getting down the ladder.

ODD TWIST TO BEER RUNNING

San Diego Grand Jury Will Sift Calipatria Case

Prohibition and Customs Forces at Loggerheads

Accused Police Chief Was Agent for Former

CALIPATRIA, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Arrested by the Customs Border Patrol recently while driving a truck loaded with beer a few miles north of the Mexican boundary, Chief of Police Charles G. Smith will appear before the Federal grand jury at San Diego next Tuesday to explain his presence and cargo of unlawful intoxicants on the highways.

At the time Smith was arrested on a charge of conspiracy to smuggle contraband into the United States he was accompanied by William Maxwell of this place, who was riding on the driver's seat, and "Chino" Morehead, another Calipatria citizen, who was driving the auto of Smith and following the truck. Maxwell was placed in jail at El Centro with Smith, immediately after they were picked up, and Morehead was arrested the following afternoon here. All three men are under bond of $2500 for their grand jury appearance. Smith is continuing his duties as Police Chief, while Maxwell is at a ranch near here, and Morehead is said to be visiting friends in San Diego.

PREARRANGED PLAN

The appearance of Smith at the steering wheel of the truck laden with Mexicali beer and accompanied by Maxwell and Morehead was no surprise to the Board of Trustees here nor to the Federal prohibition enforcement officials in Los Angeles, according to their statements. The action of the police head in forming a partnership with Maxwell and Morehead to lease the truck, purchase the beer, run it across the line for final delivery and sale here was the climax of a premeditated and prearranged plan, according to T. M. Montgomery, police commissioner, and Mayor Tate.

The sudden appearance of the border patrol officers a few moments after Smith had taken over the handling of the truck carrying forty cases, or 960 pint bottles of beer, was an unexpected event, the officials here explained, and the arrests revealed a studied undercover effort on the part of Calipatria city officers to clean up vice and gambling conditions which they assert have become rampant and unbearable.

The appointment of Smith last June as Chief of Police, with instructions to rid this place of the law-breaking element regardless of consequences and by any method, followed a series of investigations, according to Police Commissioner Montgomery, which uncovered an appalling condition.

TOWN WIDE OPEN

Gambling was conducted on a wide-open basis; liquor was obtainable through the mere demand and an ability to pay and a "red light" section was running full blast with no regard for law and order, according to Montgomery, while ten murders in ten months and other lawlessness brought the law-abiding citizens face to face with a serious situation.

Working in close co-operation with the Federal prohibition officials, both in Los Angeles and San Diego, it was decided that Smith, who is a former undercover agent from New York, should be employed to take over the enforcement of law.

Smith started in his official capacity on June 1, last, and his arrest came sixty days later. In this short period the officers here say that he has closed the prostitution cribs with numerous raids, has halted practically all the gambling houses and has cleared the district of bootleggers and rum runners.

In substantiating the assertions of the officers here, Dist.-Atty. Heald at El Centro says: "Calipatria at the present time is the cleanest spot in Imperial Valley. The work of Smith only proves what can be done when law-enforcement officials decide that law-breakers must be arrested and driven out of the county."

PLAN APPROVED

When Smith, as he explained the situation himself, started his drive against the wide-open conditions and the persons involved, he decided that his best method of attack was to become himself a member of the law-breaking gang and join them in their gambling, beer running and other operations. He outlined his plan to Commissioner Montgomery, who in turn explained it to the other members of the Board of Trustees. It was also submitted to the Federal prohibition officials and the District Attorney and in each instance approved, according to heads of these enforcement units.

The particular smuggling scheme in which Smith was apprehended was planned for several days in advance and with the full knowledge of the three departments. The Federal prohibition department in Los Angeles sent two operatives to Brawley to aid Smith after the truck crossed the border; the District Attorney prepared credentials which Smith carried, and all law enforcement departments were fully advised except Sheriff Gillette and the customs border officers, according to Smith and the officers here.

PLAN CONFIRMED

A letter from George H. Sweet, chief investigator in the Los Angeles prohibition enforcement office, to Smith confirms the plan and says: "Confirming our conversation and arrangement of today, you are advised that next Tuesday morning, July 30, one of my investigators and an agent will leave here for Brawley and should reach there some time in late afternoon or evening."

With his entrapment plan complete, Smith drove to Mexicali on the afternoon of July 30, after informing the Calipatria officers and the Federal prohibition officials of his movements. He was accompanied by Mexwell and Morehead, according to the official investigation of the affair and the subsequent arrests.

Arriving in Mexicali, Smith asserts that he was not allowed to accompany the truck during the purchase of the $700 worth of bottled beer, but that he remained in a cafe until informed by Morehead that the load had been obtained and that Maxwell was driving the cargo across the boundary line.

Smith told his employers, they say, that he became concerned with the success of the plan and also the route the truck would take in completing the smuggling, and quietly informed the customs officials that the truck would cross the border at a point a few miles east of the Mexicali gate. Smith says that he and Morehead got in his car and drove across the border, overtaking the beer-laden truck about two miles north of the line. He then found, he says, that the truck had crossed some two miles east of Mexicali.

Catching up with the truck Smith got in the driver's seat, took the wheel, Morehead remained in the auto, and Maxwell sat beside Smith. They had proceeded only a short distance when Sergt. Flannery and an assistant of the Customs Border Patrol stopped them and immediately placed Smith and Maxwell under arrest. Smith says he attempted to explain his position to the guardian of the boundary, but was unsuccessful. He and Maxwell were taken to El Centro and placed in jail. Morehead was permitted to continue to his home here, but was arrested the next afternoon.

The arrest of Morehead, according to Heald, was only carried out after an insistent demand by the District Attorney and Federal Prohibition Agent Helpling, who was detailed to cover the truck after it reached Brawley and to follow it here for the final disposition and the arrests that were planned as the final move in the clean-up program.

BONDS SIGNED

Smith was held in the El Centro jail until his bond was prepared and signed by the Board of Trustees, and Maxwell was released when Morehead and Joe Nollie wrote their signatures to his bond.

The following day Morehead's bond was completed by the signatures of R. M. Chapman, a local realty operator, and Cecil Clause, local auto and truck dealer.

An investigation of the entire situation and the charges and counter-charges that have grown out of the arrests has been under way for several days on orders of Collector of Customs Schwaebe in Los Angeles. Customs officers along the border charge that Smith is a party to a serious infraction of the law and should be held for the offense. Members of the Board of Trustees assert that Smith is absolutely innocent, that they will fight the attempt to place Smith in jail and will be prepared to defend his actions when and if he is indicted by the Federal grand jury.

JAPANESE THINK AL PLAYS BALL

Former Governor Called Chief of Giant Team by Newspaper

A local news dealer received a shipment of novelties from Japan and noticed the former Governor's picture on a piece of newspaper used as wrapping. Translated, the newspaper item accompanying the picture read:

"Alfred E. Smith, ex-candidate for the Presidency of the Demicratic party, has obtained one-fifth interest in the management of the Giant baseball team from his intimate friend, and, according to unconfirmed report, he will be chosen as the chief player of that team."

MURDER OF PAIR LAID TO ATTACKERS

Kansas City Girl Found Strangled Beside Drive; Escort's Body Near

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 30. (AP)—Brutally strangled, the body of Miss Ruth Laughlin, 24 years of age, was found near Cliff Drive here today, a block and a half distant from bushes and shrubs that partially concealed the body of Paul Leslie Odell, 19, a railway clerk, fatally shot through the head.

Miss Laughlin had been severely beaten. Her clothing was in disorder. Police believe she lost her life in preference to submitting to her assailant. A deputy from the County Coroner's office said she had not been criminally assaulted.

Investigators are working on the theory that the couple were victims of assailants who came upon them on Cliff Drive, a favorite retreat for young couples.

Two Endurance Planes Hum on

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—The endurance plane Chicago, We Will, out to beat the 421-hour refueling endurance record of the St. Louis Robin, continued to drone along above the sky harbor airport today with no indications that either plane or pilots are weakening. At 12:31 p.m., central standard time, the flyers, Russell Mossman and C. E. Steele, had been in the air 183 hours.

SYRACUSE (N. Y.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Clyde E. Pangborn and Carl A. Dixon, flying their endurance plane, the Empire State Standard, passed their 107th hour aloft shortly after 10 o'clock, eastern standard time, tonight. Two refueling contacts put 235 gallons of gasoline and four gallons of oil aboard.

Senator Warren May Run Again

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—New York today paid homage to Commander Hugo Eckener and the officers of the globe-girdling Graf Zeppelin.

Through a storm of torn paper and swirling ticker tape on lower Broadway to the City Hall and an official reception — another ride through admiring thousands to the Hotel Astor and a luncheon—the silent Teutonic air wizard smiled and waved as he was feted in the manner of all visiting heroes.

Flags of both the United States and Germany waved in the air—soldiers, sailors and marines stood at attention, and the United States navy dirigible Los Angeles floated overhead to give an official flavor to the occasion.

Two and a half tons of paper floated down upon the German airship pioneers—a compliment such as has been afforded to few and second only to that which was given another adventurer of the clouds, Col. Charles Lindbergh, upon his return from Paris.

Grover Whalen stepped out of his role of police commissioner for a day and again took over the duties of the city's official welcomer.

Commander Eckener was presented with a scroll and the official medal of the city of New York. Medals also were presented to the other members of the Zeppelin's crew and the passengers who made the epochal world flight.

AIRSHIP READY FOR DEPARTURE TONIGHT

NAVY TO SEND THREE OFFICERS ON ZEPPELIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—The Navy Department today accepted the invitation of Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Graf Zeppelin, to send three naval officers as passengers on the dirigible for the return flight to Germany.

The three officers who will make the trip are Lieutenant-Commander H. V. Wiley, who is commanding officer of the naval dirigible Los Angeles; Lieutenant-Commander J. M. Shoemaker, head of the aeronautical engine service of the Navy, and Lieut. Roland G. Mayer of the Navy construction corps, at present attached to the Los Angeles.

EFFORTS MADE TO ATTACH ZEPPELIN

LAKEHURST (N. J.) Aug. 30. (AP) A very small undersheriff of Ocean county tried in vain today to attach a very large Graf Zeppelin.

Otto Hillig, Liberty (N. Y.) photographer, had brought suit against the operators of the Graf for $125,000 damages because they refused to carry him around the world. He booked passage with the Hamburg-American Line, the Zeppelin's accredited agents. At the last moment he was informed he could not go. Owing to a misunderstanding Hamburg-American officials had counted on three places and in the final shake-up were allotted only two.

The court at Tom's River ordered the undersheriff to attach the Zeppelin. Commander Maurice R. Pierce, in charge at Lakehurst, refused to accept the writ on the ground that the airship was on government property.

HAIR NETS GRACE FLYERS' HEADS

"There's Nothing Like Them" for Comfort and Utility, Declares Pilot

ST. PAUL, Aug. 30. (AP)—Brawny and handsome aviators have taken to wearing women's hair nets.

The style was revealed today by Thorwald "Thunder" Johnson of St. Paul, pilot for the Canadian-American Air Lines, Inc.

"For comfort, economy and practicability to keep the hair out of the eyes and let the breeze in there is nothing like them," the pilot said.

SLAYER'S APPEAL TO HIGH COURT LOSES

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Appeal of Antone Negra, convicted Merced county murderer, for reversal of the court sentence which held he must die on the gallows, was denied today by the State Supreme Court. Negra was found guilty of slaying Ralph Amabile, wealthy sheep raiser, near Los Banos.

FRUIT-FLY BAN AGAIN REVISED

Citrus Shipments Permitted Prior to October 1

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—Secretary Hyde today amended regulations governing the fruit-fly quarantine in Florida to allow the shipments of citrus fruit produced in eradication areas prior to October 1, next to be moved in interstate commerce after inspection showed there is no infestation.

The amendment also provided that citrus fruit grown for commercial purposes may remain on trees in the eradication areas after October 1, unless inspection shows there is a local risk of infestation.

The regulations heretofore had called for the complete destruction of fruit in eradication areas prior to October 1 and after April 1.

THE Goddess who fell flat

The Detroit papers called her one of Michigan's prettiest girls. At college they nicknamed her "The Goddess." Everybody predicted great things for her. Popularity. A career. Successful marriage. But she didn't live up to a single prediction. As the saying is, she "fell flat."

Of course she did! So would any girl with the same trouble she had.

The only one who doesn't realize that he or she has halitosis (unpleasant breath) is the victim. Social ostracism follows. Don't fool yourself that you are always free of this trouble. That is folly. Surveys show 1 person out of 3 is a victim—due to the fact that the mouth is the constant scene of germ activity, many of which result in bad breath.

Don't take a chance

Keep yourself ever free of halitosis by the systematic and frequent use of full strength Listerine as a mouth wash. Though safe and pleasant, Listerine is an active germicide which immediately attacks the cause of odors. Then, being a powerful deodorant, it destroys the odors themselves.

AURORA'S COLOR KIT PRIED OPEN

Green Tint in Make-up of Northern Lights Defined

Astronomers Hear All Abut Nitrogen Role in Display

Possible Duration of Eclipse of Sun Determined Now

BY JAMES STOKLEY

OTTAWA (Can.) Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—A mystery as to why a certain green color appears in the light of the aurora borealis or northern lights, was dispelled here at the closing session of the American Astronomical Society. Since Tuesday morning, the American astronomers have gathered with their Canadian colleagues at the Dominion observatory and have heard reports on the size of the universe, nebulae, the nature of various kinds of stars and eclipses of the sun. But their attention was turned from these more distant objects to an astronomical phenomenon that happens in the earth's own atmosphere when they heard a paper sent in by Dr. V. M. Slipper and L. A. Sommer of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz.

In July, 1928, there was a brilliant display of the northern lights visible from Flagstaff. Dr. Slipper and his associates proceeded to analyze its illumination by passing its light through the prisms of a spectroscope and obtaining a record of the spectrum on a photographic plate.

WAVE LENGTH NOTED

This spectrum showed the usual bright lines that previously had been observed in the auroral spectrum. They included a green one with a wave length of 5577. Light waves, like their big brothers, radio waves, are identified by their wave length. Only, instead of meters the astronomer uses what he calls the "Angstrom unit"—about one 250-millionth of an inch.

The line at 5577 was shown a few years ago by Dr. J. C. McClennan of the University of Toronto to be caused by a transition taking place in atoms of oxygen high in the earth's atmosphere when excited by electrons from the sun. Near this line, however, was another at wave length 5206. Nobody ever had noticed this before, so it seemed that one mystery had been solved only to have a new one appear.

The two Arizona astronomers now report that atoms of nitrogen undergoing a transition from one state to another are the cause. In fact light showing this line can be obtained experimentally in the laboratory by electrical discharges in mixtures of ordinary nitrogen and inert gases such as helium and neon.

They summarized their work as follows:

"The investigations up to the present time have shown that in the high atmosphere where the aurora originates nitrogen molecules and oxygen atoms are present during an auroral display. The observation of the line 5206 and its interpretation as atomic nitrogen indicates the presence of nitrogen atoms at the time of such a display."

ECLIPSES STUDIED

Hopes that any of the astronomers might have had of some day seeing total eclipse of the sun lasting nearly eight minutes were blasted when Mrs. Isabel Lewis of the United States Naval Observatory in Washington, reported on her investigations of how long an eclipse really may last. She was led to this investigation, she said, by finding that three different authorities gave three different values. One old figure but still given was 7 minutes and 58 seconds; another was 7 minutes and 40 seconds, while Simon Newcomb, a famous American astronomer, said that 7 minutes and 30 seconds was its maximum possible duration.

A total eclipse of the sun occurs when the moon's shadow touches the surface of the earth. The shadow is a cone, so it is largest where it hits the earth when the moon is nearest the earth and the sun farthest. This condition must exist, and the shadow must fall on the equator, so that the observer may travel fastest with the shadow in order to have the longest possible eclipse, said Mrs. Lewis. Then the sun will be obscured for 7 minutes and 31 seconds, she discovered.

As the combination of sun farthest and moon nearest now occurs about two weeks after the beginning of summer an eclipse of longest possible duration would have to occur about July 4.

GETTING WORSE

But no astronomers need expect to celebrate American Independence Day with the longest eclipse for many centuries will elapse before one occurs under the proper conditions. Owing to one of the motions of the solar system, the necessary conditions are changing for the worse. Five thousand years from now, said Mrs. Lewis, the moon will be nearest in September and then an eclipse will be able to last only 7 minutes and 14 seconds.

Following the paper, Prof. E. W. Brown of Yale, president of the society, suggested that a longer eclipse could be obtained by observing from an airplane and following the shadow as rapidly as possible.

At the election of officers Dr. R. G. Aitken, in charge of the Lick Observatory of the University of California, was elected vice-president, Dr. E. S. King of the Harvard College observatory and Dr. F. H. Seares, assistant director of the Mt. Wilson observatory at Pasadena, Cal., were made members of the society's council. Dr. S. A. Mitchell of the University of Virginia will represent the society in the National Research Council. Dr. R. S. Dugan of Princeton University, secretary, and Dr. Benjamin Boss of the Dudley observatory, at Albany, N. Y., treasurer, were re-elected. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the end of December at the Harvard Observatory in Cambridge, Mass.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—Capt. Sir George Hubert Wilkins explorer, and Susanne Bennett, Australian actress, were married here quietly today before Justice of the Peace Myron J. Penty. The explorer gave his age as 40 years, and the bride gave hers as 28.

Although the engagement of the couple was announced about a year ago, the suddenness of the wedding today came as a surprise to friends here.

Capt. Wilkins and Miss Bennett were unattended, and two employees in Justice Penty's offices were pressed into service as witnesses.

on all troops and police. Trans-Jordania was said to be quiet.

Additional evidence that the disastrous events of the past week did not result alone from the religious dispute over possession and use of the wailing wall came today with formulation of demands on the British High Commissioner by the Palestine Arab executive. From this it appeared the Arabs feel deeply the attempt to establish a Jewish national home in territories which they feel to be theirs by right of long occupation.

The Arabs were said to be ready to ask for establishment of a parliament in Palestine, revocation of the Balfour declaration pledging the aid of the British government to establishment of a Jewish national home, and nonadmission of Zionists into Palestine.

These demands are in complete opposition to the aims of the Zionist organization and are likely to lead to long discussions both in London and in League of Nations circles.

Russia proposed that all pending questions be settled in conformity with the agreement of 1924.

Soviet diplomatic circles tonight declared that this action in the face of continued provocative acts on the part of the Chinese was another evidence of the loyal adherence by Russia to the principles of the Kellogg pact.

The agreement of 1924 provided for the operation of the Chinese Eastern Railway by a board of ten directors, five of whom, including the chairman, were to be appointed by China and five, including the vice-chairman, by Russia. It was also provided that the manager of the railroad should be a Russian and should have one Russian and one Chinese as assistant managers.

Early in July China removed the Russian General Manager M. Yemshonov and his Russian assistant and replaced them with Chinese officials. It declared that evidence had been found that they carried on Communist propaganda and had diverted railway funds to that end. Russia demanded their reinstatement and return to the status quo before opening negotiations China replied that while she was willing to negotiate she would not agree to reinstatement of officials whom she accused of working against the security of the Nationalist government.

Preliminary conversations undertaken near the Siberian-Manchurian border failed to settle this point. Meanwhile the armies of both countries massed on the frontiers and there were well substantiated reports of several clashes involving loss of life.

SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED FOR PROTEST MEETING

Speakers for the Jewish protest meeting, arranged for next Thursday night at Trinity Auditorium, were announced last night by Aaron Riche, chairman of local Zionist organizations. Gov. Young, Mayor Porter, Representative Crail and Rabbi Magnin are to speak for State, city, nation and Los Angeles Jewry in denouncing the Arab attacks against Jews in Palestine.

Mr. Riche stated that the purpose of the mass meeting is to launch a dignified protest, and express hope and belief that Great Britain, as the mandatory power, will do everything possible to protect life and property and to facilitate execution of the Balfour declaration.

AIR-CRASH RESCUE TO BE TAUGHT

Navy Establishes School to Train Crews What to Do Following Accidents

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—A school for training personnel in airplane "crash" rescue work has been established by the Navy at the Anacostia Air Station here and later on, after proper instruction methods have been worked out, a similar school is to be put in operation on the west coast, probably at Los Angeles.

At the school here, enlisted men are to be trained to form "salvage and crash" crews to man "crash boats" carrying equipment for rescuing airplane personnel after accidents.

A stand-by plane, Loening amphibian and three crash boats have been assigned to the crew and will carry pulmotors, equipment for shallow diving and first-aid kits. The fastest boat has a speed of forty-two miles, the second boat is equipped with an outboard motor and can make a speed of twenty-two miles an hour and the third craft is the station gig with speed about fifteen miles per hour.

As the training of the crew progresses each boat will be assigned a diver.

Rum-Running Plane Taken

DETROIT, Aug. 30. (AP)—An airplane containing fifteen cases of assorted liquors was captured by United States border patrol officers at Rochester, Mich., near here, late today.

The pilot gave the name Harold C. Hannay, of Grosse Point Park, a Detroit suburb.

Customs agents say the tightness of the situation for rum runners on the Detroit River has made liquor smuggling by airplane profitable.

Hannay was put in custody of customs agents and will be arraigned before United States Commissioner Hurd tomorrow.

Textile Case Jury Elusive

CHARLOTTE (N. C.) Aug. 30. (AP) With only six jurors chosen from 126 veniremen, another venire of 300 was called today in the hope of completing a jury to try thirteen men and three women charged with slaying O. F. Aderholt, Gastonia Chief of Police, in a clash between striking textile workers and officers last June.

SOCIETY PAIR LOSE JEWELS TO BANDITS

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—News of daring robbery last Saturday night in the fashionable apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Logan, social leaders, by five bandits who took between $5000 and $10,000 in jewelry and considerable cash was made public last night. The bandits, posing as policemen, forced their way into the apartment and kept Mr. and Mrs. Logan and the servants in separate rooms while they ransacked the place.

POLICEMAN AND MILL WORKER DIE IN FIGHT

CHARLOTTE (N. C.) Aug. 30. (AP)—S. S. Rogers, 38 years of age, Necklenburg county rural policeman, and H. L. Luquire, a cotton mill worker, were killed today in a gun fight at Paw Creek. Luquire, according to Jenks Biggers, Rogers's partner, opened fire on Rogers and Biggers when they halted him as he turned his automobile in the business section. Rogers shot Luquire.

LEAGUE COUNCIL SESSION OPENS

United States and World Court on Agenda

Root Formula Coming Up for Consideration

New British Government's Activity Indicated

GENEVA, Aug. 30. (AP)—The question of the accession of the United States to the World Court of International Justice has been added to the agenda of the Council of the League of Nations which opened its fifty-sixth session today.

A conference of the signatories to the World Court statutes is to be held concurrently with the meetings of the League's assembly next week and will consider proposals for revision of the statutes and the formula of Elihu Root, noted American jurist, paving the way for the possible adhesion of the United States.

With the British Labor government expected to adhere to the compulsory arbitration clause in the World Court, the British member today made what was interpreted generally as a statement indicating that the Labor government will play an active part in League activities.

H. Dalton, parliamentary Undersecretary of State, announced that Great Britain wishes to see a speeding up of ratifications of international treaties and would raise this question in the Assembly.

Mohammed Ali Khan Foroughi of Persia, who is the president at the present session, announced that Persia had adhered to the antigas protocol.

TONS ON PICNIC IN USUAL WEIGH

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Five hundred Tons—big and little—took part in the thirty-fourth annual reunion of the Ton family at the Thornton Forest Preserve today. The oldest Ton present was Mrs. John Einigenberg, 79 years of age, of Lansing. June Millicent Ton, 5 weeks, was the youngest.

And in addition to all these Tons there was another ton of picnic eatables—including pound cake—and soda pop. All the Tons joined in the picnic games and sang the Ton family song, written by one of the members, Adam Hout.

The Ton family believes it is the largest organized family in America.

Planning Boards Held Necessary

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Creation of county planning commissions by boards of supervisors is compulsory under the 1929 Planning Act, Atty.-Gen. Webb ruled today in an opinion to the District Attorney of San Diego county.

In explaining why the law says counties shall create commissions whereas cities and counties may establish them, Webb calls attention to the constitutional provision that requires that system of government must be uniform.

NAVAL LEADERS SLACKEN WORK

More Evidence Agreement With England Near

Rear-Admiral Jones Back to Retired Status

Had Been Aiding Department to Gather Data

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—Added evidence that Anglo-American naval discussions have reached a point at which an agreement is believed to be near came today with the announcement that Rear-Admiral Hilary P. Jones has returned, temporarily at least, to retired status.

The rear-admiral, who retired in 1927 but has been called back to active duty whenever important matters involving naval policy needed attention, for thepast week has been engaged with the navy general board in checking the technical portions of the data which the administration has furnished Great Britain regarding this country's position on naval reduction.

For the time being the general board's task is done and, in the words of one of its members, "there now will be a brief pause for station announcements."

The same situation prevails at the State Department, with Secretary Stimson out of the city and other high officials relaxing from the strain of the past several days during which they have been kept at their desks long after regular hours.

President Hoover, who for several days, has given the disarmament question more time than any other matters confronting him, also left the White House for a visit to the Virginia Mountains over Labor Day.

Admiral Jones made it clear that his return to inactive status does not signify the ending of his naval career. He left today for a rest in New England but will be available any day and may return to active duty when needed either for consultation or to represent the Navy at a disarmament session, as he has done twice before.

At the time of his retirement the rear-admiral was ranking officer of the Navy and had just ended forty-seven years of active service by acting as a delegate to the three-power arms limitation conference of 1927. Since then, however, his valuable experience has caused him to be recalled repeatedly.

Last spring he attended the preparatory disarmament commission's session at Geneva as a technical adviser. Since then he has been attached to the office of the Secretary of the Navy, consulting constantly with leaders of the administration during the course of naval discussions.

BOY AND GANG FOIL HOLD-UP

Lad and His Pal Knock Cash From Robber's Hands and Chase Him to Auto

EVANSTON (Ill.) Aug. 30. (AP)—There was no hold-up here yesterday because a 12-year-old boy and his gang broke it up.

The boy, who wandered away later without letting his identity be known, walked into a grocery just as it was being held up.

He ran out and came back a moment later with eight other youngsters. They rushed the robber, knocking $140 from his hands, and chased him to a waiting automobile in which he drove away. The boys got the license number.

CALIFORNIA FAIR STARTS TODAY

Depicts Seventy-five Years of Progress

Gate Will be Unlocked by Gov. Young

Five States and Mexico Exhibiting

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—California's diamond jubilee State Fair and Western States Exposition, a panorama depicting seventy-five years of development in the Golden West, will open tomorrow morning to run through September 9. For the first time since the fair was established in San Francisco in 1854, the exposition will be opened actually as well as officially by the Governor of the State. Gov. Young will be on the job at 9 o'clock to unlock the gates at the main entrance.

Fifty-four of the fifty-eight counties, five western States and the Republic of Mexico will exhibit at the fair, thereby establishing a new record not only for the California Fair but for any State exposition held in the United States. The four counties not showing are Yuba, Trinity, San Benito and Madera.

Governors of the States of Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Oregon and Wyoming and representatives of Mexico will be the guests of Gov. Young on Governor's Day, September 5.

RATE CUTS SHOWN

BIG "ZEPP"
Stocks Clicquot Club Sec in Sky "Cellar"

America's driest ginger ale chosen for flight. Double-carbonation insures sparkling zest and perfect "dry" flavor.

THE Graf Zeppelin has safely conquered two oceans . . . vast Asiatic wastes . . . the broad beam of the American continent!

And passengers and crew have found it as luxurious as the lounge of a great hotel, as snug and comfortable as the club car of an extra-fare train . . . perfectly appointed for fine living.

Like the great limited trains, like the smart, cosmopolitan hotels, the Graf Zeppelin carried in its "cellar" Clicquot Club Sec.

Long-lasting carbonation wins coveted place for Sec

Clicquot Club Sec was chosen, because of its fine, "dry" flavor. But there was another consideration. Bottles are heavy. The ginger ale had to be transferred to light aluminum tanks. A ginger ale had to be selected that would not lose its precious carbonation when poured out of its original bottle.

GIANT MONARCH OF THE AIR CONQUERS two oceans and three continents. Its historic flights represent one of the most stupendous achievements in the history of aviation.

All through the thrilling 3000 mile trip to New York, Clicquot Club Sec was available for enjoyment of passengers and crew . . . the last glass was sparkling as the first.

The ginger ale had to be transferred to aluminum drums. Because Clicquot Club Sec is double-carbonated it kept its zip and "go" under these unusual circumstances.

After careful tests, Clicquot Club Sec was selected. Because Sec has the driest flavor known in America. Because its double-carbonation insured sparkling freshness where ordinary ginger ales would have "gone flat."

And so, all through the thrilling trip on the 3000 mile flight from Los Angeles to New York, passengers and crew could enjoy the rare flavor of Clicquot Club Sec. Despite the fact it had been removed from the Clicquot bottles, all of the zest and "go" was still there . . . the last glass was as sparklingly "dry" and spirited as the first.

Drink a toast to quality!

Clicquot Club Sec gives a new flavor thrill because it is "drier" than any other ginger ale.

People who have the wealth and leisure to know the good things of life pronounce Sec "the rarest flavor in America." Just ask for "SEC" at your dealer's.

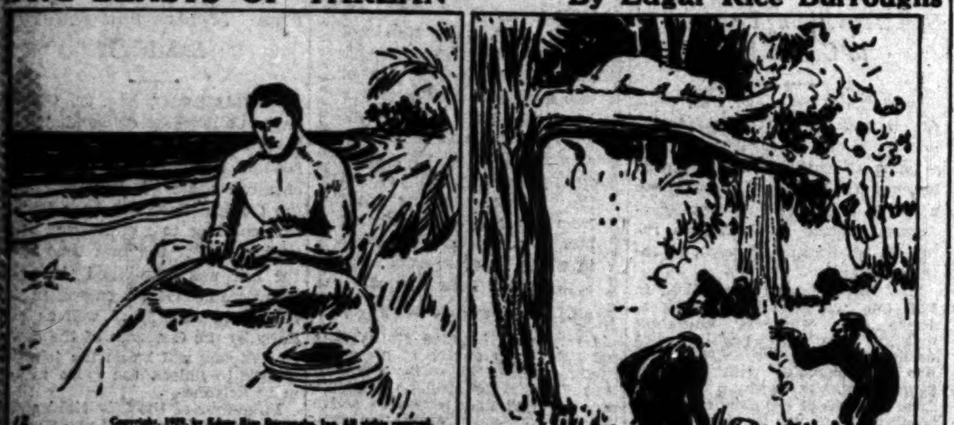
THE BEASTS OF TARZAN

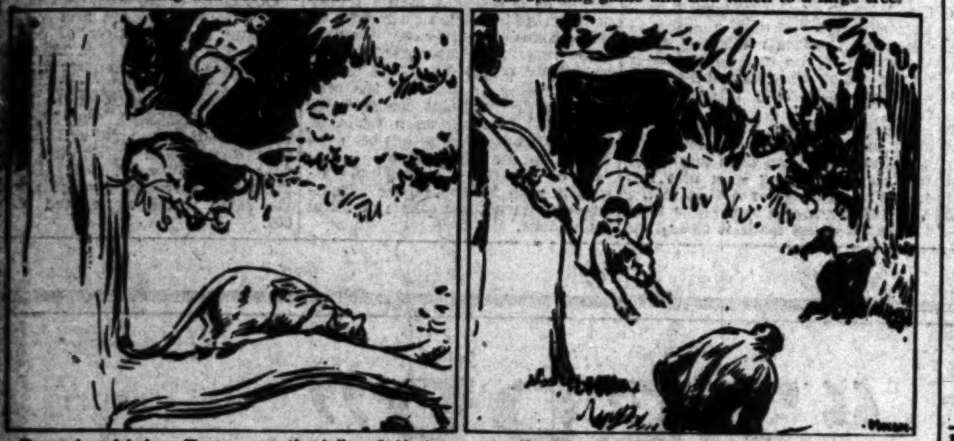
By Edgar Rice Burroughs



12
Copyright, 1929, by Edgar Rice Burroughs, Inc. All rights reserved.

By this time Tarzan was convinced he had been left upon an island. Wandering his lonely way through the jungle, he felt strong upon him the desire for companionship. He almost regretted he had not cast his lot with the apes. They were better than no company at all. But he had seen nothing of them since that first day when he slew their king and subdued Akut.

Moving leisurely one morning, sometimes on the ground and again among the trees, Tarzan was attracted by the scent of Sheeta, the panther, up-wind ahead of him. He wanted the great cat's strong gut for his bow and its hide for a new quiver and loin cloth. Swiftly he glided in pursuit of his beast. Sheeta, himself, was stalking game and had taken to a large tree.



Beyond and below, Tarzan saw the tribe of Akut lolling in a small, natural clearing. And Akut was the closest to Sheeta. Hidden from the ape's view, the panther crouched. Tarzan cautiously gained a position in the same tree, a little above the huge cat. In his left hand the ape-man grasped his slim stone blade. Now with a hideous shriek, the panther launched himself toward the great ape.

As the startled Akut looked up, he saw the panther almost above him, and already upon the beast's back the white-ape that had bested him that day near the great water. With one arm around Sheeta's fierce throat, Tarzan kept his firm grip upon the thrashing, squirming body. The other arm, which grasped a slender knife of stone, rose and fell in mighty blows above the panther's heart.

Sun Shines Once More on Byrd Expedition Base After Four Long Months

FTER four months of darkness, a few days ago the sun beamed dully on the camp of the Byrd expedition in the Antarctic where the little band of intrepid men has been forced to remain practically inactive since winter closed down. The appearance of the sun, brief and sullen as it was, was the signal for renewed activity among the adventurers who hope to give civilization a comprehensive picture of the great expanse of territory embraced in the Antarctic, through airplane exploration. These photos, the last to be received from the expedition before the long night shut down, are reproduced here exclusively in The Times. (Copyright, 1929, by Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation.)

CANINE HERO FAILING FAST

Famous Dog Courier Sick at Long Beach

Served as Dispatch Bearer All Through War

Decorated for Bravery by King of Belgium

REDLANDS, Aug. 30.—Tackie, the first dog to carry dispatches through the Allied lines during the World War, owned by Edward Newbegin of Redlands and Long Beach, is near death at Long Beach. Tackie is old and very feeble now.

The dog was one of the twenty-five Gruenwaldt Belgian shepherd dogs put into service with the French army shortly after the outbreak of the World War in 1914. To him went the honor of carrying the first message dispatched from one regiment to another by dog courier.

Tackie carried the message in a waterproof capsule hidden in his mouth. He continued in the dispatch service from that time until the armistice was signed in November, 1918.

Apparently bearing a charmed life Tackie never was wounded. He sped his charmed way through heavy fire and over fields swept by the machine-gun bullets of the enemy. At the close of the war Tackie was taken to France by the man who had trained him and who had charge of the dispatch dogs for the French army.

When his master was ordered to Russia he feared to take Tackie with him and gave him into the keeping of his niece. It was from her that Edward J. Newbegin of Redlands obtained Tackie. Before Tackie was shipped to this country he was decorated by the King of Belgium and given an honorable discharge from the service. Tackie traveled to the United States in charge of a specially detailed orderly whose sole duty was to care for his wants.

He landed at Norfolk aboard an American transport and was shipped to Mr. Newbegin at Redlands. Later the family moved to Long Beach and there for five years Tackie has lived in comfort and happiness as a member of the family.

Tackie's owner is heartbroken at parting with him. He said that the dog understood only French when he arrived in this country but that a few months sufficed to teach him English. He understands and will obey commands as readily as a child. Aside from the fact that he has lost a few teeth he is in almost perfect condition. Tackie's breeder says that these shepherds, trained as police dogs, are three-quarters wolf. At present they are very rare in this country.

LIONS TO HAVE DAY AT POMONA FAIR

POMONA, Aug. 30.—Two thousand Lions are expected to be in attendance at the opening day of the Los Angeles County Fair on Tuesday September 17. The day having been designated as Lions day.

L. E. Sheets, chairman of the general committee on arrangements, named a list of committees at the regular weekly luncheon meeting this noon. Glen Atwood, of Upland, deputy-district governor and also president of the citrus belt council, was present and pledged support of his locality.

All Lions south of the Tehachapi with their wives are to be invited to spend the day at the exposition to enjoy the regular as well as special events to be arranged in their honor.

LEGION PICKS BOY MASCOT

Master "Tony" Gerhard

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 30. (AP) — The youngest drum major in the United States lives in San Diego, and present plans are to take him to Louisville this fall, where he is expected to be adopted as the official mascot of the national American Legion. The boy, 6 years of age, is Tony Gerhard. He is mascot and drum major of the famous San Diego American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps and has attracted wide attention wherever he has appeared with the corps. Both the California department of the American Legion and the Forty and Eight have adopted Tony as their mascot.

Stabbing Halts Drinking-Party

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 30.—Stabbed just below the heart last night during an altercation which followed a drinking-party at 1826 Julian avenue, according to police, Davo Riveroll of the address named, was taken to the San Diego Hospital, where his condition was reported "fair" today.

Gus Stames, brother-in-law of Riveroll and named by the latter as his assailant, was arrested by police today and is held on a technical charge of "investigation." Two other men said to have attended the party also are held by the police.

The affair was the result of an argument over the ownership of a quantity of liquor which was being served at the party, according to police.

MASONIC CELEBRATION

L HABRA, Aug. 30.—Under Masonic auspices La Habra will celebrate Admission Day with a carnival the evening of Monday, September 9. A public concert will be held on the streets early in the evening under the direction of La Habra Lodge No. 659, F. & A. M. Later in the evening special entertainment is to be provided for members of the lodge and their families at the Masonic temple.

CONGRESSMAN AT PASADENA

Chairman of Agricultural Appropriations Committee to Inspect National Forest

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—Congressman L. J. Dickinson of Iowa, chairman of the Agricultural Appropriations Subcommittee, is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow morning with other committee members and advisers, to inspect the Angeles National Forest.

The party will inspect the United States Forest Service warehouse in the Arroyo Seco. After lunching at Henniger's Flat, Congressman Dickinson and the other committee members will go to Mt. Wilson over the new road. They will dine at the Mt. Wilson Hotel and hold a meeting in the Mt. Wilson Observatory to discuss the results of their trip.

The group will be escorted by M. H. Davis of the local Forestry Service office, and besides Congressman and Mrs. Dickinson, will include John W. Sandlin and Mrs. Sandlin of Louisiana; Dr. and Mrs. John W. Summers of Washington, D. C.; James P. Buchanan of Texas; Maj. R. Y. Stuart, chief forester of the United States Forest Service, and William A. Duvall, committee clerk.

Prof. Walter Mulford, chairman of the forestry study committee, has presented figures concerning the annual devastation of forest areas by fire.

From 1920 to 1928, inclusive, 7,265,979 acres were burned over, the total damage being estimated at $11,270,870. The annual cost of prevention is given as $300,000 and the annual suppression cost as $750,000.

These figures, according to Prof. Mulford, represent only a small fraction of the actual loss resulting from destruction of watersheds and the ensuing impairment of agricultural values.

Support of the Englebright fire-prevention bill is sought by Mulford as the most intelligent solution of the forest-fire problem. The bill calls for an annual appropriation by the Federal government of $4,500,000, decreasing gradually. This fund would cover the cost of fire prevention for government forest lands throughout the country. The money would be spent for firebreaks; hiring of fire fighters, construction of necessary buildings, including lookout stations; telephone lines, tractors and miscellaneous equipment.

VISIT LABORATORY AT WHITTIER COLLEGE

WHITTIER, Aug. 30.—Members of the House of Representatives Subcommittee on Appropriations will attend the opening of the new $20,000 entomological laboratory here tomorrow.

The building, which will house the United States government Department of Agriculture experimental station, is situated on the campus of Whittier College, the school leasing the ground to the government for a period of years for a nominal sum.

The group of eminent visitors are on their way to Alaska, with Congressman Henderson of Iowa. Congressman W. E. Evans of Glendale and Congressman Joe Crail of Los Angeles will be with the group. Dr. F. R. Cole is to be in charge of the laboratory and Dr. Randall Latta, junior entomologist, will be in charge of the research work.

The laboratory, which conforms to the early California type of architecture, was designed by David S. Bushnell. It contains eleven complete laboratory rooms as well as chemical laboratories.

The Federal government agreed to equip the laboratory and furnish a staff of trained investigators if the community would erect a proper building. This was taken up with the Whittier District Fruit Exchange, Dalton Field, manager, and Whittier College, with the result that the laboratory was built through the efforts of the exchange and the ground practically donated by the college.

Experimental work will be carried on among oranges, lemons and other citrus fruits, avocados and other semitropic products.

RODEO FEATURE AT COUNTY FAIR

Cowboy Sports Thrill Host of Visitors

Drum Corps Contest to be Staged Sunday

Citizens of Pomona Proud of Winning Display

SANTA ANA, Aug. 30.—The county fair today was captured by outlaws. Spurts of dust and the frenzied drumming of hoofs on the sun-baked rodeo field as tough little Montana bronchos tried earnestly to up-end their burr-like passengers thrilled hundreds of spectators as the "outlaws" ushered in a three-day rodeo program.

Wild-eyed steers from the range land of New Mexico, where horns are horns, also gave the riders plenty to do in the roping contests and other rodeo events. Horses still held the center of the fair stage, but it was a sudden change from the stately and beautiful character of the horse show to swift action of the rough and tough variety, with mean stock and hard-boiled riders. The rodeo will continue tomorrow and Monday, with Roy Arnold cracking the whip over the various events.

DRUMMERS CONTEST

All of the drumming that the wild horses are doing with their hoofs, however, will be as nothing compared with the drumming in prospect when the various American Legion bugle and drum corps go into action Sunday evening. During a lull in the rodeo program it appeared today the entry of South Pasadena post's ex-champions yesterday rounded out a field of competition in the county fair contest that includes all of the leading drum corps of the State. South Pasadena, State champions for three years, 1926, 1927 and 1928, until displaced by Long Beach at the recent State convention of the Legion in San Diego, is coming back to avenge its past honors.

Long Beach will be there to repulse the attack, so with Riverside, winners of second place at San Diego, there will be other crack bugle and drum corps of the Southland.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT

Large crowds again visited the fair today, enjoying the wide variety of sightseeing arranged for them. Perhaps the proudest spectators were those from Pomona, whose exhibit yesterday was awarded the sweepstakes prize for the most attractive, artistic and educational at the fair.

A huge and lumbering covered wagon of the '49 vintage was the centerpiece and bulk of the exhibit, which attracted much attention.

Bandits Rob Ventura Cafe, Make Escape

VENTURA, Aug. 30.—Four unmasked men held up the Italian Village, a cafe on the State highway just east of the city limits, and escaped with more than $100 last night.

Their car was found abandoned at Malibu Junction by deputies of the Ventura Sheriff's office after a hot chase during which the bandits were nearly captured.

The bandits are believed to have abandoned their car at Malibu Junction and to have continued toward Los Angeles in another one commandeered by them for the purpose of throwing their pursuers off the track.

The bandit car was registered to Leonard Girard of Hollywood, it was reported.

While one of the bandits stayed with the car last night the other three slipped up to the cafe.

Two employees, who were outside at the time, were herded into the establishment by one of the men while his two partners threatened the five persons inside with guns. Gruffly ordering them about, the bandits took approximately $100 from the cash register, $10 from one of the customers, 85 cents from his companion, and $1 from a local advertising man.

Backing out of the cafe with his gun still on them, one of the robbers prevented any move being made to report the matter to police until his companions had driven the car up near the door.

Shouting a final threat, the man bounded into the machine and the four sped down the highway.

Heavily armed officers scoured the city for several hours in an effort to locate the four bandits.

Two of the customers who were robbed set out to follow the bandit car as soon as possible and officers then took up the chase.

NEW OWNERS FOR BANK AT TEMPLE

TEMPLE CITY, Aug. 30.—Ownership of the First National Bank of Temple City will change hands on October 3, it was announced today by C. L. Dunham, president. The institution has been sold to the United States Securities Corporation of Los Angeles. No change in the personnel of the staff is contemplated, according to Dunham, who stated that the local board of directors, including Roy Testers, George Robins, W. T. Shepard and Dunham would remain. The amount of the consideration was not disclosed. The bank has about $25,000 outstanding in capital stock.

Dunham is a former Nebraska banker and has lived in California nine years. He purchased an interest in the local bank in 1926, soon after it was organized. He will continue as president. The United States Securities Corporation, it is said, owns no other banks at present, although it is said the Temple City purchase may be the start of a new banking chain.

CEMETERY COMPANY MUST PAY

Supervisors Refuse to Exempt Property from Taxation

SANTA ANA, Aug. 30.—In refusing to exempt the Santa Ana Hotel property from taxation, as requested by the Fairhaven Cemetery Association, its owners, the Orange county supervisors have joined other county authorities of the State in opposing the practice of exempting business property owned by cemetery associations.

The claim for exemption is based upon a law exempting all property of cemetery associations, which law is being questioned in two cases now before the State Supreme Court involving circumstances similar to the local case.

Members of the board of supervisors, in denying the exemption request this week, expressed the view that it is unreasonable to allow exemption of property operated for profit, and that such was not the intention of the law. Dangerous abuses of the exemption privilege would result if it was not opposed, the supervisors feared, they said.

Dist.-Atty. Z. B. West Jr., had told the board that a reading of the law superficially made it appear that the hotel property might be exempt but that two test cases are pending before the Supreme Court. The supervisors decided to take their stand against exemption and force the cemetery association to go to court if it desired to force the issue.

The hotel property was exempted last year, its tax bill at that time being about $2852. This year, it is estimated, the tax will amount to approximately $3000.

West stated that the two cases in court are those of the Cypress Lawn and Mt. Olivet cemetery associations against San Francisco, which he said were submitted to the Supreme Court last July 29. County Counsel Mattoon, Los Angeles, as a party not included in the action but interested, filed a brief as amicus curiae with the court, opposing the exemption idea. Los Angeles county, it is said, has refused to exempt a Los Angeles hotel building owned by a cemetery association.

Baby Hit by Automobile

GLENDALE, Aug. 30.—Little Grace Mary Bauchowitz, aged 4½, of 1342 North Cordova street, refused to remain in the family car last night while her 8-year-old brother Billy went across the street for an ice cream cone, so she climbed through the open door and started to follow him.

A sedan, driven by Mrs. Dorothy T. Knight, 1206 North Jackson street, struck her and carried her for twenty feet before it could be stopped, and when Mrs. Fred Bauchowitz, mother of the child, took her to the office of Dr. W. O. Leach it was found that she had received a compound fracture of the right leg, besides a gash on the forehead.

Mrs. Wright told Detective Johnson that she failed to see the child because of another car between her machine and the sidewalk, until it was too late to avoid striking the little girl. The accident occurred in the 900 block on North Brand Boulevard.

RAILROAD SUED FOR LARGE DAMAGES

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 30.—Asserting that the stone pillar supporting the Hollister-avenue overhead railroad crossing is a public nuisance, antiquated, out of date and poorly illuminated, Kelley G. Joiner and his wife, Edith Joiner, who say they were injured in August of last year, when their automobile struck the obstruction, filed suit in Superior Court yesterday against the Southern Pacific Railway Company for more than $50,000 in damages.

According to the complaint, the overhead bridge support was erected by the Southern Pacific Company in 1899, without consent of the Board of Supervisors.

The suit also alleges the obstruction is not properly lighted, being illuminated with only one red light. The red light is insufficient warning on foggy nights, the complaint recites.

SHERIFF SPOILS PLOT

Lucky Discovery of Plan Prevents Jail Delivery at Riverside; Three Prisoners Involved

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 30.—Sheriff Sweeters last night discovered what he asserts was to have been the most sensational attempted jail break in the history of Riverside county. Two ex-convicts, facing possible life imprisonment terms, and a young Indian girl are the asserted principals in the plot.

They are Clarence (Sonny) Rowe, under sentence to Folsom for first-degree robbery in connection with hold-ups at the summit of Mt. Rubidoux, and James H. Gillespie of Elsinore, with records in both San Quentin and Folsom and now charged with child stealing. He has already broken out of three jails, Sweeters said. The girl is Lorena Lugo, 20, jailed on a morals charge.

The Sheriff discovered the plot by accident. He was taking his evening constitutional, strolling about the grounds of the County Jail, when he saw a fine wire pushed through the netting that guards the bars of the men's cell block window. At the end of the wire was fastened a small roll of paper, Sweeters said. A moment later, from the woman's ward above, there was lowered a thread with a cleverly devised hook on the end. By this hook the note on the wire was to be carried upstairs to the women's department.

Rushing from his place of concealment Sweeters clutched the note and hurried into the jail. In the note, he declares, were plans whereby the girl's friends were to smuggle in six saws. She in turn was to get them from Rowe and Gillespie in the tank downstairs. One of the pair, the Sheriff did not learn which, had agreed to marry the girl as soon as the trio were free.

The wire used by the two ex-convicts came from a broom used to sweep out the tank, Sweeters learned. The handle of the broom was utilized to bridge the gap between the tank and the outside window.

Gillespie was sentenced to San Quentin from Imperial county in 1921 for breaking and injuring a jail and from Alameda county in 1923 for burglary.

Rowe served time in San Quentin from San Bernardino county for forgery. He previously had been granted probation from prison on an identical charge.

GLENDALE MAN FAVORED

GLENDALE, Aug. 30.—Indorsement of the candidacy of Peter Hanson, Glendale realtor, for the presidency of the California Real Estate Association, to succeed J. Bradley Clayton of San Jose, gives one of the smaller boards in Southern California the opportunity to occupy an outstanding position in the State association next year.

The boom for Hanson for president was launched at a recent meeting of directors of the State association at Eureka, and friends of the Glendale man from all over the State have rallied to his support, according to reports reaching the Glendale board.

The local organization at a special meeting last night voted to indorse Hanson's candidacy, following receipt of assurances that more than two-thirds of the State directors who will attend the convention in San Diego in October are pledged to him.

Hanson, who is chairman of the appraisal division of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, has won both State and national recognition for his work in the development of a system of real estate valuations.

Kiddie Circus at Rose Bowl Big Success

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—Marked by a spirit of enthusiasm that knew no bounds, this city's first community circus attracted between 25,000 and 30,000 children and adults to the Rose Bowl last night.

No admission was charged and 2000 school children in costume enacted the roles of acrobats, clowns, yelling Indians and pioneers.

The affair, which will be an annual event, was held under the auspices of the Playground Community Service and sponsored by a local newspaper.

Special lighting was installed and the circus opened with juvenile tumblers making merry in three sawdust rings. There were scores of savage lions with legs that looked suspiciously like the extremities of 10-year-old boys.

Four bands marched and played and the climax of the entertainment was a patriotic spectacle in which the local American Legion drum corps took part.

The only accident occurred when a youth on ten-foot stilts caught one of his wooden feet in a gopher hole and fell head over heels to the turf on the football gridiron. He received an ovation when he again regained his full height and continued his funny act despite a slight sprain of one ankle.

Four Brothers, All Ministers Hold Reunion

UPLAND, Aug. 30.—For the past week the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ernest L. McCartney, Sierra Drive, San Antonio Heights, was the scene of a brotherly reunion which united four brothers, all Presbyterian church ministers, for the first time in eleven years.

Dr. Clarence E. McCartney of Pittsburgh, Pa., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, at one time moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of America, spent the week here.

Dr. A. J. McCartney, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Monica, and Dr. J. R. McCartney, pastor of the Vernon-avenue Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles, were the other two brothers.

Chaffey Ready for New Term

ONTARIO, Aug. 30—A program of building and improvement at Chaffey Union High School this summer was practically completed today and the institution of many buildings declared all ready for the opening of school September 16.

Registration is scheduled for September 9, according to Dr. Merton E. Hill, principal of the high school and junior college. Preregistration for high-school students is set for Monday. September 9, with a general faculty meeting the same day at 4 o'clock. Junior college students are due to register September 12, with junior high school and college registration set for September 13.

FIVE-CENT CUT IN CITY'S TAX RATE

INGLEWOOD, Aug. 30.—Glad news to Inglewood property owners was the announcement made at a special meeting of the City Council last night that a reduction of 5 cents per $100 valuation in the city tax rate would be made for the year.

The reduction is made possible by a marked increase in assessed valuation, this being approximately $2,000,000 over last year. The tax rate was fixed upon a valuation of $17,822,455, and is expected to raise, according to Mayor Hugh B. Lawrence, $294,244.18.

Inglewood has shown a steadily decreasing tax rate for the last ten years but this is the greatest drop in this period. The new rate is $1.65 per $100. City Clerk Otto H. Duelke points out that this covers amounts to be raised for all purposes, and not, as in some cities, only for the general fund.

CREEDS FORGOTTEN AT FUNERAL RITES

UPLAND, Aug. 30—All thoughts of creed were forgotten in the death of an old resident of Loyalton, a little place in California near the Nevada line, according to word recevide here today from Bert Foster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church here who is vacationing at Loyalton.

Dr. Foster was called upon to conduct the funeral. He arranged the Episcopal Church funeral service over the deceased Roman Catholic. The services were held in a Baptist Church and members of the Order of Knights of Columbus were pallbearers.

Man and Wife Denied Bail in Murder Case

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 30.—Frank Carillo and his wife Gertrude were denied bail when arraigned in Township Court today on a charge that they murdered their next-door neighbor, Pedro M. Badillo, at Palm City last week. The court set their preliminary hearing for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The defendants' counsel, Attorney Fred Noon, pleaded for Mrs. Carillo's release on "reasonable bail" so she could return and care for the four young Carillo children. Prosecutor O. A. Thorpe objected to such release, pointing out the seriousness of the charge. Thorpe expressed belief that if it had not been for Mrs. Carillo's asserted insistence that her husband kill Badillo the shooting might not have occurred.

The grown son of Carillo has arrived from Sacramento to be with the younger children, it was remarked at the hearing.

Carillo and Badillo are said to have engaged in an exchange of shots before their homes after their families quarreled. The Badillo girls wanted to drive the Carillo car and Mrs. Carillo would not let them and harsh words between the feminine members of the families led to open quarrel between the family heads, according to testimony at the Coroner's inquest. Both fired, but Carillo maintained he fired in self-defense.

ROTARY GOVERNOR AT AZUSA MEETING

AZUSA, Aug. 31. — Approximately 200 Rotarians and their ladies, members of the Covina, Monrovia, Baldwin Park and Azusa clubs, gathered at the Woman's Club here last evening to honor Harvey B. Lyon, of Oakland, Governor of the Second District, Rotary International. It was a formal visit and during the afternoon Governor Lyon took advantage of the opportunity to visit with the board of directors of each of the above named towns, in their own club rooms to work out plans for the coming year.

A formal dinner was served by a committee from the Woman's Club. During the course of the dinner Joe Coles of Covina lead the diners in the singing of several Rotary songs, and introduced the entertainment features of the evening. Following the dinner President C. A. Griffith of the Azusa Club presided over the meeting, and introduced Governor Lyon who delivered an inspiring and interesting address on Rotary work.

The committee in charge of the affair representing the various clubs, was made up of the following: Harry Coops of Baldwin Park, Hal Eastman and Leslie Renaker of Monrovia, W. C. Caypless and Elbert Griffith of Covina, Paul Brecht and R. W. McQuiston of Azusa.

NATION-WIDE TEST

UPLAND, Aug. 30.—William Atchley, San Bernardino county bee inspector, knows his honey and hives better than any other person in the United States. In a nation-wide test given bee and honey men, Atchley scored 99 per cent in honey grading, according to word received here. Second high man scored 76.

UNION LEADERS UNDER ARREST

Governor Acts in Effort to Stop Labor Trouble

Agitators at Work in Border Cities

Accidental Shooting Starts Rumors at Mexicali

MEXICALI, Aug. 30.—Gov. [illegible] ardo Rodriguez today took drastic steps to end the labor union agitation which resulted in the closing of eleven restaurants and cafes for several days this week, when he ordered the arrest of Alfonso [illegible] and G. Tapia, asserted ringleaders of the trouble. According to statements made by officials at the Territorial Palace, similar action has been taken against agitators who are attempting to cause trouble in Tia Juana. It was stated that Santiago Mitre already had been placed in jail in that city and that other arrests would follow.

The trouble which resulted in today's arrests first reached a climax one week ago when the union issued an ultimatum that all restaurants employ 80 per cent Mexican labor. Nine Chinese and two American places refused to comply and their cafes were picketed.

On Tuesday this week a compromise was reached which would enable the restaurant men to reopen the dining-rooms. It was when a radical element among the labor forces attempted to [illegible] agreement that Rodriguez [illegible] to take a hand and the arrests today followed.

The shooting of Juan Guerra in a curio store in Mexicali [illegible] caused rumors that fighting had broken out among the factions involved in the labor controversy. This report was denied at the palace today, however. It was explained that Guerra received a gunshot wound in the hand as he was experimenting with a revolver. All of the resorts which had been closed a week ago were open again today.

SHERIFFS PREVENT TROUBLE IN OIL FIELDS

SANTA ANA, Aug. 30.—Attempts to foment a strike among Mexican laborers employed on the [illegible] tank farm of the Texas Oil Company and that of the [illegible] Company near Cypress today failed when deputy sheriffs quelled the threatened disturbance.

I.W.W. agitators were blamed for the efforts to cause a strike for higher wages. Chief Criminal Deputy Sheriff F. W. Howard and Deputy Harry Carter were called to the scene and shortly had quieted affairs among the 100 workers involved. Work was not interrupted.

The disturbance at Cypress today was believed to have been connected with a movement discovered recently in the Placentia field to organize a union of Mexican laborers.

"Unloaded" Gun Injures Youth

VENTURA, Aug. 31.—Seven-year-old Marion Hill was accidentally shot in the face and seriously wounded by his brother, [illegible] Hill, 12 years of age, in their home here today. The boys are said to have been playing with what they thought was an unloaded gun when the accident occurred.

Young [illegible] took the gun, a .22 caliber automatic pistol belonging to his elder brother, [illegible] from a bureau drawer in the bedroom. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill were away at the time.

John Frei, a mail carrier, was passing the house at the time and hearing the shot and the child's scream, he ran in and found what had happened.

He notified police immediately and the child was hurried to the Big Sisters Hospital.

Attending physicians stated that young Marion was out of danger and possibly could be removed to his home tonight. The bullet missed penetrating a vital spot in his neck by a fraction of an inch.

FAREWELL RECEPTION TENDERED MINISTER

SAN GABRIEL, Aug. 30.—A farewell reception was tendered last night to the Rev. Royal Reimer who has resigned the pastorate of the San Gabriel Methodist Episcopal Church. Members of the church turned out in large numbers to pay him their respects.

Rev. Reimer will devote his entire time to the work of the Methodist Young People's Epworth League. He has recently been appointed leader of the Southern California conference of Epworth League, which includes Southern California, Arizona and Nevada. His successor at the local church will be named at the church conference September 24. Rev. Reimer has been pastor here for the past four years.

PROFESSOR STARTS FIRE

University Instructor Endangers Home When He Attempts to Smoke Snake from Brush Pile

LA CRESCENTA, Aug. 30.—Prof. C. F. McIntyre, [illegible] avenue, went hiking a few days ago in the foothills near his home and captured a full-grown rattlesnake.

Whether the charms of the snake's society palled on the professor, who is a member of the faculty of the University of California, or whether the snake simply took it into its head to move on, is not known, but when McIntyre found his pet missing he started a hunt for it, to find it basking close to a pile of brush in his yard. When the snake saw the professor creeping up it took refuge in the brush pile and McIntyre, after vainly trying to charm it out of there, touched a match to the dry vegetation and waited for the snake to appear.

The professor, however, had reckoned without considering the dry weather that has prevailed in the hills, and before he could put it out the fire had spread and was threatening his house.

The fire department answered three calls that came over the wires almost simultaneously and the flames were subdued after they had burned over a small area.

Officials of the fire department when they investigated the cause of the fire notified Prof. McIntyre to appear before Judge [illegible] Dyer and explain how he came to start the blaze. Meanwhile the rattlesnake had escaped in the confusion and has not been seen since.

Agitators at Work in Border Cities

Accidental Shooting Starts Rumors at Mexicali

MEXICALI, Aug. 30.—Gov. Abelardo Rodriguez today took drastic steps to end the labor union agitation which resulted in the closing of eleven restaurants and saloons for several days this week, when he ordered the arrest of Alfonso Cota and G. Tapia, asserted ringleaders of the trouble. According to statements made by officials at the Territorial Palace, similar action has been taken against agitators who are attempting to cause trouble in Tia Juana. It was stated that Santiago [illegible] already had been placed in jail in that city and that other arrests would follow.

The trouble which resulted in today's arrests first reached a climax one week ago when the union issued an ultimatum that all resorts must employ 80 per cent Mexican labor. Nine Chinese and two American places refused to comply and their cafes were picketed.

On Tuesday this week a compromise was reached which would enable the restaurant men to reopen the dining-rooms. It was when a radical element among the local labor forces attempted to disrupt this agreement that Rodriguez decided to take a hand and the arrests today followed.

The shooting of Juan Guerra in a curio store in Mexicali last night caused rumors that fighting had broken out among the factions involved in the labor controversy. This report was denied at the palace today, however. It was explained that Guerra received a gunshot wound in the hand as he was experimenting with a revolver. All of the resorts which had been closed a week ago were open again today.

VENTURA, Aug. 30.—Eleven-year-old Marion Hill was accidentally shot in the face and seriously wounded by his brother, Hazel Hill, 13 years of age, in their home here today. The boys are said to have been playing with what they thought was an unloaded gun when the accident occurred.

Young Hazel took the gun, a .22-caliber automatic pistol belonging to his elder brother, Bob Hill, from a bureau drawer in the bedroom. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hill were away at the time.

JUNIOR OLYMPIC CHAMPIONS RETURN

Lassco Liner Brings 'Em Home

BY BRAVEN DYER

FOUR seasoned travelers, veterans of a twelve-day ocean voyage, returned to Los Angeles yesterday morning after experiencing one of the most entertaining and interesting trips it is possible for man to take. Sliding gently into the wharf of the Los Angeles Steamship Company aboard the S. S. City of Los Angeles the four vacationers-Jerry Deal, Van Baker, Fernando Ramos and Robert San Jose—complete dtheir round-trip excursion to the Hawaiian Islands.

The youngsters won the three weeks' vacation as a result of their brilliant work in the Junior Olympic Games, and were guests of The Times, not only on the bracing ocean voyage but also during these eight wonderful days on the Island.

As far as the kids were concerned it came to an end all too quickly. The trip over on the ship was replete with new experiences, for none of the youngsters but San Jose had ever taken an ocean voyage of any consequence. Bob, having lived in Honolulu, was more excited than any of the others as each turn of the ship's screw brought him nearer his old friends.

Angeleno Stages Uphill Battle to Conquer Miss Kathleen Wright; faces Mrs. Hill Today for Title

BY PAUL R. MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—Streaking over the rugged Mayfield Country Club course with par-breaking golf, Mrs. Gregg Lifur, methodical shot-maker from Los Angeles, and Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City veteran, swept into the final round of the western women's championship today.

Mrs. Lifur fought a brilliant uphill battle to conquer her hometown rival, Kathleen Wright, on the eighteenth green, while Mrs. Hill played one of the best matches of her brilliant career to stop Peggy Wattler of Buffalo by a 3-and-2 margin. The two will battle over thirty-six holes or less tomorrow for the championship.

MRS. GREGG LIFUR.

The Kansas City player was four under par for her required sixteen holes today, while Mrs. Lifur clipped two strokes from perfect figures.

Mrs. Lifur got into a hole by dropping the first three holes to a birdie and two pars. On the first Miss Wright sank a fifteen-foot downhill putt for a birdie 4. On the next two holes Mrs. Lifur three-putted. After halving the next two holes in par, Mrs. Lifur whittled her rival's margin to two up by laying a beautiful third iron twenty feet from the sixth pin and sinking the putt for an eagle 4. A trapped second shot by Miss Wright gave Mrs. Lifur the seventh hole, but she BROOKLINE (Mass.) Aug. 30. (AP) The finals match in the national mixed doubles tennis championship became three-quarters British here today, when Miss Betty Nuthall, England, and George M. Lott, Jr., of Chicago, defeated Mrs. Phoebe Watson, and J. S. Oliff, both of England, 6-3, 5-7, 6-1, in the lower half semifinals match.

Mrs. B. C. Covell and H. W. Austin, the second seeded English team, gained the other finals bracket by defeating Mrs. D. C. Shepherd-Barron of England, and Norman Farquharson, South African Davis Cup player, 6-2, 6-2.

Barfoot Sent to Showers in First Inning

Five Hurlers Fail to Halt Vengeful Ducks

BY BOB RAY
"Times" Staff Correspondent

PORTLAND (Or.) Aug. 30.—Portland bats worked overtime at the Vaughn - street ball yard today and as a result of their intensive efforts Bill Rodgers and his dynamite Ducks once more find themselves in undisputed possession of first place. The Ducks this afternoon bumped the Angels out of a tie for the league leadership by capturing a wild slugfest from the Lelivelt aggregation by the score of 12 to 7.

FRED ORTMAN

The Ducks really won the game in the first inning, when they chased Clyde Barfoot to the showers and finished up on Deacon Plitt with a six-hit barrage that produced a half-dozen runs. Two more were added when Plitt was routed in the second but the Angels kept pecking away and weren't really out of the running until the Ducks picked up four more runs in the sixth, seventh and eighth frames.

Lelivelt shoved in five hurlers in a vain effort to stop the Portland attack but they all looked alike to the Ducks, who massaged the horsehide for seventeen hits, including home runs by Dave Harris and Buster Chatham.

Fred Ortman, the slim southpaw, failed to last it out on the mound despite the large lead handed him and had to be replaced by Joe Cascarelli at the start of the seventh, when the score stood 9 to 5. Carcarella at the start of the evtive but managed to finish. The Angels got ten hits off the pair of Portland pitchers and scored enough runs to win had their own hurlers turned in any kind of a performance.

FATAL PASS

Barfoot started all the trouble in the fatal first by walking Chatham. Hillis singled infield in front of the plate and Chatham romped to third on the throw to first. Sigafoos forced Hillis, Barfoot to Haney but Keesey hit a double to center that scored Chatham. Harris scored Sigafoos with a single to left and then Walters singled to score Keesey. Plitt replaced Barfoot. Bates walked to fill the bases and Tomlin then smashed a hit to left off Plitt's shin to count Harris and Walters.

HUGE SWIM PRIZE WON BY KEATING

New York Boy Captures Wrigley Race; German Second; Ross Third

TORONTO (Ont.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Edward F. Keating of New York, outswam 237 rivals and outgamed the chilly waters of Lake Ontario to capture the fourth annual Wrigley fifteen - mile marathon swim and to add $25,000 to his bank roll today.

ERNST VIERKOTTER

While cold water, cramps and physical exhaustion were taking a heavy toll of the big field, Keating's powerful stroke carried him to a 500-yard victory over the giant German, Ernest Vierkoetter, now a resident of Toronto.

From seventh place at the end of the first of the eight and one-half laps, Keating forged ahead steadily until he gained the lead from Norman Ross of Chicago on the seventh lap. From then on the New Yorker was never seriously threatened, although Vierkoetter set a desperate pace on the last lap in a vain effort to overhaul the leader. Second place gained for Vierkoetter a cash award of $5000.

Fourth place and $1500 went to a "dark horse," Isador Spondor of Port Colborne, Ont., a 16-year-old boy, and fifth to Mendell Burditt of Toronto, who won $1000 for his efforts.

Gamely battling his way through the chilly waters of the lake, Myron Cox of Venice, Cal., finished sixth after being in the water ten and one-half hours. By finishing

SWIM STARS READY FOR 'TIMES' EVENT TOMORROW

Last-minute entries, which were in the mail before the deadline at 6 o'clock, Thursday night, have swelled the total number of entrants in the Times Pre-Olympic swim to an astonishing 108, Charley Keppen, manager of the aquatic classic, announced yesterday.

JOSEPHINE McKIM

Just seventy-two talented mermen have sent in their entry blanks to dive off the pier at Venice at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, headed for the pier at Ocean Park, seven-eighths of a mile away; and thirty-six feminine stars have agreed to battle in the one-half mile event for women, which starts from the same place at 2:05.

At least 20,000 aquatic fans are expected to line the two piers and the beach between to witness the two great races for The Times trophies. Interest, naturally, has settled on (Buster) Crabbe, of the Outrigger Club of Honolulu, and Miss Josephine McKim of the Panama Canal Zone, who are the favorites in the two races. Crabbe's four victories in the recent men's national championships at San Francisco, and Miss McKim's three triumphs in the women's title affairs at Honolulu rank them as the outstanding amateurs of the present day.

Both will be accorded plenty of opposition, largely from local swimmers, and two brilliant races are expected. By arrangement with the United States Coast Guard, The Times will be able to furnish the spectators with minutely bulletins, giving the standings of the leading competitors in both races. Lieut. H. T. Jewell, acting commander of Base 17, San Pedro, will have one of the Coast Guard 75-foot boats at the scene of action. A signalman stationed on this boat will flash to other

Six Pitchers Employed in Slugging Match

Solons Break Losing Run With Victory

BY RALPH HUSTON

A spine-tickling double into deep left-center in the ninth inning made a hero out of "Slim" Stoeven, Sacramento first baseman, yesterday, and gave the Solons a 10-9 victory over the Hollywood Stars, for their first win of the present series. Previously the Vittmen had hung it on the Sacs for four straight.

MICKEY HEATH

Stoeven's lengthy blow came at a crucial moment, when his team was two runs behind, and the paths were clogged by Sacramento batters who had been walked by Joe Marty. That much-used and abused veteran southpaw, Walter Kinney, was the victim of the blow, but the defeat was charged to Marty, who had put both the tying and winning runs on the paths in the final canto.

Joe's control, as usual, was nothing to write home about. In fact,

BY ALAN J. GOULD

DEL MONTE, Aug. 30. (AP)—Wielding his famous putter with almost miraculous skill, even for this celebrated implement, Bobby Jones handed a knockout blow to the supposedly impregnable Pebble Beach links by scoring a record-smashing 67 late today before a pop-eyed gallery of more than 1000 spectators.

BOBBY JONES

In an atmosphere of excitement more fitting for actual championship play than for a mere practice round, three days in advance of the amateur title tournament, Jones gave California the biggest golfing thrill it has had so far by slashing five strokes from par for this oceanside course and cutting three strokes from his own record, made two days ago.

The champion was off to a careless start, taking two shots in a bunker on the second hole and three putts on the third, but thereafter his game was as perfect as it has ever been, in practice or competition. Over a stretch of nine straight holes, from the fifth to the thirteenth, the Georgian shot seven birdies, and required only twenty-eight strokes altogether, as "Calam-

The men's race is a straightaway seven-eighths event, starting sharply at 2 o'clock from the Venice Pier, and ending at the Ocean Park Pier. The women's race is one-half mile, and will start and finish at the Venice Pier, the contestants circling a line of buoys which will be anchored one-quarter mile from the starting-point, between the two piers. No boats will be allowed to follow the swimmers, but the Los Angeles municipal lifeguards will be on hand to reinforce the Venice and Ocean Park swimmers, so that every safety measure will be provided.

Men swimmers will report at the Ocean Park bath-house at 1 o'clock for instructions and official numbers. The women entrants will report at the Venice bath-house at the same time.

Leading officials will be Leslie Henry, referee; William Traeger, starter; Sid Foster, timer; Eugene Biscailuz, judge; Arnold Eddy, clerk of course, men's race; Les Bennett, clerk of course, women's race; observer, Hugh Pinney. Other officials include Duke Kahanamoku, Herman Brix, M. Egbert, Frank Holborow, Al Peagans, Amos Elliott, Lauren Andrews. BARNEY ROSS WILL MAKE DEBUT TONIGHT

Whether the newest ring prospect of Gig Rooney, manager of the world's welterweight champion, Jackie Fields, is a future featherweight champion or a "palooka" will be decided to a large extent tonight at the Main-street Athletic Club.

Barney Ross, 19-year-old Chicagoan who has won 150 amateur bouts, makes his start as a professional with Ramon Lugo, stiff-punching Mexican flash, as his opponent. Lugo has beaten Joe Mancillas, Danny Kramer, Jimmy Piela, Red Humphries and other good 128-pounders. Fields and Rooney will be in Ross's corner tonight.

Jack Chavez and Jackie Stewart, 158-pounders, meet in another six-round bout. Four other bouts complete the card.

SINGER-CHOCOLATE GO DRAWS $215,266

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The Chocolate-Singer boxing bout at the Polo Grounds last night attracted a paid attendance of 37,713 persons, yielding gross receipts of $215,266.75. The net receipts amounted to $178,650.05. The Federal tax on tickets was $23,842.75 and the State tax, $8938.65. The Federal tax on complimentaries amounted to $3147 and the State tax for the same purpose was $688.80.

THE PRE-OLYMPIC SWIM

Buster Crabbe, Walter Spence and Austin Clapp are names to conjure with in the men's seven-eighths-of-a-mile race and so are Josephine McKim, Norene Forbes and Olive Hatch in the women's one-half-mile race.

Years ago—in 1913 and 1914 to be exact—Leslie Henry, chairman of the national A.A.U. track-and-field committee—promoted two ocean races from the Ocean Park pier to a buoy and return, about five-eighths of a mile. Ludy Langer and Duke Kahanamoku were the respective winners of these two races.

Tomorrow's race, revived by The Times in the hope of kindling enthusiasm in the Olympic Games here in 1932, is longer. The men's test is between the Venice and Ocean Park piers. The women's race from the Venice pier to a buoy and return.

The tremendous interest aroused in both races—the first of the series—has been more than gratifying from the standpoint of all concerned. It was so in the Times Pre-Olympic Marathon, which was witnessed by an enormous crowd.

Both these events are to be continued in the expectation of arousing still greater interest in them as they become better known and point to the Olympic Games of 1932.

JUST ANOTHER JONES LINK

THERE seems to be no further reason for suspecting that Mr. Bobby Jones has not become pretty well acquainted with the fine texture of the greens at Pebble Beach.

As was pointed out in this column yesterday the natives of Pebble Beach had no right to feel that Bobby should stride forth on his first two or three days of play and smash par all over the place.

Those bermuda greens Bobby putts on at his home in Atlanta are so different from the California greens that he had to become thoroughly acquainted with them to do his real stuff.

And how he has done it in the last two days!

A scorching round of 70—two under par—on Thursday, followed by a remarkable 67 yesterday tells the story better than words of Mr. Jones's superlative ability.

As was also pointed out yesterday "you may expect most anything from Mr. Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., from now on.

"He is that kind of an athlete."

THAT HUDKINS CASE

THE Ace Hudkins case seems to be provoking enough wrath in the public prints for the eminent members of the State Athletic Commission to take cognizance of it.

At least one member of the commission is not in accord with the belated edict that Ace Hudkins cannot fight Joe Anderson here September 10 until his suit against the commission to collect a purse of $13,000 is settled. That member is James Woods, who governs this district.

Mr. Woods has indicated he is in accord with the general belief that Hudkins has been dealt with unjustly.

Suspension might have been in order after the Belanger fight. Certainly not two months after the bout and two weeks after a State inspector of the commission had indicated he knew of no reason why the Olympic could not make a Hudkins-Anderson match.

So far the commissioners who have voted suspension to Hudkins at this time are Charles Traung of San Francisco and Chairman Bill Hanlon.

Mr. Traung was in Europe when Hudkins and Belanger met. Mr. Hanlon did not take the trouble to go to the fight.

OLYMPIC AFTER SINGER OR TOWNSEND FOR BOUT

Two possible opponents for the winner of the Goldie Hess-Wildcat Carter were being mentioned yesterday by the Olympic Club. Matchmaker Wad Wadhams sent one wire into the northwest and another to New York.

The prospects are Billy Townsend, who was credited with a two-round knockout over Carter in Seattle last Tuesday night, and Al Singer, who lost a close decision to Kid Chocolate in New York Wednesday night.

William Neal, manager of Carter, is eager to get Townsend in the ring with the flashy little negro again and is willing to guarantee him up to $5000 for such a bout.

Carter and Neal think that Townsend had tea lead in his gloves or something that made his ordinary punches raise welts and bumps when ever they landed.

Wadhams has had Singer under consideration for some time. The little New York Jewish boy will work on the Coast for a guarantee of $5000 and against the right opponent would be worth it.

Talk that the Olympic would never again guarantee boxers is not in line with the club's policies. Whenever an easterner rates and figures it is next to impossible to get him on straight percentage and the Doyle club is largely dependent on imported boxers.

Because James J. Braddock failed to fill the Grand-avenue arena it was said the club was done with guarantees. The arrival and departure of the Graf Zeppelin ruined the Braddock-Okun gate, but the fight was perhaps the best light-heavyweight battle ever seen in the Olympic.

Singer wants a $5000 guarantee. Against Hess he would easily draw $13,000 under normal conditions. Just how good Carter would pull if he beats Hess is still questionable. Although Okun had fought two winning scraps here he was not a "red hot" until after he whipped Braddock.

Wadhams has a stack of telegrams a foot high from heavies and light-heavies who all want a pot shot at Okun. Some claim they beat him and all contend they can chase him out of the ring.

Even George Manley says he can take Okun out to lunch every night in the week and make sandwiches out of him. Joe Sekyra is another. Tony Marullo also wants transportation to California.

The Olympic is interested in but one bout for Okun. That is with Ace Hudkins. But no action can be taken until the Nebraskan gets at least an even break with the State Athletic Commission. His trial is set for September 4.

STRANGLER LEWIS LOOKS GREAT IN FIRST WORKOUT

Ed (Strangler) Lewis, the big Kentuckian head crusher who is scheduled to meet Joe Stecher in a finish mat battle at the Olympic Wednesday night in the final event of "Carnation" Lou Daro's wrestling tournament, looked greater in a workout yesterday than he had in any of his championship matches here. One of Lewis's trainers had to be carried from the ring and revived as the result of his efforts to fight out of one of the former champion's headlocks. The trainer believed he could break out of the hold after Lewis had set it, but he failed.

Several close followers of the mat game who witnessed the workout in Glendale declare Lewis is more rugged, tougher and in better condition than he was for his last battle here with Stecher or for any of his title matches here last year. Billy Sandow, Lewis's manager, stated the former champion was in better condition at the present time then he was the night he scored the first fall against Champion Gus Sonnenberg, who is scheduled to meet the winner of Wednesday night's bout.

Lewis has become the "crasher" of old, according to Sandow, who looks for the Kentuckian to put Stecher to sleep with headlocks as he did when he first took the title from the Nebraskan. Lewis is stronger in his arms than Stecher is or ever was with his legs, Sandow stated.

Promoter Lou Daro has two great battles lined up to precede the feature event.

SWORDFISH PLAYS TAG WITH ANGLERS

HERMOSA BEACH, Aug. 30.—The huge broadbill swordfish, on whose head has been placed a $100 reward for its capture by J. M. Andersen of the Olympic barge, continues to give a score of anglers the "go-by" inasmuch as all methods known to the "trade" of capturing broadbills have been brought into play.

Added shoreboat service to the Olympic barges is promised for both this Sunday night as well as Saturday night, according to Capt. J. M. Andersen, in order to handle the throngs over Labor Day.

SANTA MONICA DRAWS CROWDS OF ANGLERS

Every day this week has found more anglers than ever before going out on the live-bait boats and the barge Billings at Santa Monica, it was declared last night by Capt. Jack Dugan. "The ships Ameco and Palisades, regular-run boats at the Bay City, have been carrying large crowds and these crowds certainly have been catching fish," said Dugan. Fish being caught off the Bay City include halibut, bass and barracuda. Best fishing locations have been off Point Dume and the Topanga Reef.

Jack Russell Holds Macks to Seven Hits

Earnshaw Fails to Chalk Up Twentieth Win

Boston Breaks Tie in Sixth to Cinch Victory

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30. (AP)—Jack Russell held the pennant-bound Athletics to seven hits here today and the Red Sox outpointed the leaders by 4 to 2. George Earnshaw opposed Russell until removed for a pinch batsman in the eighth and thus made another vain stab for his twentieth victory.

The Red Sox broke a 1-to-1 tie in the sixth when two runs were scored on singles by Rothrock and Todt grouped about Barrett's double. The visitors never relinquished the lead, and added a run to their total in the eighth. The score:

VANCE VICTOR

BROOKLYN, Aug. 30. (AP)—A fumble by Travis Jackson in the tenth inning here today cost Hubbell the decision in a great pitching duel with Dazzy Vance. Brooklyn evened its series against the Giants by taking the second engagement, 2 to 1.

Gilbert reached first on Jackson's fumble in the final round, advanced on Flowers's sacrifice and scored the winning run on Deberry's double. Although Vance fanned only two, he pitched masterful ball, and was scored upon only through Leach's freak home run which struck the top of the right-field wall and bounded into the street beyond.

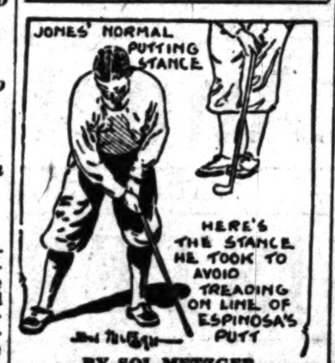
Start Work on East Side Arena

Leo Newman, promoter of the new Eastside Auditorium boxing arena project, announced yesterday that ground breaking for the building is scheduled for September 12. Contractors who will erect the arena, to be situated near East Ninth and Lorena streets, expect to have the job completed sixty days later.

Newman also came forth with the announcement yesterday that he has selected several members of his staff who will be in charge when the bowl is opened. Frank Dalin, Los Angeles sportsman and secretary to the present State Legislature, will be assistant to the promoter, Newman states. Patrick Zarilla, formerly of the Main-street Club, will have charge of the gymnasium to be conducted in conjunction with the Eastside Club. R. A. Etie will handle the program to be published and Norman Hartford will direct the publicity.

The Eastside Auditorium will be constructed for the staging of only boxing and wrestling shows and will seat 5100 fans, according to present plans. No immediate arrangements for wrestling have been made.

Bobby's Code Best Shown in Matches



JONES' NORMAL PUTTING STANCE
HERE'S THE STANCE HE TOOK TO AVOID TREADING ON LINE OF ESPINOSA'S PUTT

BY SOL METZGER

The object in putting is to hole out. That is all Bobby Jones thinks about when Calamity Jane is working. And Calamity Jane works under pressure in four out of five national championships for the sturdy youth from Atlanta, as everyone at Pebble Beach has learned this week.

You have to hand it to Bobby for his sportsmanship, too. At Baltusrol he lost to George Von Elm in the finals. When George was preparing to play an important short putt on one hole he was noticably disturbed by the gallery. Bobby quickly knocked George's ball away, granting him the putt.

Where we can all take example from Jones is in his sportsmanship on the greens. In the recent play-off for the open title with Espinosa when the latter was leading, Al asked Bobby to play out a short putt instead of marking his ball. To do so Bobby had to take his stance on Al's line to putt normally. But he carefully avoided doing so, spanning the line with feet set wide apart. Few golfers play that courtesy to their opponents on wet greens. They walk and stand on the line near the cup and make it untrue for the dying ball.

A golfer is no better than his tee shot. Sol Metzger has prepared a free illustrated leaflet on the art of driving. Send for it in care of The Times and enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

OAKLAND SHUTS OUT MISSION REDS, 2-0

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Oakland nosed out the Missions, 2-0, today in a tight game. The Oaks reached Ruether for tallies in the sixth and seventh frames, although the veteran left-hander was stingy with his hits. He allowed six hits, one a home run by Fenton. The Missions nicked Craghead for eight safeties, all well scattered, while he was given perfect teamwork. Score:

BOBBY JONES REGISTERS 67

Pebble Beach Mark Lowered by Three Strokes

Championship Test Humbled by Noted Atlantan

Clips Five Strokes Off Par Figures in Practice

ity Jane" sank 'em at distances up to forty feet.

Jones was playing in an international foursome, pairing with Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston of St. Paul against the Britishers, Cyril J. H. Tolley and Eustace F. Storey, but the largest gallery of the week seemed to forget completely that there were three others on the course. When Bobby sank his last putt on the eighteenth the cheer that went up was almost as enthusiastic as if he had just been crowned champion again. To judge from the reaction of spectators, the entire affair of Pebble Beach is a one-man show.

Jones's performance not only overshadowed the work of his playing companions but also everything else for the day, including a sparkling 71, one under par, by Phillips Finlay of Redlands, Cal., former Harvard star. Finlay had five birdies and an eagle 3 on the "chasm sixth," a 502-yard layout, to make up for his mistakes.

Storey's 75 was the best the British could produce, Tolley being wild and carding an approximate 79. Johnston also was erratic and took a 77, but Jones, almost single handed, accomplished the defeat of the Englishmen in his match by a score of 5 and 4. Bobby, after his poor start, made Pebble Beach's terrors look anything but formidable. Except for an occasional mashie-niblick shot that strayed off the line, there was not a flaw in the champion's play. Whatever mistakes he made in the direction of his shots to the green, he more than atoned for my sensational putting.

He rammed home a thirty-footer on the ninth, twelve-footers on the tenth and as he scored five threes in a row. He was in a trapa with his second shot, just off the edge of the 555-yard fourteenth green, but exploded out beautifully and sank a ten-footer for his seventh birdie. On the long finishing hole, 540 yards, curving around the ocean's edge all the way, Jones was within ten yards of the green with his second shot, deliberately cutting the hazardous corner to get nearly home. He had an easy seven-foot putt for a birdie and a 66, but missed it.

Jones' card, compared with par:

Par out	454	435	344—36
Jones out	465	434	243—35
Par in	443	454	435—36—72
Jones in	333	344	435—32—67

Otherwise, Pebble Beach withstood most of the practice attacks on its picturesque armor. George Voigt of New York, and George Von Elm of Detroit, each scored 78's, playing together, but Chandler Egan of Medford, Oregon champion in 1904-05, banged out a 73. Another star from the Pacific Northwest, Frank Dolph of Portland, Or., shot a 75. The fifteenth entry to withdraw, Louis Jacoby, of Dallas, Tex., reduced to 147 the prospective starting field for the qualifying play, beginning Monday.

JUNIOR CHAMPS COMPLETE TRIP

bination of golf, pool and whatnot. Coming home Jerry ran into a tartar in Dr. Robinson and lost out after a tough struggle in the finals. Baker copped honors in an orange rolling contest and also won a prize in the masquerade event, disguising himself as a horned toad, a la Lon Chaney. San Jose proved to be the best boy on the ship when it came to picking up beans with a knife. This didn't happen at the table, but in a race during the deck sports program. Ramos, a very modest young man, did not enter any of the athletic events, contenting himself with copping first honors in the pie-eating contest.

It is hard to tell which the boys enjoyed most—their eight days on the islands or their boat journey. Purser Robinson and everybody aboard the Lasco liner were so couteous and helpful at all times that we really hated to leave them at the dock.

Although the boys got a great kick out of their visit to the volcano, which, however, refused to perform for them, they claim the time spent on the beach at Waikiki will linger longest in their memories. The just-right water, the surf riding, the outrigger rides, the sun baths on the sand and the unusual sport of a night dip 'neath the shining moon will never be forgotten.

George Tauman, who runs a high-class gymnasium aboard the City of Los Angeles, put the boys through their sprouts now and then just to keep them in condition. Although it was strictly a pleasure trip the four champions, who won the nation's highest honors at Atlantic City, perferred to keep and tan-man was always ready to helf them in their gymnastics.

Baker is the only one of the four youngsters eligible for competition next year. Inasmuch as he is national junior champion he automatically moves into the senior division next year. This leaves places very wide open to Southern California kids in the competition during 1930.

If this yarn isn't very "hot" it is because the writer finds it impossible to function after three weeks of nothing but one round of pleasure after another. If we had used our noodle we would have had Al Wesson, publicity director at U. S. C., write this epistle. Al came back on the ship with our party and distinguished himself by cutting a wide swath on the dance floor each evening. Mr. Wesson is a good writer, but his hip wiggling and hoofing put his epistolary efforts to shame.

Mayes M'Lain to Play for Olympic Club

IOWA CITY (Iowa) Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Apparently unsuccessful in his search for a university which would rule him eligible for further intercollegiate competition, Mayes McLain, former University of Iowa fullback, will play this fall with the Olympic Club eleven of San Francisco.

MRS. LIFUR IN FINALS TODAY

TURNING POINT

The turning point of the match came on the twelfth. Mrs. Lifur took it at the thirteenth hole with birdie threes, halved the next with another birdie, halved the fifteenth with a par 5, squared the match for the first time by winning the seventeenth, and won it by capturing the final hole with a par 5, while Miss Wright shanked her irons badly and went two over par.

The Hill-Wattles match was a close one for the first nine holes only. Miss Wattles went into the lead on the first hole by slamming a 150-yard iron to within easy two-putting distance of the flag and getting a birdie 4. They played perfect golf on the third, fourth, fifth and sixth. Mrs. Hill went one up on the seventh green. Both sent their seconds rolling to a creek, but Mrs. Hill's bounced onto the green while Peggy's bounced over once and then hit an obstruction and landed in the water. They halved the next two, giving Mrs. Hill a one-hole lead at the turn.

Then Mrs. Hill started her rush and Miss Wattles began faltering with her putter. The Kansas Cityan increased her lead by getting birdies on the tenth and eleventh, halved the short twelfth with another birdie and went four up by bagging her fourth consecutive birdie on the easy par-four thirteenth. On the tenth and eleventh holes Miss Wattles ruined chances to halve by three-putting. However, she whittled her rival's lead to 2 up by winning the fourteenth and fifteenth, Mrs. Hill taking three putts on each. Another fatal three-putt green on the sixteenth ended the struggle.

SEALS POUND SEATTLE HURLERS TO WIN, 7-4

SEATTLE, Aug. 30. (AP)—San Francisco pounded four Seattle hurlers for fifteen hits here today to score a 7-to-4 baseball victory over the Indians. Mails, Seal hurler, held the locals scoreless until the eighth, when four hits counted for four runs, and Davis was sent in to stop the rally. Score:

ARMY POLOISTS FACE UPLIFTERS

Mallet Squads Tangle Here Tomorrow Afternoon

Making their first local appearance, four hard-riding Army poloists, from the Eleventh Cavalry post at the Presidio of Monterey, go on parade tomorrow afternoon before Southland mallet fans at Rustic Canyon Field when they cross sticks with the Uplifters' Club four in the opening tilt of a two-game series. The Cavalry horsemen led by Capt. D. S. Wood arrived here yesterday and worked out on the Uplifters' field. Capt. Kilburn, Lieut. Hines and Capt. Falck will ride with Wood in the series here.

Wood is the best-known player on the Army team. He played for years in service circles and up to the time he broke his leg was considered one of the best all-around backs in army polo. He now rates at three goals after being out of competition for two years. He has seen much action at Fort Bliss with Capt. "Jingle" Wilson and other celebrated army stars. Short, stocky, quiet and yet a dynamic player, Wood is expected to carry the attack to the local boys in the series here.

The Eleventh has played with success this season at Del Monte, San Mateo and Santa Barbara and they expect to carry the scalps of the Uplifters back with them.

In order to offset the hard charging of the army riders the Uplifters have nominated a cracking good low-goal team to carry their colors. Will Rogers, Snowy Baker, Hal Roach and Clair Brunson will represent the Santa Monica ranch club.

Action will begin at 2:30. The field is located in Rustic Canyon just off Beverly Boulevard.

ZORILLA GETS DRAW; FANS IN NEAR RIOT

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Raymond Montoya, San Diego, surprised to hold Santiago Zorilla, Los Angeles featherweight, to a draw in a fast and furiously fought ten-round bout here tonight. A near riot greeted the decision, the fans, very partisan throughout the bout, surrounding Referee Bill Ruwin after he left the ring. Many spectators milled around the arena after the bout and Ruwin was escorted from the building by police in attendance.

Ringsiders gave Montoya four rounds, Zorilla three with the other two even. Zorilla was a strong favorite before the bout but Montoya rushed at the Panamanian all the ten rounds and scored with a driving attack to head and body.

SOLONS RALLY TO WIN

it might not have been amiss to drop a postcard to your nearest Senator over the situation. He toiled seven full innings, replacing "Hankus-Pankus" Hulvey, who had been hailed from the scene of action during a trying second inning, and walked no less than six batters.

VITT CHASED

It was just about time for the Sacs to win one, but Manager Buddy Ryan had to use three hurlers and get Oscar Vitt of the Stars chased in his effort to win. Mr. Vitt's language, it is said, was not only brutal, but even a trifle uncouth, when he addressed the Sacramento pitchers from his vantage spot on the third-base coaching box. It drew the ire of Mr. Ryan, and Umpire Powell eventlly chased Vitt in the midst of a third-inning Hollywood rally.

As a result of the defeat, the Stars are in third place in the loop standings, a game and a half behind the Portland Beavers and a half-game behind the Angels.

Vitt sent Hulvey and a prayer to the mound to start the contest, and the prayer was good for a round, despite a base hit by Johnny Monroe. But four lusty bingles gave the visitors five runs in the second, and sent the lanky hurler to the showers. Koehler and Rohwer were walked in succession, and Hoag sacrificed them along. Stoeven walked, filling the bases. Cano came through with a single through Red Rollings scoring Koehler and Rohwer. Len Backer followed with a homer over the left-field wall, which not only made it five runs, but also disposed of Hulvey. Marty was called to the rescue, and was greeted with successive singles by Monroe and McLaughlin. Osborne grounded to Marty, and Koehler walked for the second time that inning, filling the bases. Rohwer grounded to Burkett to end the frame.

Carlyle's single, Heath's double, and Monroe's error on Albert's grounder gave the Stars a run in the second, and they came back with five in the third to take a 6-5 lead. Cano, who is big, heavy, and a right-hander, walked Lee, Rollings and Funk in succession, and gave way to "Lefty" Flynn, who is pallid, skinny and a southpaw. Severeid greeted him with a snappy single to left scoring Lee and Rollings. Carlyle fanned, and Heath slammed one over the right-field wall to drive Funk and Severeid home ahead of him. Albert and Burkett grounded to end the scoring.

Two more in the fourth, on a single by Marty, a sacrifice by Lee, a walk to Rollings, Funk's double, and Severeid's single helped the Hollywood cause; and they added another in the fifth for good measure. Heath opened with a double, his third hit of the game, went to third when Albert grounded to Stoeven, and scored on Burkett's "blooper" single back of Monroe. Funk's double in the fourth had been the last of Mr. Flynn, and one "Gil" Gillick was sent to the mound. Mr. Gillick bore considerable resemblance to Cano, in that he was big, heavy and a right-hander, but he proceeded to pitch several kinds of better ball than Cano had offered. Mr. Gillick is the young man who had forgotten to duck a couple of days ago on a throw from second to home on a double steal, and was hit on the wrist, forcing his retirement. There was nothing wrong with his wrist, for with the exception of the fifth, he was never even close to trouble.

MARTY YANKED

That 9-5 lead looked very comfortable, and even when Monroe hit a homer into the center-field bleachers to score Backer ahead of him in the sixth, nobody worried much. Marty didn't give the Sacs a hit in the seventh or eighth, but he started to wobble in the ninth.

Osborne walked, and was forced at second by Koehler. Harris was sent in to run for Koehler, and advanced to third on walks to Rohwer and Hoag. That was enough for Les Cook, who was officiating in the absence of the too-vociferous Mr. Vitt, and Kinney was sent to the rescue. It was then that Stoeven played the hero role, with the count two and two, socking the ball into deep left-center, just out of Carlyle's reach for the double that won the ball game. Gillick fanned, and Backer grounded to Burkett, ending the scoring.

Severeid, first up for Hollywood, singled, but Maloney, who went in to run for him, died there while Carlyle lofted to Rohwer, who made a running catch in left; Heath fouled to Osborne, who plucked the ball out of the ozone not a foot from the field box seats; and Albert grounded to Monroe.

Elias Funk failed to get his fourth homer in as many days, and had to be content with a double in three official chances. Mickey Heath banged out a homer and two doubles in five attempts. Johnny Monroe continued his fleecy hitting with a homer and two singles in four tries, making it ten safe blows for the series to date—an average of .438. Hank Severeid collected three singles in four opportunities.

"Red" Albert turned in a pair of sensational catches in the fifth. He raced clear to the foul line, and made a one-handed, diving catch of Rohwer's long line, that was labeled "double," and after Hoag had popped to Heath, he raced back to the screen, and took Stoeven's vicious drive over his shoulder. The fans gave him a great ovation for the two sparkling exhibitions.

The Solons still have a battling chance to win the series, as the Stars must win two more tilts to take six out of the ten contests. Bill Lane announced yesterday that Monday's double-header would be played entirely in the afternoon, and would not be split with lunch between. Yesterday's box score:

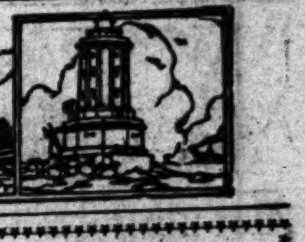
SHIPPING NEWS AND ACTIVITIES AT LOS ANGELES HARBOR



LUCKENBACH IN NEW EXPANSION

Coast Chief Announces Plan for Bettering Service

Subsidiary Line to Operate to Gulf Harbors

First Eastbound Sailing Set for September 6

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Perfection of a new Luckenbach offshoot, to be known as the Luckenbach Gulf Steamship Company, Inc., and designed at building up trade intercourse between the Pacific Coast and the vast area of the Mississippi Valley, through rail co-operation, was announced yesterday by H. C. Ewing, district manager of the Luckenbach Steamship Company, Inc., operators of a big, fast intercoastal fleet.

The Luckenbach Gulf Line will begin operating in the Gulf service effective with the sailing of the Edgar F. Luckenbach from here September 6 eastbound, and with the arrival of the Florence Luckenbach westbound September 23. The new line will be represented on all Pacific ports by the Luckenbach Steamship Company, Inc., as agents.

The purpose of the new service, as Ewing explained it, is "to check in joint through rates in connection with the rail lines serving the Gulf." That means through bills of lading, with their obvious advantages, will be issued on freight by the line in common with rail lines as far as Chicago. Several railway lines are reported to figure in the arrangement.

The service will be on a fortnightly schedule, maintained probably by six ships. Lewis Luckenbach, vice-president and general manager of the Luckenbach Steamship Company, is president of the new Luckenbach Gulf Steamship Company, Inc.

HUGE EGG SHIPMENT GOING OUT ON LINER

Oranges and orange growers, eggs and humorists, and bankers, steel barons, cotton and honey—all will go out in the Panama-Pacific electric liner California for New York Monday.

The liner will arrive from San Francisco tomorrow and when she departs will have aboard 310 passengers in first cabin and 300 in tourists.

Among them will be fifty-three members of the Beethoven-Maenner-Chor, a German-American musical society of New York, who have been touring the continent, winding up their entertainment with a four-day program in Los Angeles.

Also embarking will be W. H. Workman, president of the Los Angeles Morris Plan Bank; Leo Meeker, president of the First National Bank of Beverly Hills, bound for Havana, Miami and back by motor; G. W. Saurett of Consolidated Steel Company, and Capt. Irving O'Hay, picturesque soldier of fortune and humorist.

As to the potential omelet, it comprises 1,620,000 Petaluma eggs, largest shipment from this coast over this route. Statisticians figure that if the 1000 passengers and members of the ship's crew each were to eat an egg daily, it would take them four years to consume the cargo. Made into an omelet, they would cover more than an acre. Or, to continue the absurdity, if left to ripen the hen fruit would deodorize the most violent fish reduction plant. But they won't. All will be kept at a uniform temperature of 42 deg. over the 5500-mile voyage, and issue forth at New York as fresh as when they embarked on the journey.

Incidentally the ship also will carry 15,000 boxes of oranges in her refrigerated holds, to say nothing of about 8000 tons of other valuable California merchandise.

Seven thousand tons of Los Angeles cargo, the second largest amount ever taken out of here by a general cargo carrier, will go out aboard the Norwegian motorship Gisla tomorrow, bound for Budge Budge, India.

It is an 8350-mile journey out, and to a port declared destined to become a familiar term in Los Angeles development of her overseas shipping.

In addition to general merchandise she will have aboard 135,000 cases of refined petroleum and 5500 drums of lubricating oil, all from the plant of the Richfield Oil Company. McCormick Steamship Company is acting as agent.

The Munami, commanded by Capt. Gus Illis, which rushed to the aid of the San Juan in the collision off Pigeon Point night before last, and rescued ten of the sunken ship's personnel, is due in Los Angeles Harbor at 3 p.m. today, bound for the Atlantic Coast. The survivors were transferred by the Munami early yesterday morning to the Coast Guard cutter Shawnee, which proceeded to San Francisco.

Four hundred and thirty-five passengers disembarked from the Lassco flagship City of Los Angeles, in from Hawaii early yesterday. Outbound at noon today, the Lassco liner Calawaii will take 120 travelers, including Mrs. Myra Nye, writer for The Times, and daughter; William R. Garrett, municipal jurist of Santa Monica, and several officers of the Navy, transferred to Hawaiian station.

Ray McIntyre and Frankie Murray boxed six rounds to a draw in the semi-wind-up. At least that's what Referee Joe Rivers called it. Ringsiders gave McIntyre a slight edge.

Frankie Boldt outpointed Willie Fausto to win the six-round special event. Boldt took the first four rounds, the fifth was even with Fausto rallying to take the last session. Happy Romero took the nod over Bert Wagner in four rounds. Both battlers were on the floor during the scrap. Paul Drake beat Pancho Villa in the curtain-raiser. Villa substituted for Jimmy Kelly.

CORBETT FINISHES UP LAWLESS IN FIRST

CARDOZA KNOCKS OUT BARBOUR AT VENTURA

Joe Cardoza, the Culver City Wildman, knocked out Red Barbour in the sixth round in the main event at the Ventura arena last night. Barbour was fouled in the second round but took a short rest and continued the battle. Ted Sluter won on a technical kayo over Dewey Massey in the fifth round of the semi-wind-up. Massey was thrown out for stalling. Bob Edwards took a decision over Bud Baker in the special event.

FILM BUSINESS ADVANCES PACE

Consolidated Industries, Inc., Gross Volume Large

Hollywood Unit Gains from Talking Pictures

Profits for First Half-Year Show Sharp Increase

Reflecting the marked activity in the motion-picture industry that has followed the innovation of the talking pictures, Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., is handling a substantially increased volume of business this year and its Hollywood plants in the next two months are scheduled to register the largest monthly output records in the history of the company, Benjamin Goetz, vice-president in charge of the Hollywood division, said yesterday.

The daily footage is greatly in excess of that of last year as the larger producers are using from four to six cameras on a set for the talking pictures where formerly two cameras were used for the silent films. In this connection officials of the company pointed out that the development of the sound track negatives increased the total from 30 to 50 per cent over the amount involved in the former silent versions.

A new method for coating film to increase its life is being used by the company which controls both the formula and machinery for the process that is regarded as particularly desirable for the preservation of the Movietone films. With other special machinery and equipment, the company has also met the numerous technical problems that arose with the development of the talking films.

The company, which operates the world's largest film printing laboratories, has six plants, two in New York City, two in Hollywood and one each in Long Island City and Fort Lee, N. J. The Hollywood plants do developing and printing for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, United Artists, Columbia, Radio-Keith-Orpheum, First National, Tiffany-Stahl and a number of independents.

For the first six months of 1929, the company reported net income of $1,158,566, equal to $1.66 a share on 300,000 participating preferred and 400,000 common shares as compared with $701,376, or $1 a share on the combined preferred and common shares in the corresponding period of 1928, a gain of more than 63 per cent.

Net income for the second quarter was $581,713, equal to 83 cents a share on the combined preferred and common shares as against $576,853, or 82 cents a share in the preceding quarter and against $350,031 in the comparative 1928 quarter. June net profits totaled $204,473 after all charges and Federal tax as compared with $132,689 in the same month of the previous year.

Gains Noted in Trade Survey of New York Bank

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) Sales of both wholesale and retail concerns in the New York Federal Reserve district registered gains in July, compared with a year ago, according to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

"The July sales of the reporting department stores in this district showed about a 4 per cent increase from a year ago," says the bank in its September 1 monthly review of credit and business conditions.

"But as there was one more selling day in July of this year the average daily rate of sales showed little change from that of July, 1928. Sales in all lines of chain stores business compared more favorably with those of last year in July than in June. Grocery organizations reported the largest increase in more than a year and drug chains reported the largest increase since the autumn of 1926. Following decreases in each of the previous three months the sales of candy chains showed a 2 per cent increase a year ago in July."

LOCAL STUDENT WINS BANKING HOUSE JOB

HARVARD HONOR GRADUATE TAKES OFFER FROM GOLDMAN, SACHS & CO.

Ewing W. Reilley, former Los Angeles High School student and graduate of Yale University and Harvard business school, will go to New York next Monday to take a position with Goldman, Sachs & Co., investment bankers.

Mr. Reilley graduated from the Harvard business school this year as the ranking student of his class. His grades for the second year's work were the highest anyone in the school has ever received. In line with the established policy of Goldman, Sachs & Co. to select the honor students of each year's graduating class, Mr. Reilley was chosen. He is the only student to be taken by them this year.

Miles Cruickshank of Santa Ana, who graduated from Stanford in 1926 and Harvard business school in 1928, is also with Goldman, Sachs & Co., having been selected last year.

BALDWIN OPERATING SCHEDULE REPORTED

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Baldwin Locomotive Works will start September with a production capacity of 35 per cent as has been in operation for the past two months. Orders on hand total $16,000,000, making a total of $23,000,000 booked since January 1, last. Business on the books assures the company production at the present rate until the end of the year.

ATCHISON CROP DATA CHEERING

Santa Fe Forecasts Net to Farmers Larger Than Last Year

Although total production will be less, higher prices will bring the farming industry in the territory served by the Santa Fe Railway more money in 1929 than in 1928, according to the company's September 1 crop report just released. Increased yields of cotton and a few other crops are expected but as a whole production has been reduced by unfavorable weather. Sheep prices for the first half of the year were off a little but cattle prices have held up fairly well and hogs are bringing more than at any time since the war.

In spite of unseasonable weather during the first six months of this year, California farmers reached the harvest period with a prospect that the price range for the major commodities will be well above normal. Good weather in July and August made an improvement in crops generally. However, with a few exceptions crops are in smaller yield than last year and in many cases production will be the lowest in five years, but it is expected that the total return for the State agricultural production will be equal to that of 1928 because of a favorable price situation. Cotton and walnuts promise a better return than last year.

Navel oranges now are estimated at 58 per cent of normal and Valencias at 60 per cent, compared with 70 per cent for both a month ago and 93 per cent in 1928. Raisin production is forecast at 28 per cent under the 1928 crop; table grape, 24 per cent under, and wine grape, 15 per cent under. The deciduous fruit harvest is well along with low yields of high quality.

The live-stock industry has been affected by a shortage of water in many localities. Pastures generally are poor. California now has approximately a million acres of alfalfa which gives the state the lead in alfalfa acreage and a further increase is expected as farmers feel that this crop generally is a good money maker.

Mail Merchant Merger Looms

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) Rumors of a consolidation of the Montgomery Ward Company and the Hartman Corporation gained momentum here today as from unofficial sources it was stated that the merger had been practically agreed upon.

It is believed, according to one report, that one share of Montgomery Ward common would be exchanged for each three shares of Hartman Class "B" stock while some sources rumored that the merger would be on a cash basis, Hartman "B" stock receiving $45 a share. Hartman Class "A" which is callable at $30 a share, will receive special consideration, it was stated.

NEW HOME LEASED BY BUILDING-LOAN

Mutual Building and Loan Association of Hollywood has signed a ten-year lease on the building at Wilshire and La Brea, recently vacated by the Security-First National Bank, which will be opened as the Wilshire headquarters of the institution, President Harry E. Jones announced yesterday. Extensive alterations are under way and the building will be ready for occupancy within thirty days. Mutual of Hollywood and affiliated associations have resources of more than $32,000,000. It is in the United States Guaranty Corporation group of which Gilbert H. Beesemyer is executive head.

EXCHANGE ADVISED

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) The committee on securities of the New York Stock Exchange today called attention of members that the old $50 par stock of United Gas Improvement Company should be exchanged at once for new common and preferred in order to prepare for future settlement of "when issued" contracts. Certificates should be sent to J. P. Morgan & Co. for transmittal to Philadelphia.

NEW BANK FIGHT SLATED

Reopening of Branch Question Expected at Coming Meeting of Bankers in San Francisco

BY EARLE E. CROWE

From the tenor of current gossip among bankers California again will be the battle ground of the forces for and against branch banking. Preconvention reports indicate that the coming meeting in San Francisco of the American Bankers' Association will reopen the contentious branch-bank question that enlivened the sessions of the historic convention of the bankers in Los Angeles three years ago.

This time, however, the question before the bankers will be expansion, not curtailment. The Los Angeles convention was concerned with ways and means to check the spread of branch banking. At San Francisco the debates will likely center around plans for extending the branch systems, whether nation-wide, regional, or throughout Federal reserve districts.

PROPOSAL EXPECTED

Most bankers seem to agree that the San Francisco convention will be asked to approve proposed legislation for the extension of branch banking. Comptroller of the Currency J. W. Pole, who will address the convention, is expected to set forth some kind of a program of this nature, and ask the American Bankers' Association to lend its approval and support. The comptroller has already intimated that he will introduce branch bank legislation in the coming session of Congress.

Influential interests, it is believed, will be prepared to push an aggressive campaign for the indorsement by the association of nation-wide branch banking. This program will be opposed by those who favor going more slowly at this time, probably confining expansion to Federal reserve districts, or lifting the ban on Statewide activities. The independent or unit bankers are expected to offer stubborn opposition to any change in the National Bank Act that would encourage more branches.

GROUNDWORK LAID

Transamerica Corporation, controlled by the Giannini interests; the National City Bank of New York, the Chase National Bank, and the Goldman Sachs group are popularly credited with plans for nation-wide branch systems if the law is so amended. The National City Company, comprising a coast-to-coast system of investment offices, is supposed to represent the ground work for the National City plan, and the Chase Securities Corporation is reported to have purchased interests in a number of scattered banks for the account of the Chase National.

The Goldman-Sachs group controls banks in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco, and is expected to establish a connection in Los Angeles. Lately it has been reported that offers have been made to the Citizens National Bank, but this report has been denied from both parties. Other banking groups are also supposed to have manifested an interest in acquiring control of the Citizens, but the action of the stock yesterday indicated that these efforts have been abandoned.

Whether branch banking should be permitted in those States now having laws against it, or whether proposed expansion of the practice should be restricted to the States in which it is now legalized is a question that will probably come before the convention. This subject alone offers some interesting possibilities for controversial debate.

Irregular Tone on London Mart

LONDON, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—The market moved irregularly with trading on a small scale. Columbia Graphophone was easier on profit-taking sales following publication of earnings report. H. M. V. Gramophone was also lower. Shares of securities of international interest were less active. Margarine issues were in supply, while artificial silk, textiles and tobaccos were quiet. The oil group was in fair demand and the mining list had a firm tone, with Kaffirs and Rhodesian issues in good demand. Hydro-electric and International Holding issues were steady and rubber list held firm. Ford, Ltd., held around £3 7-8 and Brazilian Traction ordinary at 73 1-4.

Gilt-edge division was easier and the foreign issues quiet, home rails easier and Argentine rails dull.

Pineapple Stock Dividend Pends

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Directors of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company, Ltd., meeting in Honolulu, have recommended to stockholders the declaration of a 20 per cent stock dividend payable January 1 to stockholders of record November 15, it was announced here today.

A special stockholders' meeting has been called for October 11 to act on this recommendation. The directors have declared their intention to continue the present dividend of $2 a share per annum on the new capitalization.

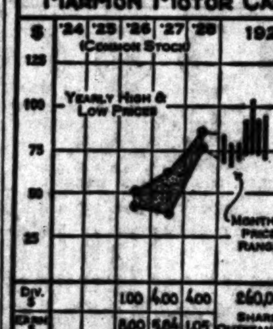
WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK

MARMON MOTOR CAR COMPANY

This company was originally engaged in the manufacture of flour-making machinery, but by 1926 its supplemental manufacture of high-grade motor cars had reached full popularity, and the flour-machinery business was sold to the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company in order to utilize the entire plant for automobile operations. At present the company specializes in straight eight cars selling from $1000 to $2000.

Net earnings for the quarter ended May 31, 1929, amounted to $1,238,637,) equal, after preferred dividends, to $4.70 per share on the common stock. This statement marks a reversal in the trend which had been downward since 1926. Net earnings for the year ended February 28, 1929, were $1,271,665, only a slight amount in excess of the following quarter.



As of February 28, 1929, current assets were $8,293,990, as compared with current liabilities of $3,229,110.

Capitalization: Funded debt, $250,000; preferred stock (7 per cent cumulative preferred,) $1,000,000; common stock (no par,) $260,000 shares.

Current data: July 3, President Williams was reported to have said that the company's shipments in June were 104.5 per cent over those in June, 1928.

Socony Reduces New York City Gasoline Prices

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—Tank wagon and service-station prices of gasoline in the metropolitan district were reduced 3 cents a gallon today by the Standard Oil Company of New York. The reduction, it was announced, was made to meet competitive conditions and to bring its quotations in line with those of other companies.

At the same time the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey announced a reduction of ½ cent a gallon on its tank-car price of high-grade motor gasoline, making the new price 9 cents a gallon, F.O.B. Bayonne refinery.

The new prices on the Standard of New York's gasoline are 14 cents a gallon in tank wagons and 16 cents at service stations, both excluding the 2-cents-per-gallon State tax.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) Sinclair Refining Company and Warner-Quinlan Company, effective this morning, have reduced service-station prices of gasoline 3 and 2 cents, respectively, in the greater New York territory following the action taken by Standard Oil of New York. Sinclair Refining Company cut its tank-wagon prices by 1 cent.

OLD UNION PACIFIC RUMOR REVIVED

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) The recent rise in Union Pacific caused renewed talk today of the plan which has been rumored that it would form an investment company into which to vest its holdings of securities. The story is an old one and it comes up from time to time. Apparently the rise in Union Pacific stock has served to renew the rumor at this time, however, it was pointed out that the rise in all securities has made the present a good time for any company to segregate its securities holdings.

FOOD MACHINE TO CUT MELON

Former John Bean Company Makes Announcement

Stock Dividend and Rights Declared by Board

Basis of Distribution Set at One to Six Shares

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) — Declaration of a stock dividend of 2 per cent payable to stockholders of record September -0, and rights to stockholders of that same date to subscribe to new common stock in ratio of one new share of each six then held, at $40, was announced tonight by Food Machinery Corporation, formerly the John Bean Manufacturing Company, following a meeting of the directors.

According to President J. D. Crummey the dividend was declared in order to allow the stockholders to receive a partial return of the company's earnings in addition to the regular cash dividend. These earnings for the ten months of the present fiscal year, on the stock now outstanding, are announced as in excess of $5 per share on the common, after deducting interest on debentures, preferred stock dividends and provision for income tax.

ACTION EXPLAINED

The rights are issued, Crummey said for the reason that the directors believe it advisable to increase the amount of working capital in use in the business. Such increase can be used to advantage, he continued, in connection with the marked increase in volume of sales and the resultant expansion program which has been authorized for the enlargement of plant facilities at San Jose and at Lansing, Mich.

Promise of further interesting news for holders of the stock is contained in the concluding paragraph of President Crummey's letter, which states:

"We are at present considering the possibility of the enlargement of the sphere of activities of the company on a basis which should substantially increase the volume of sales for our affiliated companies for the current year."

MELON VALUABLE

At the present market of 87, which, by the way, represents a new all-time high for the stock, stockholders receiving the rights privilege will have the equivalent of an extra dividend disbursement of approximately $2.42 per share. In addition, the stock dividend disbursement is equal to $1.14 per share. As the regular cash dividend rate has been $1.50 per year on the common stock, these extras added represent a total dividend disbursement for the current year of $5.06 per share. On this basis stockholders will be receiving a yield of 8.8 per cent on their stock. Equally as interesting, is the fact that this company, through the consolidations it has effected during the past year, has grown from a $1,500,000 corporation to one with total assets of over $8,000,000.

Pathe Exchange Turns Losses Into Profits

Pathe Exchange, Inc., for the first two quarterly periods of 1929, being the twenty-eight weeks ending July 13, yesterday reported net profits of $524,336.65, as against a net loss of $350,050.96 for the comparative period of 1928.

The profit shown is after all charges, including provision for depreciation, interest and amortization of discount, etc., had been deducted. Gross sales and film rentals for the first two quarters of 1929 amounted to $10,113,055.62, as compared with $8,374,541.50 for the same period of 1928.

Operating income for the two quarters was $550,626.71, in comparison with a loss of $226,874.94 in the corresponding period of 1928.

Improvement Bonds Awarded

Municipal improvement bonds totaling $280,000 were sold yesterday by the City Council to investment banking houses. Angelus Security Company was the purchaser of $140,000 Devonshire-street improvement 6 per cent bonds, paying a premium of $421, while Wheelock & Co. was awarded $100,000 Reseda Park 5 3-4 per cent bonds for a premium of $105.

Elliott-Horne Co. bought a $40,000 issue for the purchase of a site for the branch City Hall at Van Nuys. The bonds carry a 6 per cent coupon, and were awarded on a premium of $1.

Calls Present Market "Strong-Arm Proposition to Nth Degree" Due to Pool Activities

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—When I asked a Wall-street broker, a heavy dealer in stocks, his opinion of the present market, he replied as follows: "This market is a strong-arm proposition to the nth degree."

Then he went on to explain that the development of specialty buying which started months ago has continued. That of the 1200 listed stocks on the big board, only a few are active. Many of them are unknown to the public. That when a stock is decided upon to be pushed, pools, that would stagger in strength the old operators, start work and before long—presto—the price rises in a sky-rocketing manner. That is why on dull days recently, some stocks have gone up 10 to 15 points.

It is not due to the fact that that particular stock is worth 15 points more than it was the day before. It merely means that some operators are driving it up.

Should a stock sell for ten, twelve, or fifteen, or twenty times its value?

Many meritorius stocks are selling at ten to fifteen times their value now. Others, with pool drive and steam behind them have been pushed up to twenty, thirty, forty, fifty times their earnings. Some stocks even more.

So, when a small investor enters such a market, he must be a wise man indeed to know if, in the final washout, he is to be joyful winner or a sad loser. United States is filled with both classes.

When former Governor Al Smith of New York announced that he had started business as the head of a corporation which will build the highest building in the world on the site of the old Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York, he centered the eyes of the nation again on the great sums of money now being spent for modern skyscrapers.

For this new Empire State Building, as it will be called, will cost, including the $16,000,000 paid for the site, more than $60,000,000.

It will occupy just two acres of ground with 200 feet on Fifth avenue and 425 feet on Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets.

To Governor Smith will be given the task of supervising the construction of the building—also its management.

Many people, who have passed the famous old Waldorf-Astoria, closed and dark during recent months, have wondered what would take its place. This announcement has solved that problem.

The men associated with the former Democratic candidate for President, in this venture are Louis G. Kaufman, president of the Chatham-Phoenix National Bank and Trust Company; Ellis P. Earle, president of the Nipissing Mines Company; Pierce S. Du Pont of Delaware, John J. Raskob, Col. Michael S. Friedsam and August Heckscher, well-known philanthropist and real-estate operator.

The building will be nearly 1000 feet high—almost five city blocks. It begins to set back its stories after the fifteenth.

Real-estate men and builders will be interested in some of the figures connected with the building. It will contain 34,000,000 cubic feet of space and 3,000,000 square feet of floor space.

It will be only two blocks from the Pennsylvania station and nine blocks from the Grand Central, a block from the Hudson-Manhattan tubes, and two blocks on either side of the interurban subways.

And it will be able to house at one time more than 80,000 persons —equal to the population of such prosperous American cities as Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Pasadena, Cal., or Springfield, Ill.!

But it doesn't help to solve New York's congestion problem.

Trade Review Strikes Note of Optimism

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

With the virtual ending of the summer there comes to a close what has been in various respects a distinctive period in business. Not only has relative vigor in trade prevailed, broadly viewed, but some of the more important lines have maintained a degree of activity that would be conspicuous even at other times.

The situation, therefore, has been unique in that the traditional seasonal slackening has been decidedly less pronounced than usual, and this is considered an indication of the trend toward narrower swings of the commercial pendulum. Such a phase has become increasingly evident during the last two years and it is regarded as a reflection of changed methods of operation, with a more rapid turnover at smaller margins of profit on individual commitments. The earnings of numerous corporations have given concrete proof of the large volume of transactions, for many commodity prices have ruled comparatively low and there is no definite sign now of a general advance.

Weekly bank clearings, $11,525,935,000, an increase of 29.3 per cent over a year ago.

CYANAMID NET UP

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) American Cyanamid Company reported today a consolidated net income for the year closed June 30, of $2,328,928, after all charges, including taxes, against $1,547,589 in the preceding fiscal year.

WOOL SALE VOLUME IN WEEK FAIR

Market Review Reports Prices Well Maintained and Favoring Seller

BOSTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

Demand for wool this week has been fairly good, especially in view of the fact that this has been the last week of August. Prices have been well maintained through the list and the market is still in favor of the seller.

The goods markets are all reported healthy and the openings of fancy worsteds and woolens by many of the mills have been well received in all branches of the trade and have been encouraging, especially as stabilization of the market seems even better assured.

Western operations have been negligible.

Foreign markets are dull and weak and disposed to wait the opening of the new season in Australia next week at Adelaide.

Mohair is still rather slow but nominally steady.

The rail and water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1929 to August 29, 1929 inclusive, were 117,488,700 pounds against 106,077,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1929 to August 29, 1929 inclusive were 239,107,485 pounds against 256,027,900 pounds for the same period last year."

Scoured basis: Texas—Fine twelve months (selected,) 92@94; fine short twelve months, 88@90; fine eight months, 86@88. California — Northern, 85@87; Middle county, 83@85; southern, 73@78. Stock Exchange Seats Bought by Elliott-Horne

Purchase of memberships on the Los Angeles Stock and Curb exchanges by Elliott-Horne Company, investment banking house, was announced yesterday by officials of the exchange. The Stock Exchange seat was purchased from E. H. Newland and the Curb seat from Henry Friedman.

Transfer of the Stock Exchange membership was arranged at $138,600 net to the buyer, according to the announcement. The purchase price of the Curb seat was not announced.

Mr. Newland, whose seat on the Stock Exchange was acquired by Elliott-Horne Company, has been in the brokerage business for thirty years and has been a member of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange for twenty years. He was admitted to membership on September 1, 1909. He ranked among the first seven in seniority on the exchange.

Having retained his membership on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange, Mr. Newland will continue in the brokerage business.

New Chief for Paper Company

Election of Harold L. Zellerbach as president of the Zellerbach Paper Company to succeed Isadore Zellerbach who is retiring from the presidency to accept the chairmanship of the board of directors, was announced yesterday.

Harold Zellerbach is the son of Isadore Zellerbach and has for a number of years been vice-president of the company.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—The cotton market showed increasing strength and activity today owing to continued bullish crop advices and the failure of the weather map to show any relief from droughty conditions in the Southwest. A private report making the condition of the crop 57.3 against 58.9 last month no doubt contributed to the advance which sent prices well above the 19-cent mark for October contracts.

The buying then tapered off somewhat, and the midafternoon market was quieter at moderate reactions but still showed net gains of about 14 to 17 points.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—The listed bond market today developed considerable irregularity, the convertibles opened strong and held their gains until late in the afternoon, when they encountered profit-taking, with several of the leaders finishing behind minus signs. Sales were slightly under $10,000,000 par value.

Money was unchanged and the increase in brokers' loans to a record total was practically ignored. Most quarters believed the agreement reached at the Hague conference offset the effect of the loan figures.

The rails, which climbed to record price levels yesterday, sold off today at the close after ruling strong most of the day. Atchison convertible 4½s established a new peak at 165, but closed at 163 for a net loss of a point. St. Paul adjustment 5s came within a fraction of their record price but finished with a small loss. The New Haven issues were nearly all strong. New Haven convertible 6s rose 1½ points to 136 within a point of their top price.

The Seaboard adjustment 5s and 5s certificates both broke through to new highs in the afternoon, but wound up behind minus signs.

The telephone convertibles were turned over in fairly heavy volume, and at rising prices. American Telephone 4½s got up to 221 and finished at 220½ for a net gain of 3⅝ points.

The investment sections of the list were inclined to heaviness, and the United States government obligations were highly irregular on a small turnover.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says:

Sheet steel consumption is improving in the East. Some mills report an increase in bookings and certain large producing interests are sold from four to six weeks. Considerable business has been turned down because of inability to ship as quickly as required. Steel wire products are moving to the manufacturing trade at a good rate, but the demand from retailers and jobbers has tapered off considerably. Some shrinkage in automotive requirements is reported although the industry still is taking a large tonnage.

BULL FACTION IN MARKET SADDLE

Foreign Power, and would segregate its domestic holdings into a new company. American Power and Light, another Bond and Share company, mounted about 10 points.

The latest upturn in Stone and Webster carried it above 200, making an appreciation of 100 per cent since the stock was first offered to the public only about ten weeks ago. Stone and Webster is understood to have large holdings in Pacific Coast power companies, in which merger developments are understood to be pending.

MOTORS NEGLECTED

Motor shares generally failed to participate in the movement, owing to keen competition and uncertainty as to fall sales, but Auburn, in which the floating supply is said to be low, jumped 13 points to a record price of 500. Allied Chemical, American Bank Note, Continental Insurance, Fidelity Phenix Fire Insurance, Continental Can, Fleischmann, General American Tank, International Telephone, Macy, Simmons, and United States Freight were among issues selling up about 3 to 8 points to new highs. United States Steel, Johns Manville, National Biscuit, Westinghouse Electric and Montgomery Ward were other stocks making wide gains.

Pere Marquette, a high flyer yesterday, slipped back 6 points in realizing, and Commercial Solvents and Ingersoll Rand lost 4 and 5 points. Some of the leading oils sagged a point or so. Indian Motorcycle dropped to a new low at 13½.

Commodities were steady. Wheat advanced nearly a cent on rumors of frost in Argentina and good foreign demand and corn was firm on unfavorable weather. Cotton futures closed 65 cents to $1.20 a bale higher on further reports of crop deterioration.

Foreign exchanges were easy, sterling cables sagging to $4.84 23-32, the lowest since May. At this season the export movement of grain and cotton normally depresses sterling.

DEBENTURES CALLED

Potato-Merger Plans Brewing in Middle West

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Plans have just been completed for the consolidation of the business and properties of Albert Miller & Co., of Chicago, Albert Miller of Grand Rapids, Mich., and the A. M. Penny Company of Waupaca, Wis., with assets aggregating $800,000. The three firms are among the pioneers in the purchase, warehousing and distribution of potatoes throughout the Middle West. Over 350 warehouses will be owned and operated in Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming and Idaho, with a volume of over 15,000 carloads of potatoes annually. The firms also finance and successfully market the output of numerous farmers' companies at country points.

This is the first consolidation of any nature to take place in this business. The company intends to expand its volume further in the near future. Albert Miller & Co., has for a long period of time been the largest exclusive handlers of potatoes in the United States.

E. Percy Miller, who served under President Hoover in the food administration, will be president of the consolidated concern which will operate under the name of Albert Miller & Co., with general offices in Chicago.

INSULL GROUP ADDS TO POWER HOLDINGS

RICHMOND (Va.) Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Anouncement of the sale of water-power holdings of Harpers Ferry Paper Company to the Insull interests of Chicago has been made. The Harpers' Ferry Company received $1,100,000 for its properties, which are located at Harpers Ferry at the junction of the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers.

FURNITURE LINK ADDED

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) Hartman Corporation will open its twenty-first chain furniture store in Rockford, Ill., tomorrow. Others were opened last week in Anderson and Kokomo, Ind. Several additional new stores will be in operation within next several weeks.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—Contrary to general expectations, bullish operations on the New York Curb Exchange were resumed with considerable vigor today despite the approach of the three-day holiday, and the sharp gain in brokers' loans to another new high record. While the advance was by no means uniform, and final quotations disclosed a rather long list of minus signs, several of the leaders were whirled up to new high records.

Electric Bond and Share was again in the foremost of the advance, soaring more than 8 points to a new high record at 184, or more than 100 points above the year's low, on a turnover of nearly 200,000 shares. Wall street heard that an important deal involving this company and its subsidiaries was pending but details were vague although it was generally believed that a further separation of its foreign and domestic holdings was imminent. American Light and Traction jumped 23 points, United Gas Improvement (old stock) 10½, and Allied Power and Light, Consolidated Gas of Baltimore, Electric Power and Light, Electric Power Associates, Standard Power and Light and New England Telephone sold 4 to 13 points higher. Profit-taking checked the advance in most of the natural gas stocks.

Packing stocks came to the fore, with Swift & Co., and Libby McNeil reaching new high ground for the year. Among the many other issues to sell at new peak prices were L'air Liquide, Standard Screw, F. G. Shattuck (new,) General Realty common and preferred, Cord Corporation and Starrett Company.

Aluminum Company of America, which broke sharply yesterday, rallied 13½ points. The new Blue Ridge Corporation stock sank to a new low level, but was still quoted a few points above the recent offering price.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (Exclusive)—Trading on the New York Rubber Exchange today was unusually active. At the opening a large number of overnight buying orders had a buoyant effect on prices of the active months. Turnover for the day's trading aggregated 378 contracts or 945 long tons. London spot closed at 10⅛d., off ⅛d. from Thursday's close.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Aug. 30. (AP)—Western grown 64s and finer domestic wools are fairly active. Business is scattered. Some of the top makers are not quoted as keen as they were a few weeks ago, while on the other hand worsted mills that recently were not very active, are now buying.

Original bag, territory and New Mexico wools are moving at steady prices. A fair quantity of Texas twelve months wool sold at 92 to 93 cents, scoured basis for the bulk.

Algiers House Collapse Takes Huge Life Toll

ALGIERS (Algeria) Aug. 30. (AP) Twenty-eight bodies have been recovered tonight from the ruins of an old house on the water front which collapsed today.

The total death list is likely to be more than fifty, most of the dead being Italian fishermen. Several women and children perished.

The collapse occurred so early that most of the occupants were in bed.

Utah Policemen Slay Suspect

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 30. (AP)—Two men were shot, one fatally here today in an attempt by police to arrest one of them.

Lloyd B. Taylor, 30 years of age, was killed by Patrolman U. L. Thorpe after Taylor is asserted to have escaped from another officer. A hotel clerk said Taylor attempted to force his way into the room of a woman.

Carl Livsey, 19, was wounded.

Poincare Again Ordered to Bed

PARIS, Aug. 30. (AP)—Former Premier Poincare today experienced what his doctors termed a "slight relapse" and was ordered to return to his bed, which he had left after a minor operation the 1st inst. In the face of the former Premier's condition, the second and major part of an operation which was to have been performed shortly must be postponed.

UTILITY MEN UPHOLD STATES' RIGHTS DOGMA

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK (Mont.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Determined to safeguard the State's present powers from Federal interference, the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners in annual convention here was on record today opposed to creation of any new Federal agencies interfering with the regulatory powers of the State in fields where the State now operates regularly. A resolution to that effect adopted condemned the Couzens bill to set up a new Federal regulatory body. The association also urged that Congress refrain from interference with power of States to regulate local service utilities.

SCHOOLS TO LOSE FUNDS BY RULING

Attorney-General Decides Rural Supervision Sums Not Due Until 1930

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 30. (AP)—Vierling Kersey, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, declared today that the counties' rural supervision funds will lose the total of $233,800 under the recent ruling of Atty.-Gen. Webb to the effect that legislation providing additional State and county moneys does not become effective until 1930.

The law enacted by the 1929 Legislature provided for an apportionment of $700 each by the State and counties for each 300 or a major part of 300 elementary school pupils in average daily attendance in each county outside of cities or districts having that number daily average attendance. The old law provided $700 each from the State and county funds for 500 or a major portion of that number.

Fresno county will be the heaviest loser, Kersey's department estimated, because it has a large number of districts with a considerable average daily attendance, but with less than 300 pupils each. Fresno county was estimated to lose fourteen apportionment units, or a total of $19,600.

Tulare county will lose eight units or $11,200, the department estimated. Los Angeles and Sonoma counties were rated third highest in the list of losses with seven units, or $9800 each, and Riverside, San Joaquin and Santa Clara counties fourth with six units, or $8400 each.

Kersey said that the amounts denied to rural schools supervision funds of the counties by the Attorney-General's ruling will not be entirely lost, but will be apportioned pro rata on average daily attendance. Since more than 73 per cent of all the State's average daily attendance is in cities or districts the cities will gain nearly $170,000. The bulk of this amount goes to the larger cities or districts, such as Los Angeles, $83,084; Alameda, $17,760; San Francisco, unestimated; San Diego, $6692 and San Bernardino, $5636.

Capt. Eaker Gets Another Try for Refueling Mark

CLEVELAND, Aug. 30. (AP)—Winning his argument for another try at a long-distance refueling flight Capt. Ira K. Eaker will take his Boeing plane Shuttle into the air at 6 a.m. tomorrow and fly to New York, there to prepare for a 25,000-mile refueling flight across the country.

The United States Army and the Postoffice Department sanctioned the second flight over the mail-plane route between New York and Oakland, Cal., after the plane was forced down at the municipal airport here Wednesday night through an error. The Shuttle was struck by a five-gallon can of oil as it was being transferred from a refueling plane. Oil spurted into the cockpit and Capt. Eaker descended, believing his oil line broken.

Drowned Girl Was Daughter of Film Player

CHICAGO, Aug. 30. (Exclusive) The body of a pretty, brown-haired girl taken from the lake on Thursday was identified tonight as that of Elizabeth Hopper, 22-year-old artist's model and daughter of a Hollywood film player, Frank Hopper.

The girl had attempted suicide with poison on New Year's Day, 1928, because of unrequited love, but recovered. At that time a letter was found in which she expressed regret for not heeding the advice of her father. Hopper had won notice by impersonating Theodore Roosevelt in the picture "Rough Riders."

Democratic Ban on Negro Vote in Primary Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) Aug. 30. (AP) The Democratic party of Arkansas violates no Constitutional or statutory provision of State or nation in barring negroes from primary elections, Chancellor Dodge has ruled here in dismissing for want of equity the suit filed in Pulaski chancery court last November by negroes who sought the privilege of voting in the Democratic primary.

Negroes are excluded from Democratic primaries by the rule that the Democratic party of Arkansas shall consist of eligible and legally qualified white electors only.

Plane Roars at 350 Mile Rate

CALSHOT (Eng.) Aug. 30. (AP)—Holiday-makers here had a thrill this morning when Flying Officer Atcherly took the supermarine S-6 for a practice spin. The Italian team here for the Schneider Cup contest watched from the top of Calshot Castle.

After Atcherly had flown in the direction of the Isle of Wight for twenty minutes he dived from a great height, flattened out and drove his seaplane screaming over the three-kilometer course with the throttle wide open at 350 miles an hour.

INVENTOR OF LUNDIN LIFEBOAT SUCCUMBS

NEW YORK, Aug. 30. (AP)—Capt. Andreas Petrus Lundin, inventor of the Lundin lifeboat with which many ocean liners and steamships are equipped, died of heart disease yesterday at his home in Flushing. He was 80 years of age. He leaves his widow, the former Martha Gottig, daughter of the late Lawrence Gottig, president of the German Savings and Loan Society of San Francisco, and two sons.

Los Rumanos Indignados por el Fallo de Galveston

BUCAREST, Agosto 30.—Los rumanos absolutamente no pueden comprender el gusto de los jueces que fallaron en el certamen de belleza de Galveston, y promovieron a Lisle Goldarbeiter de la categoría de Miss Austria a la de Miss Universe.

Tan desencantados se manifestaron los apuestos machos que se congregaron en la estación de Sinai, uno de los principales sitios de recreo del país, para aclamar a Miss Universe y a Magda Dimitrescu (Miss Rumania), que promovieron un verdadero motín cuando apareció ante su vista la espigada belleza austriaca.

Gritaron, rugieron y prorrumpieron en selectos insultos. Se vio obligada la señorita Goldarbeiter, bajo la egida de la señorita Dimitrescu, a ponerse en cobro en una iglesia que hay frente a la estación.

Cómo Estuvo el Choque del Submarino Español

SANTANDER (España), Agosto 30.—La tripulación del submarino español C-2, que arribó al puerto anoche, ha descrito hoy la forma en que dicho submarino, que patrullaba la vía de la regata de Santander a Plymouth, abordó y echó a pique la barca pescadora Geraldo Abascal. Llevaba ésta una tripulación de tres hombres, de los que uno pereció y dos fueron salvados por el submarino.

Los pescadores, debido a la obscuridad, tomaron el submarino por otro bote pesquero que andaba por allí cerca, y no tuvieron tiempo de virar. Quedó la barca partida en dos, y sus ocupantes fueron despedidos al mar. El submarino tuvo insignificantes desperfectos.

Muchacha de Kansas Estrangulada

KANSAS CITY, Agosto 30.—Con los signos claros de una brutal estrangulación, fue hallado aquí hoy el cadáver de la joven de 24 años, Ruth Laughlin, cerca de Cliff Drive, a una cuadra y media de distancia de un grupo de arbustos y plantas rastreras que ocultaban parcialmente el cuerpo de Paul Leslie Odell, empleado de ferrocarril de 19 años de edad, que recibió un balazo mortal en la cabeza.

La señorita Laughlin había sido fuertemente golpeada, y cree la policía que haya preferido perder la vida a ceder a su asaltante. Un agente de la oficina del forense declaró que no había sido violada la joven.

Ha sido vana la busca de un auto en que salió de su casa Odell, y en el cual fue visto más adelante en compañía de una joven.

Odell recibió el tiro en la parte posterior del cráneo. Encontróse su cadáver junto a los escalones que suben por los empinados cantiles que bordean el paseo.

Lindbergh Extrañamente Complaciente con los Fotógrafos

CLEVELAND, Agosto 30.—El coronel Charles A. Lindbergh se ha hecho amigo de los fotógrafos de prensa. Ayer, en las carreras aéreas nacionales, dejó turulatos a un numeroso grupo de ellos, que ocupaban una torre observatorio; pues, se tomó la molestia de atravesar todo el polvoriento aeródromo para preguntarle a un fotógrafo si quería tomar su retrato.

"Prometí prestarme a ello ayer; pero estuve tan ocupado que se me olvidó", exclamó Lindbergh. "Lo siento much, y si ustedes desean ponerse a la obra hoy, pueden hacerlo."

Cuando los chicos de las cámaras volvieron de su asombro, se echaron a cuestas sus aparatos, y tropezando unos con otros, bajaron a toda prisa la escala de la torre.

Diez del Elenco de "Bad Babies" Citados ante el Juzgado

En su recurso dilatorio, que será discutido la mañana de hoy, declara Clark que los hechos expuestos en la demanda interpuesta contra Jobyna Ralston, Elinor Flynn, Annette Westby, George Scarborough (el autor), Arthur Rankin, Norman Peck, Mervin Williams, Dario Shindell, Charles Bruins y Frank Jennings, no son suficientes para constituir un delito; que el juzgado no tiene jurisdicción en el asunto; que la demanda es vaga y describe de modo incierto el pretendido delito.

Los diez reos y Marjorie Montgomery, la chiquilla de la compañía, cuya causa fue turnada al Juzgado Juvenil, fueron aprehendidos al terminar, el miércoles por la noche, la representación de la pieza tachada de obscena. Todos salieron bajo fianzas de $500.

El juez municipal Bogue ha señalado el próximo miércoles para el segundo juicio contra Harvey G. Parry, George E. Wilson, Edward Welch y Samuel Cummings, acusados de haber golpeado a Harry Deck, actor de cine, domiciliado en el 1523 1-2 de la calle de Hoover Sur, por haberse rehusado éste a entrar en el sindicato llamado Actors' Equity Association.

El primer juicio se dio por terminado cuando no pudo ponerse de acuerdo el jurado para pronunciar veredicto en la sala del juez municipal Haas.

Canada Towns Threatened by Forest Fires

WINNIPEG (Man.) Aug. 30. (AP) Three Manitoba settlements were threatened with destruction today through fast approaching walls of fire.

Rennie, in the south; Barens River, in the northeast, and the little mining town of Flin Flon in the far north are the menaced settlements.

A new outbreak is reported on Black Island, a large island in Lake Winnipeg Narrows north of Winnipeg.

WARSHIPS AT ANCHOR IN HARBOR

Five Dreadnaughts Home for Six Months' Visit and Intensive Practice

Five dreadnaughts, comprising the nucleus of the battle fleet, dropped anchor at their home port at 2 p.m. yesterday after a summer's absence in the Northwest, here to stay for six months. They will be followed in a few weeks by several more of the kind, now reconditioning at Puget Sound.

No sooner had their hooks been dropped than gigs, barges and launches were over the side and liberal shore leave was under way. Families and friends thronged the navy landings at San Pedro and Long Beach to greet the men in uniform and the port cities took on a holiday semblance immediately.

Headed by the Maryland, temporary flagship of the battleship divisions, with Vice-Admiral L. A. Bostwick in command, the warships rounded the breakwater in column and moored in the sheltered harbor exactly at the appointed hour. Following the Maryland came the New Mexico, Colorado, Idaho and the Mississippi.

They will remain in port with liberal liberty, and material overhaul until September 9, next, when they will begin the seasonal training to carry on until they depart for the Atlantic Coast in February.

The arrivals will be joined soon by the dreadnaughts Tennessee, West Virginia and the flagship California, all overhauling or reconditioning in North Pacific yards.

Portes Gil Aide Takes Wife to Mayo Hospital

Senor Fernando Torreblanca, private secretary to President Portes Gil of Mexico, and son-in-law of former President Calles, departed with his wife, Senora Torreblanca, last night for Rochester, Minn., where the latter is to undergo treatment at Mayo Brothers' Hospital. The Torreblancas came here several weeks ago en route to Rochester, but the condition of Senora Torreblanca became such that it was deemed inadvisable at that time to make the journey.

The last month has been spent by the Mexican visitors at San Diego. The couple, with their children, arrived at the Biltmore Tuesday, but, because of his wife's illness, Senor Torreblanca declined to be interviewed.

Club Takes Trip to Yellowstone

Ready for a week's tour of Yellowstone National Park, members of the Los Angeles Transportation Club left here yesterday on a special train over the Union Pacific lines, for Salt Lake City.

Accompanied by their wives and families, the group representing traffic heads of the leading business concerns and transportation companies of the west coast made a party of more than 100. The party will return next week.

Charges Hurled of Scheme to Make "Goats"

"Political Ruin" of Ingram Declared Sought

An effort to hurry through to a conclusion the problem of prohibiting the sale of wine tonics in Los Angeles yesterday threw the Council into a heated discussion before the attempt met with failure by one vote.

The matter now is in the files of the Public Welfare Committee, Councilmen Ingram, chairman, Henning and Lewis. This committee conducted a public hearing Wednesday afternoon, with another scheduled for September 11. A feature of the hearing was the fact that Ingram called Rev. Bob Shuler before the committee, had him sworn, and took him to task concerning the pastor's radio statements, winding up by forcing the admission from Shuler that he didn't know whether Ingram ever drank intoxicants.

Yesterday Councilman Martin suddenly made a motion to withdraw the wine-tonic matter from the Public Welfare Committee and submit it to the Council as a committee of the whole. This was seconded by Councilman Holland.

STORM BREAKS

Immediately a storm of disapproval broke over the heads of Martin, Holland, Williams and Randall, the author of the original wine tonic resolution.

Ingram charges that a group in the Council, "with a superiority complex," is attempting to bring about his "political ruin" by a continual harassment.

"I am being hounded and belittled," he declared, "by an organized group because I wish to give both sides fair play on this wine-tonic question. I have been called 'wet' and have been the victim of political blackmail in an effort to force me to hurry through favorable treatment of this matter."

INGRAM DEFENDED

"This motion," Webster declared, "is unfair, because it is an attempt to hold up Ingram and the other members of the committee to scorn and ridicule, as a result of their trying to give all interests a hearing. I cannot see how any member of this Council can bring himself to introduce such a motion, or to second it, either. This is a part of a scheme, because we all know that Ingram, Lewis and Henning were placed on the Public Welfare Committee for the purpose of putting them 'on the spot' and injuring them politically.

"These committeemen are quite capable of handling this involved matter, and they should be given a free hand."

RANDALL ACCUSED

Lewis made the sensational charge that Randall has "lined up with the wets" by introducing his "ridiculous" resolution.

Henning contended that the Council, by voting to withdraw the file from the committee, was assuming that it now has all the information necessary on the affair.

Martin declared he had no ulterior motive in offering his motion, but contended the matter is of such far-reaching importance to the city that it should be discussed by the Council in full committee.

The vote was 7 to 6 in favor of withdrawing the file, but President Sanborn ruled that eight votes are required to do so.

DORAN VISITS PORTER

Dr James E. Doran, Federal prohibition director, yesterday visited Mayor Porter and discussed the wine-tonic situation with him at length. The wine tonics are made under government permit, according to prescribed formulae.

Mayor Porter said he told Dr. Doran that in his opinion the sale of wine tonic is a matter largely in the jurisdiction of the Federal government.

"I am not opposed to such an ordinance," said Mayor Porter, "which will prohibit sale of the tonics, but I realize that such a law will apply only to the city of Los Angeles, while the Federal authorities can control the matter all over the country."

Dr Doran congratulated the Mayor on the manner in which the police department is co-operating with Federal authorities in the suppression of the liquor traffic, Porter said.

NEW TAX RISE IN SIGHT

Prospects of Rate Being 16 Instead of 14 Cents Higher Than Last Year Looms for County

Possibility that the county tax rate will be 88 cents instead of 86 cents, as previously announced by Chairman McClellan of the Board of Supervisors, loomed yesterday, as the voluminous county budget for the coming fiscal year was given a last-minute check preparatory to final adoption today.

An item of $650,000 for beach parks was not included in the previous estimate, it was stated. As the real-estate valuation of the county is about $3,500,000, each cent of the tax rate will yield approximately $350,000, and the outlay for beach parks will require a 2-cent rise. This will make the increase over last year's county rate of 72 cents, 16 cents instead of 14.

One addition to the county budget which partly is responsible for the increased tax rate is the sum of $1,800,000 for purchases of Civic Center land, including the Tajo Building, the Law Building, the Broadway Hotel and a plot at the northwest corner of the intersection of First and Spring streets, which has been proposed as a site for the new State Office Building. Another new burden is an increase in the county pay roll amounting to nearly $2,000,000.

What is even more responsible for the raise in the rate, however, is the fact that the assessed valuation of county real estate did not increase as fast as expenses of county government, and the fact that the Legislature made changes in the methods of taxation, which reduced greatly the amount of personal property to be taxed and, therefore, made it necessary for the county to raise more money on what remains taxable.

WARRIOR AND FIANCEE RETURN

Gen. Moseley Here From Honolulu

Brig.-Gen. Moseley and Mrs. Florence Du Bois

BRIG.-GEN. GEORGE MOSELEY was a master in tactics overseas but aboard the Lassco liner City of Los Angeles yesterday he admitted capitulating to the little archery angel and brought forth Mrs. Florence Du Bois to confirm it.

Mrs. Du Bois is a young society woman of Englewood, N. J., whom the general has known long and favorably. It was at Honolulu rumors first emanated that the acquaintance was more than friendship, but it was only on their return on the liner yesterday that their engagement became a certainty.

When they will be married, the general said, has not been determined. She is proceeding to New York, while the general will go to Fort Bliss, Tex., where he has command of the First Cavalry Division of the Regular Army. He was on the staff of Gen. Pershing overseas, winning distinction and numerous decorations, and is regarded as unusually young to wear a star as his insignia.

TWO DEAD AS RESULT OF TRAFFIC

Another Woman Likely to Expire Due to Injuries in Auto-Trolley Wreck

Injuries suffered in traffic accidents resulted in the deaths yesterday of a man and woman while a third crash which occurred yesterday may cause the death of a second woman.

The dead were Mrs. Emma Zink, 59 years of age, of 2019 West Eighty-first street, and Glover Qualls, 30, of 842 East Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Zink was the second victim of a collision between an automobile and a Pacific Electric street car at La Brea avenue and Venice Boulevard the 12th inst. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rosella Zink, was killed instantly in the crash, according to police records. Mrs. Zink's death occurred at the Methodist Hospital. The body was removed to the County Morgue. No inquest will be conducted as an inquiry into the accident was held because of the younger woman's death.

Qualls was struck down in a pedestrian zone late Thursday by an automobile driven by Eddie Cuneo, 20 years of age, of 1267 East Fifty-third street, according to police. The accident occurred at Seventy-eighth street and Central avenue. Cuneo was arrested on suspicion of manslaughter. He stated that Qualls became confused in traffic and stepped back in front of his car.

In a collision between a street car and an automobile driven by Miss Edith Wolff, 24, private secretary, of 2019½ Second avenue, Miss Wolff suffered a possible broken back and her mother, Mrs. Bessie Wolff, painful cuts and bruises. The crash took place at Washington street and Kingsley Drive yesterday noon. Miss Wolff and her mother were given emergency treatment at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

CONGRESS DELEGATION DUE TODAY

House Subcommittee and Party to Leave Train at Glendale for Tour

With a busy three days ahead of them, members of the Subcommittee on Agricultural Appropriations of the House of Representatives and others in the party will arrive at the Southern Pacific station at Glendale at 8:30 a.m. today. The Congressional committee includes Representatives Dickinson of Iowa, Summers of Washington and Sandlin of Louisiana, with members of their families and Maj. R. Y. Stuart, Chief Forester of the United States.

The party will be met by members of a committee representing the State and national forestry departments and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. The reception committee is headed by George Cecil, former forester of Angeles Forest and now director of the Southern California Conservation Association.

After a trip through Los Angeles the party will leave for lunch at Henninger Flats on the Mount Wilson toll road. Later the trip calls for Mount Wilson summit, where the party will stay until Sunday. They then will leave for San Bernardino.

The visitors have just completed a tour of Yosemite National Park and other Federal reserves in the northern part of the State.

AIR LEADER GIVES BOOST TO VALLEY

Good Flying Conditions About Alhambra Field Praised to Developers

Excellent weather conditions, including practical freedom from fog, assure the continued expansion of the eastern section of Los Angeles county as an airport and aviation industrial center, members and directors of the San Gabriel Valley Development Association were told yesterday by Hal Shields, Western Air Express passenger traffic manager, during an inspection of the new Western Air Airport on Valley Boulevard, Alhambra.

Only once since the Western Air Express began operating from the Valley Boulevard field on July 10 have fog or other weather hazards delayed or interfered with the company's flying schedules, Shields said.

Representatives of the association, a civic body actively engaged in the development of the San Gabriel district, went through several of the trimotored Fokker planes used by Western Air on its Kansas City, Salt Lake and San Francisco runs and inspected the company's recently constructed hexagonal hangar, the only one of its kind yet built.

Directors and members of the association comprising the party included Frank Hayes, vice-president, El Monte; Myron J. Haig, executive secretary; Lance D. Smith, Puente; Elbert B. Griffith, Azusa; W. L. Haffeditz, Arcadia; C. D. Shoop, Puente; T. K. Boyer, Los Angeles; R. L. Wood, El Monte; J. L. Payne, Arcadia; Arthur Brittan, Temple; E. D. McSweeney, Rosemead; Orin J. Eberly, Arcadia, and C. W. McArthur, Sierra Madre.

Mayor Boosts Auto Locking

It follows that long line of proclamations to which the cities of America recently have become accustomed, namely, "Eat More Raisins Week," "Buy a Used Car Day," "Help the Poor Movie Magnates Night" and "Drink More Wine Tonic Season."

It is entitled "Lock Your Car Month."

The edict sets forth that unlocked automobiles on the streets play a major part in the crime wave, as bandits steal them for their operations. Therefore, Mayor Porter directs that September be known as "Lock Your Car Month."

Enforcement Head Declares Most People Do Right

Regulation of Grape Trade Pressing Problem

Prospects Better Than Ever Before, He Declares

"Most people want to do what is right, I have found, and for this reason I believe it is possible to put the grape industry in California on a stable basis and so direct it that it will not offend the laws of the country," said Dr. J. M. Doran, Commissioner of Prohibition for the United States, before a group of vineyardists and law-enforcement officers at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon yesterday.

"Believing," continued Dr. Doran, "that the only intelligent course to pursue in dealing with the grape situation, that is, the marketing, disposition and ultimate use of grapes, is to learn the facts at first hand, I have been in San Francisco for the past week obtaining as much information as possible and have reached the conclusion that the only way to bring greater order to this situation is expressed in that much-overworked word co-operation.

MUST WORK TOGETHER

"In a comparatively small section where 90 per cent of the grape production of the United States is concentrated, representing a capital investment of approximately $350,000,000, individuals can not get very far alone, nor can the government deal effectively with the individual. First we must find out where we are going and then work through an efficient organization and submerge our differences for the best interests of the majority."

Dr. Doran said that he is greatly encouraged by the attitude of willingness to co-operate with the government, with the enforcement agencies and with one another which he finds here among the growers, and he said that he is certain the result will be a real advance in sound prohibition enforcement in the United States.

POSSIBILITIES SEEN

He believes, he said, that there is a great future for the development of chemical industries in California and since the grape crop furnishes innumerable opportunities in this direction he urged the growers to direct their attention to its possibilities.

Of prohibition in general Dr. Doran said:

"Since 1875 this country has undergone greater changes than in all of the years preceding that time and of necessity the rapid growth and the transition to a mechanical age have produced problems not yet encountered in other countries. In view of all this I believe it is surprising that we have as orderly a state of society as exists today.

NO TURNING BACK

"But an inescapable result of this change has been our national prohibition policy. We cannot turn back the clock. We have passed from the hand-labor stage and the day of the small artisan and restriction and control of the use of alcohol is an absolute necessity in view of the speed of our present-day life."

"However, I am glad to say that conditions with regard to the enforcement and observance of prohibition in the United States are greatly improved and prospects along the same lines are also much better than ever before during the years of the National Prohibition Act.

"The government enforcement officers have been greatly aided by the local officers here in Southern California. The Sheriff's office, the District Attorney's office and the police department have been working in whole-hearted co-operation. It is also of great help to the government bureau that the courts here have taken over the bulk of the cases, thus relieving the Federal courts and giving them a chance to do other important things."

PREVENTION AIM

He emphasized the fact that the government law enforcement agencies are not so much interested in catching the person who makes wine or beer in his home as they are to apprehend bootleggers, rum-runners and makers of illicit liquor. For this reason it is particularly important to check on the marketing of grapes, both here and in

TEMPLARS EXTOLLED BY PORTER

Mayor Lauds Convention Delegates for Dry Stand and Peace Aims

Delegates of the Grand Lodge of the International Order of Good Templars, now holding the seventieth annual convention in this city, were entertained at a banquet last night at the Mary Louise. Mayor Porter was the chief speaker. Dr. Len M. Hutchins was toastmaster. Councilman Randall also spoke.

Mayor Porter outlined the history of the organization. He said the Good Templars was organized in 1851 and, according to the statistics available, the organization has been one of the most vital forces in the fight against the liquor traffic and in the cause of temperance.

"For nearly eighty years the Good Templars have carried on the fight for a dry nation," said Mayor Porter. "You were organized with about twenty members and now the international order comprises a membership of 700,000. In the early history of our nation you were unpopular; but you carried on and the result is the Eighteenth Amendment and the banishment of the saloon evil.

"Now I am pleased to learn that you have embraced the cause of world peace. You believe in the brotherhood of man and temperance and peace."

The first session was called to order by Grand Templar Albin Peterson. The order of business following the roll call was merged into a general discussion of world peace.

This morning there will be a short business session after which the meeting place of the next convention will be announced. The delegates are planning an outing to Catalina Island.

PORT UNITY GROUP NAMED

Three Los Angeles Representatives Chosen to Work on Plans With Long Beach Trio

Another step toward unification of Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors, as desired by Washington authorities before favorable action is taken toward extension of a breakwater system inclosing both ports for the benefit of commercial shipping and the naval fleet, was taken yesterday when Mayor Porter selected Councilman A. E. Henning, Attorney Eugene Overton and Bert Heinly, secretary of the Greater Harbor Committee of Two Hundred, as the city's representatives on a special harbor committee.

Henning is Councilman from the harbor district and familiar with the port development. Overton is chairman of the Harbor Rate Committee. Heinly has been associated with the Greater Harbor Committee of Two Hundred since it was organized.

The three will be required to work in co-operation with a committee of three appointed by Mayor Hauge of Long Beach, in compliance with an agreement reached Wednesday at a joint conference of Los Angeles and Long Beach officials.

The special harbor committee is expected to work out some plan toward carrying through the program for a joint port district with equal representation for Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Should the plan be carried out successfully, the Federal government has given practical assurance that the sum of some $7,000,000 or $8,000,000 will be voted toward the construction of a greater breakwater system at sufficient depth to harbor any vessels afloat and also to provide a protected area for the Pacific Fleet, instead of anchoring the vessels in the open roadstead as at present.

On construction of the greater breakwater system depends the development of the south shore of Terminal Island by Los Angeles and the outer harbor of Long Beach for the handling of commerce. Only by completion of the greater breakwater program, it is contended, may large vessels safely tie up at outer wharves and be free of the surge which snaps berthing lines and causes other damage.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

AT LAST comes consolation. Some while ago my little playmate, Sol Lesser, decided to retire from business—having accumulated a fortune. Yesterday I paid him a little visit in an office surrounded by three desk telephones (all clattering at once,) two secretaries, a stream of telegrams and an office ticker.

"Playing golf," said Sol, "is O.K. if you know you ought to be doing something else. When you haven't anything to do but whack a little white pill around a lawn it becomes agonizing.

"I used to go out to lunch with my friends. When 1:30 came they looked at their watches and said: 'Well, good-by, Sol; see you again,' and hurried away. I got to the place where I was grateful to my wife if she wanted me to run an errand."

THE RED HAND

I don't know why the European correspondents try to make a mystery of the savage little war between the Jews and the Arabs in Palestine. It is plainly the machinations of the soviet Reds of Russia.

A month ago when a horde of wild Moslems attacked and massacred the inhabitants of a little Chinese town on the edge of the Gobi desert it was plain what was coming. The soviets see a chance to put the British Empire in a hot spot.

STARVING RUSSIA

The spot on which the soviets find themselves perched is not so chilly, however. Russia is almost in a state of famine, and if relief does not come from the American Red Cross for the starving population there is danger of a rebellion against the Red flag in Siberia.

JEKYLL AND HYDE

The Paramount motion-picture company must be twins. Otherwise it is impossible to imagine the same people putting out a picture as good as "The Letter" and a picture as bad as "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu."

It seems that the talkies have limitations. If drivel like this must be perpetuated on the screen it would be better done in silence. Then, at least, you might delude yourself with the idea that you didn't see straight and it must have been something else.

WHY THIS COYNESS?

Everyone comes to long for fame except the famous.

On the occasion of her marriage to Walter Camp on Thursday Miss Ruth Elder requested the public to forget there is such a lady.

NO WORLDS TO CONQUER

It is difficult to imagine what aviation stunt can come next to thrill the human heart. After all, there is only one world they can go around.

LIGHT PROTESTS DENIED

The City Council yesterday denied all protests against the installation of a lighting system in Las Palmas avenue between Franklin avenue and Hollywood Boulevard. On motion of Councilman Henning the Council abandoned the proceedings for the widening of Fries avenue between Anaheim street and a point near A street, a matter which has been hanging fire for ten years.

"Protection" Methods Aired by Whittier Man

Investigator Given List of "Pay-off" Clews

Disclosures which may result in the indictment of at least a dozen members of the Los Angeles Police Department were made to Dist.-Atty. Fitts yesterday by Harry D. McDonald, of 208 Gretna street, Whittier, who is under arrest charged with conspiracy to violate the Wright Act, according to the District Attorney.

McDonald's statement was considered of sufficient importance to warrant immediate investigation. As a result, Tom O'Brien chief investigator, was called into the case at once, supplied with the information asserted to implicate from twelve to fifteen police officers in shakedown and protection deals with bootleggers and ordered to proceed with the inquiry.

MANY ON LIST

O'Brien's task will be to find numerous persons mentioned by McDonald, who are said to have witnessed some of the transactions and obtain as much corroboration as possible to the charges made by McDonald. This will entail the questioning of scores of persons during the next few days.

When this phase of the investigation has been finished, the case will be taken up again by Percy Hammon and Dave Clark, deputy District Attorneys in charge of the case, and a decision made as to whether a complaint will be issued or a special session of the grand jury called to continue the inquiry.

Although corroboration still is lacking concerning McDonald's charges, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hammon said he is certain he has enough information to insure the prosecution of a number of officers with but very little additional investigation.

TIRED OF SHAKEDOWNS

McDonald's asserted confession came shortly after his arrest by I. H. Justin, special investigator for Police Chief Davis, and J. E. Helpling, a Federal prohibition agent in Whittier.

When taken before the District Attorney, McDonald is asserted to have declared he is tired of being shaken down by police officers, that they gradually have deprived him of all his funds and that he is now through and willing to tell all he knows of their asserted protection methods.

At the District Attorney's office it was reported the case dates back many months and was first brought to light when Robert (Zeke) Hayes and John Hawkins, his partner, were brought to Los Angeles from San Quentin prison to testify before the 1928 grand jury. Hawkins was killed in a gun battle in the jail elevator when he and Hayes attempted to shoot their way to freedom.

BOARD AWARDS CONTRACTS

The Board of Public Works yesterday awarded three public improvement contracts. They are for sewers and water mains in Denker avenue between Ninety-second and Ninety-ninth streets, $177,571; paving and sewers in Brunswick avenue at Chevy Chase Drive, $12,309, and paving and sewers in Cumpston avenue between Tujunga and Camellia avenues, $11,128.

Other Alimony Matters Up on Appeal

Superior Judge Burnell's treatment Thursday of alimony seekers and alimony delinquents had its echo in the District Court of Appeals here late yesterday when two of the litigants, not liking the court's particular methods of dealing with their own cases, sought relief in a higher court.

Al St. John, angular comic of the films, through a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, sought release from the County Jail and the labors of the county road camp, whence he had been sent by Judge Burnell for asserted failure to pay back alimony to a former wife.

Mrs. Helen L. Hamman, wife of a Los Angeles dentist, who was denied alimony by Judge Burnell, pending settlement of her divorce action, sought that same alimony through a writ of mandate. Mrs. Hamman gained considerable publicity, first when she drove her fist through the glass door of the office of her husband's attorney, and again Thursday when she fainted after Judge Burnell had told her she was not entitled to alimony because "you are able-bodied, have no children and can take care of yourself."

St. John's petition for a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Justices Conrey, York and Houser, sitting in Division One of the Appellate Court, the writ being made returnable at 11 a.m. on September 3. Bail was set at $1700 pending settlement of the question as to whether Judge Burnell exceeded his authority in committing St. John to the road camp until back alimony amounting to $1642 is paid his former wife.

In her petition for a writ of mandate, which will be acted upon by the Appellate Court at a later date, Mrs. Hamman contended that the denial of alimony by Judge Burnell Thursday, when a hearing on the alimony petition was held by the court, was contrary to the admitted facts adduced by her attorneys.

The petitioner avers that she is wholly without property or the means of support pending settlement of her divorce action, and that she is devoid of the strength necessary to earn a living. She asks that Judge Burnell be ordered to direct her husband, Lee M. Hamman, to pay her a sum sufficient for her support, as well as court costs and attorneys' fees, pending the divorce settlement.

of unbiased analysis of facts, rating as a specialist, originality, and availability for continuous study.

In addition to the exclusion of Californians, Arizonans and Nevadans, two other principles governed the board in making the selections. It was decided that the limiting of the Board of Review to three engineers would operate to result in a better working group; and it was further decided that of these three, two should be from the West, with special knowledge of western water problems, and the third from the East, with a pre-eminent reputation in the field of water-works engineering.

All three appointees, the board agreed yesterday, are among the highest ranking engineers in their profession.

A. J. Wiley has been engaged actively in engineering and construction work since 1883. He is a member of the Boulder Dam Commission of consulting engineers appointed by Secretary of the Interior Wilbur to supervise construction.

Since 1902 he has been a consulting engineer in connection with the major projects of the Department of the Interior. In 1927 and 1928 he was consulting engineer to the British government on immense irrigation and other water-works projects in India.

Richard R. Lyman is a resident of Salt Lake City. From 1896 to 1922 he was professor of civil engineering at the University of Utah and for several years was dean of the university's college of engineering. In 1924 and 1925 he was a member of the engineering board of review for the Sanitary District of Chicago, and of the Columbia Basin Board of Engineers for the United States Reclamation Service.

NEW YORK EXPERT

Thaddeus Merriman is a resident of New York City. As chief engineer of the Board of Water Supply of New York City, he is the directing head of three aqueduct systems and a waterworks system that is required to meet the needs of more than 7,000,000 consumers.

Aside from the official announcement of the selection of the Board of Review, the only action of any moment occurring at yesterday's meeting was the unanimous adoption of a resolution rejecting the election on the part of Glendale, one of the eleven cities within the Metropolitan Water District, to pay in lieu of subsequent taxation, the sum of $30,464.38, representing all of the amount of the tax that would be levied upon Glendale for the benefit of the district. The resolution was adopted on the advice of the board's legal staff, headed by Chief Counsel W. B. Matthews, who ruled that it would be unwise to accept the election, the legality of its date being open to question. By act of the City Council the cities within the district were given until the 25th inst. to make a choice; and the Glendale resolution embodying the city's decision and introduced at yesterday's meeting bore the date of the 27th inst.

Trio of Youths Held for Purse Snatching Quiz

Declaring war against purse-snatchers operating in county territory, deputy sheriffs yesterday morning arrested three youths and charged them with grand theft after they had been identified by two women as the thieves who had stolen their purses.

The boys gave their names as Samuel D. McPherson, 19 years of age, and Thomas McPherson, 17, both of 2022 East Seventy-eighth street, and Joseph Hanson, 18, of 1108 South Gage street.

According to Deputy Sheriffs Zahn and Sutton of the Belvedere substation they found the boys in an automobile on Whittier Boulevard near Downey Road a few minutes after Mrs. Mary A. Harrington and Mrs. Anna V. Kutzkan of 665 Sidney Drive, Belvedere, complained that youths had snatched their purses.

the East, with a view to finding out to what use they are put, he said.

Dr. Doran is in Los Angeles to map out with Administrator Wood in the local bureau a campaign to deal with the wine-tonic situation.

AS TO WINES

"I believe this subject has been greatly exaggerated," he said, "but undoubtedly there are phases of it which need attention. Wherever there is a wine tonic on the market which is legitimate and legal, its sale will not be curbed in any manner by this bureau. Wine tonics were sold as health builders long before prohibition and since then, but there is no doubt that many violations, conscious or otherwise, have been committed in their name. Articles which are put under the guise of tonics, mainly for beverage purposes, will be barred."

This city, he said, stands well toward the head of the list among large cities for the effectiveness of its prohibition enforcement.

Commissioner Doran, accompanied by Administrator Wood and Maj. McReynolds, visited various Federal, county and city officials yesterday and expects to leave today for Washington by way of the Salt Lake route.

Culver Returns Today Bearing New Air Title

Harry H. Culver, founder of Culver City, will arrive today as a lieutenant-Colonel, specialist reserve, after having flown 85,000 miles around the United States and Canada in twelve months. His appointment to the rank of lieutenant-colonel was confirmed on the 15th inst. by Secretary of War Good at the suggestion of President Hoover. Secretary Good made the appointment with a view to Lieut.-Col. Culver's being given an emergency assignment under the assistant Secretary of War.

Lieut.-Col. Culver returns here in his private cabin plane piloted by Capt. J. B. Dickson, scheduled to reach Culver City this afternoon. During his airplane tour of the country, Mr. Culver visited more than 400 cities.

Mr. Culver conducted this year of aerial travel as national president of the Association of Real Estate Boards. He gave the rest of the country an example of a progressive Californian in his daily addresses on real estate ethics, aviation and civic betterment.

New Witness Denies Mrs. Pantages Drinking Charge

PRECEDING DAYS ACCOUNTED FOR

Mrs. Bertha Jacobs to Aid Defendant

Tells of Sojourn at Latter's Beach Home

Says She Left Auto Just Before Crash

Mrs. Bertha Jacobs, 732 South Lorraine Boulevard, wife of Julius [illegible] Jacobs, retired capitalist, will be an important defense witness at the murder trial of Mrs. Lois Pantages, wife of the vaudeville magnate, which starts next Tuesday in Superior Judge Hardy's court, it was learned yesterday.

The wealthy woman, who, with her husband, was questioned yesterday by Dep. Dist.-Attys. James Costello and Harold Jones, in charge of the prosecution of Mrs. Pantages, will testify at the coming trial that Mrs. Pantages was sober a short time before her automobile struck that of Joe Rokumoto, causing the death of the latter, it was indicated from her statement to the prosecutors.

AT BEACH HOME

Mrs. Jacobs's story, according to Costello and Jones, is that she and Mrs. Pantages spent three days together at the Pantages summer home at Venice immediately prior to Sunday, June 16, last, the day on which the automobile accident took place.

On the Sunday in question, she told Costello, Mrs. Pantages and she left Venice and drove to the Jacobs home, where they telephoned Mr. Pantages, making a dinner engagement with him. They then left in Mrs. Pantages's car, but Mrs. Jacobs left the theater man's wife at Western avenue and Beverly Boulevard and took a taxicab back home, when, she told the prosecutor, she remembered that she had left no word for her husband where he could reach her.

Mrs. Jacobs is admittedly under subpoena as a defense witness and her testimony will be subject to the severest cross-examination. Several witnesses already have testified they smelled liquor in the Pantages automobile and others gave their opinion that she was under the influence of intoxicating liquor at the time of the accident. It also was testified at Mrs. Pantages's preliminary hearing that she struck and inflicted minor damage to three automobiles, each at different points, before she hit the Rokumoto automobile at Sunset Boulevard and Serrano avenue.

DAYS ACCOUNTED FOR

Yesterday was the first time Mrs. Jacobs's name was brought officially into the Lois Pantages case and the first time any explanation was available as to Mrs. Pantages's movements prior to the time her automobile is said to have been seen zig-zagging about Hollywood streets late in the day of June 16.

While Mrs. Jacobs was being questioned, investigators from the District Attorney's office armed with subpoenas, were hunting in vain for Aloise Leyendecker, late of 925 North Virgil avenue, but yesterday said to have disappeared since the automobile accident.

Leyendecker was the conductor on a Los Angeles Railroad motor bus that drew up to the corner of Sunset and Serrano avenue at approximately the time of the automobile accident.

CREATED SENSATION

C. T. Hull, driver of the bus, created something of a sensation at the Coroner's inquest by testifying that the car driven by Rokumoto came south on Serrano and was trying to cross Sunset Boulevard at the time of the crash. He gave other testimony favorable to Mrs. Pantages. State's witnesses asserted the Rokumoto car was driven west on Sunset Boulevard and that Mrs. Pantages was driving on the wrong side of the street when the accident occurred.

Leyendecker did not testify at the Coroner's inquest or the preliminary hearing and when District Attorney's investigators sought to serve him with a subpoena at his boarding-house they were informed he had left for an unannounced destination shortly after the day of the crash, it was declared by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Jones yesterday.

With the case of Mrs. Pantages occupying the center of attention yesterday because of the proximity of her trial, there were few developments in the case of her husband, Alxander Pantages, charged with a criminal attack on 17-year-old Eunice Pringle.

Chief interest today will center in the arrival at the Grand Central Airport, Glendale, of Max Steuer, New York criminal attorney, who has been associated in the Pantages defense with local attorneys, W. I. Gilbert and Joseph Ford.

DRY WHISKY HAS STRONG KICK

Unusual Plant Viewed at Cactus Show

Mary Jo Baird and Peyote Buttons

Dr. A. D. Houghton of San Fernando owns the peyote cluster shown here.

MARY JO BAIRD of Pasadena attended the cactus show yesterday, and was greatly interested in "dry whisky," a cactus plant from San Luis Potosi, Mex.

The botanical name of the plant is Lophocereus Williamsii, but ordinary cactus collectors call it the peyote button.

In Mexico the Indians treat the pulp through some process of their own, and chew it at certain religious ceremonials. In that way they are able to acquire a better jag than can be had on the poorest grade of moonshine, it is asserted.

CACTUS SHOW ENCORE SET

Pasadena Success to be Repeated at Ambassador; February Exhibit Pledged by Sponsors

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Aug. 30.—With the conclusion of the Cactus and Succulent Society's first national cactus show tonight, it was learned that the organization has accepted the invitation of the Ambassador, Los Angeles, to put on a midwinter exhibition of desert plants in February.

Dr. A. D. Houghton of San Fernando, president of the society, announced that the first cactus show held in the open on the Rust Nursery property has met with such unqualified success that it will be an annual event.

MANY ADMITTED

J. S. Vosburg, who has assisted in managing the unique exhibition, revealed that more than 2000 persons from all parts of the State have paid admissions for the show.

Three of the exhibitors entered their entire collections, moving their cactus gardens bodily on automobile trucks. Between 6000 and 7000 individual specimens, obtained from remote desert regions in all parts of the world, were entered.

BOSS OF KINGS ENDS EXILE

British Official of Tropic Isles Tells of Five Years Spent in ex-Cannibals' Domain

Boss of one native king de luxe, several lesser kings and of some [illegible] subjects, Phillip Charles Spain, district commissioner of the Northern Gilbert Islands, part of the Gilbert and Ellice Islands colonies that form a dot on a map of the Pacific, was a visitor yesterday in Hollywood after five years in virtual exile.

Spain, who hasn't seen an automobile, used a telephone or enjoyed any of the modern conveniences of every-day life in five years, spent twenty-four hours here as a guest of [illegible] Bancroft-Livingston, acting British Consul in Los Angeles. He arrived here after twenty-three days of ocean travel.

TROPIC STAGE SET

The British commissioner visited the United Artists Studio in Hollywood where he spent several hours as the guest of film players. Spain, who was an artillery officer in the British Army during the World War and one of the heroes of Vimy Ridge, is en route to his home in England on a leave of ten months.

By chance the set he visited at the studio was a replica of a part of the tropics where synthetic natives and their Hollywood-made "headhunters" were enacting a bit of "reel life" on the palm-studded "shores" of an island near the equator.

Spain confessed the scene was "quite extraordinary and very interesting" even though he just got out of five years of actual life in such lands, where he lives a life of a story-book adventure.

KINGS BAWLED OUT

Spain's domain consists of four islands, one of which is cut by the equator. In addition to the 8000 natives, the population includes about ten white missionaries, three Japanese and two Chinese.

The islands, he said, receive mail four or five times a year. The nearest doctor is on an island 180 miles away. The average moisture on the islands is 227 inches per year.

There is no meat on the islands. The fare is chiefly fish and fowl.

The natives are comparatively easy to handle, Spain declared, although occasionally he has to summon the king or the kinglets on the official carpet and read them the riot act. The natives are not cannibals, he explained, although in the old days mere human fingers were tid-bits. They didn't care much for the rest of the body.

Angeleno Dance Master Honored by Convention

Ernest E. Ryan, ballroom dancing master of Los Angeles, returned yesterday from Pittsburgh, where he attended the annual convention of the Dancing Masters of America. Ryan was elected first vice-president for the coming year. New York was selected for the convention city next year.

The dances that will be popular this fall will be in accordance with the slow rhythm which leading orchestras have introduced during the last season, according to Ryan. The convention selected three representative dances that will be featured. They are the "Sorority Sway," devised by Anna Keenan of Philadelphia—it is a slow fox-trot; "Modernistic Rhythm," a fast fox-trot conceived by Edna Rothard Passapae of New York, and the "Sea Gull Waltz," devised by Vida Godwin of Texas.

These dances were selected from fifteen submitted to the dance contest committee. Mr. Ryan was a member of the committee.

MRS. SHAFTER ESTATE COMPUTED AT $80,000

The estate of Mrs. Eva R. Shafter, who died at her home in Sierra Madre, August 27, last, amounts to $80,000, it was revealed with the filing of her will for probate yesterday. Mary I. Potter, a friend, of Sierra Madre, will get the bulk of the estate by the terms of the will, and the residue goes to Mrs. Bertha S. Shafter, a sister of the decedent, who lives at 1899 North Raymond avenue, Pasadena. Seven nieces and nephews will get specific bequests.

EVIDENCE AID TO WESTLAKE

State Witness Produces Dramatic Moment

Love Letter and Bible Figure in Murder Trial

Torso Case Continued Until Next Tuesday

Letters, a Bible, sprigs of fern said to have been taken from the hands of a dead woman and testimony concerning asserted blood spots on the wall of the room in which it is contended Mrs. Laura B. Sutton, asserted "torso" murder victim, came to her death yesterday joined the lengthy list of evidence against Dr. Frank P. Westlake, elderly retired physician, accused of slaying his former sweetheart.

Positive results were obtained in tests for human blood from a bespattered portion of the bathroom in the West Eleventh-street home of Dr. Westlake, it was testified by technical experts in the trial now being conducted before Superior Judge Wood.

Hair taken from the dismembered head, declared to be that of Mrs. Sutton, corresponded with hairs retrieved from a carpet sweeper said to have been used by her, according to the testimony of Deputy Sheriff Gompert.

DRAMATIC MOMENT

Continuing its array of evidence against the doctor, the prosecution, which is being conducted by Assistant Chief Deputy District-Attorney Jordan and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Stahlman, summoned witness after witness in an effort to link Dr. Westlake definitely with the crime and prove that he appropriated to his own use the supposedly dead woman's estate.

Marking what perhaps was the most tense moment of the trial thus far, Mrs. Bertha Hibbs, proprietor of a wholesale dress concern and a prosecution witness, under cross-examination of Defense Attorney Kendrick produced one of the most important pieces of defense testimony adduced to date.

Mrs. Hibbs testified that dresses, identified the previous day by Benjamin King, taxi driver and asserted rival of Dr. Westlake in the affections of Mrs. Sutton, as dresses similar to those possessed by the supposedly dead woman and declared by the prosecution to have been appropriated by the doctor, were ordered from her by the physician for his daughter-in-law and her mother about a year ago. She also stated Mrs. Sutton told her she was going away where no one would ever see her again.

LOVE LETTER INTRODUCED

A love letter from Dr. Westlake to Mrs. Sutton, dated following the woman's disappearance and asking her to return to him, was introduced. The communication was found between pages of Mrs. Sutton's Bible in the home of the doctor, according to testimony of Deputy Sheriff Allen. With it was a small bouquet of fern leaves, declared by Dr. Westlake to have been taken by Mrs. Sutton from the hands of her mother just before the elderly woman was buried.

On motion of the prosecution, a continuance was taken until Tuesday. It was intimated that with the presentation of testimony by J. Clark Sellers, handwriting expert, and the reading of certain statements attributed to Dr. Westlake that the prosecution will close its case that day. The defense is expected to place Dr. Westlake on the stand.

Motor Officers Fond Papas, Too

Vital statistics reveal that Los Angeles motorcycle officers are not only motorcycle officers. Three times in the last week members of the squad have dashed excitedly into the press room at Central Station promiscuously waving cigars.

And yesterday, as a fitting climax to the seven-day record, Lieut. "Tommy" Lofthouse, commander of the squad, stumbled on the door step and spilled the contents of an entire box of cigars all over the room.

"An eight-and-a-half-pound baby girl at the Benedict Maternity Hospital," he cried jubilantly. "It's our first and Mrs. Lofthouse and the baby are doing fine."

Course in Laws of Trade Offered

Traffic management will be one of the courses offered at Manual Arts Evening High School during the fall term, which opens September 10. These classes will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

A companion course in foreign trade will be offered on Wednesday evenings at the same hours. All courses at the Manual Arts and other evening high schools of the city are under the direction of the Board of Education and are free of cost to the student.

HE'LL CONDUCT HOLY RITES FOR SOLDIERS

Archbishop Nish Noguchi

BUDDHIST TO BLESS HERO WAR GRAVES

Japanese Archbishop Will Honor Soldiers Dead in Two Ceremonies Here

Archbishop Nish Noguchi of the Nippon Buddhist faith tomorrow will invoke the Buddhist blessings on the graves of the soldier dead in Evergreen and Hollywood cemeteries. The Buddhist Prelate of the Nichiren sect is visiting Los Angeles in the course of a tour around the world, during which he will seek out the graves of all soldier dead, without regard to nationality, in order to blass them.

Accompanied by local Japanese, the archbichop will go to Evergreen Cemetery for the ceremonial of blessing at 3 p.m. he services at Hollywood Cemetery are to follow as soon afterward as possible in the afternoon. For the solemn ceremonial Archbishop Noguchi will wear a historic robe, assumed only by priests of Buddha. The ceremonial robe is very old, and has been worn by prelates of the sect in rites before the Emperor of Japan.

Archbishop Noguchi plans to go to Seattle, then east, after leaving Los Angeles, visiting various cities along the route. While here, he is stopping with Rev. J. Ikeda, priest of the local Buddhist temple.

Southland's Warm Spell Lingers on

Yesterday was the seventeenth continuous day with temperature above 80 deg., according to Col. H. B. Hersey of the United States Weather Bureau. There have been but three days of the entire month, the 10th, 11th and 12th, when the maximum has not clambered over the 80-deg. mark.

Yesterday was no exception and a 92 deg. registration topped the day at noon. At 5 o'clock last night the mercury had slid down to 85 with 35 per cent humidity. At 5 o'clock a.m., the temperature was 71, the lowest of the entire day, with a humidity percentage of 65.

"There will be but little change in temperature over Sunday from indications," Col. Hersey said yesterday. "There will be light and variable winds but there is not much chance now for a cool wave to come in."

Actor's Beating Retrial Fixed for Wednesday

Retrial of Harvey G. Parry, George E. Wilson, Edward Welch and Samuel Cummings on charges of beating Harry Deck, film actor of 1523 1-2 South Hoover street, because he refused to join the Actors' Equity Association, was set yesterday by Municipal Judge Bogue for next Wednesday.

The first trial ended when a jury in Municipal Judge Haas's court was unable to reach an agreement.

CITY WILL LEAD NATION, SAYS COLE, CENTENARIAN

Galusha M. Cole, the Southland's most famous centenarian, yesterday predicted that within fifteen years Los Angeles will be the largest city in the nation, with Pasadena and Long Beach as parts of the new metropolis. The centenarian, who recently celebrated his 103rd birthday anniversary, spoke at the morning chapel service of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California.

Addressing 250 physically handicapped Goodwill workers, who crowded to hear his recipe for a long life, Mr. Cole told them never to be afraid of work or ashamed of any work that is honest. During his more than a century of life, he said, he has done all kinds of honest work, his hardest jobs being when as a boy he picked up stones all day long for a sixpence.

When he came to Los Angeles forty years ago to sell pianos the town was so small he could not make sales. He conducted a Chautauqua at Long Beach, receiving not one cent for his summer's work. At that time, he related, Long Beach had a population of approximately 400 and a vacant lot could be bought for $25. He said that moderns do things better than people did 100 years ago, "when such a wonderful institution as the Goodwill Industries was unheard of."

"Always keep pleasant," he advised, giving his formula for longevity. "Eat anything you want. Find some congenial work. Work at it the best you know how."

You see, she has a large family of children and they all clamor for a cooling beverage these warm days; a beverage which satisfied this thirst and was at the same time nourishing and beneficial was what this friend of mine was searching for. Well, she heard about Guasti Concentrated Grape Juice; learned that you could buy a quart or gallon and make a wonderful drink by adding three parts water, and what did she do but buy a can . . . with the result that she is now loud in her praise of this splendid product.

You, too, will love it, so why don't you get the desired amount from your grocer now? In case, for any reason, he cannot fill your order, call the Italian Vineyard Company—their number is MUtual 2124, and they will promptly see that you are supplied with what you need. Indeed, they will do more: They will send you one of their free booklets, "Grape Drinks and Desserts," which you are sure to find mighty useful these days.

Your most precious rugs—even the ones you value most, may be sent with utmost confidence to John Bloeser City Steam Carpet Cleaning Works. This concern will not only take splendid care of your carpets, but will return them thoroughly cleaned and looking exactly like new. Couldn't you phone now, TRinity 4739, and have them call for your work?

For squeaky shoes: Rub a little oil well into the soles, then stand the pair over night in cold salt water, using barely enough to cover the soles. Linseed oil, or castor oil, is also good; place shoes over night in a dish with just enough oil to barely cover the soles. This latter is recommended only for black shoes.

SALAD SUGGESTIONS

Diced apples, diced oranges, and broken nut meats, mayonnaise and lettuce.

Diced beets and peas, mayonnaise and lettuce.

Frame your pictures!—it spoils them to lie around the house you know—besides you really do not enjoy them to the fullest extent. Do you want to know where I would suggest that you take all those cherished photographs, prints, etchings and wood cuts? To one of Mathews Paint Company's stores where they do such beautiful work! Why they have moldings there which for smartness and charm can not be surpassed. It is truly a pleasure to visit Mathews Paint Company's shops. You always find exactly what you have been looking for. Here are their three addresses, go into the one nearest you: 1245 S. Hill St., 1559 Vine, and 740 E. Green, Pasadena.

What a help Mayflower potato chips are during the hot weather especially . . . and are they not the best you ever tasted? You see they are the product of the Scudder Food Company and it is their ambition to give you the very best potato chips that could be made. Just in case your grocer cannot supply you with this delectable brand, phone AN. 6512 and your order will be promptly cared for.

A good and cheap furniture floor polish—Mix one part of benzine and two parts of crude oil. Mix thoroughly, always shake well before using, and apply with cheesecloth, rubbing until dry. Excellent for everything but mahogany. Another well-tested polish is made of two parts of turpentine and one part each of benzine, or vinegar and linseed oil; polish with clean cloth.

Clothes which you no longer have any use for—articles of all kinds you do not want, will be welcomed by the Children's Hospital Salvage Department of 712 Maple Ave. By contributing to such a worth-while charity you are helping a great cause so do get up a bundle today and send it in. Their phone number is TU. 1203.

Have you any jewelry in need of repairing—do you want a particular article copied, if so, see Mr. Kent up at the Peerless Platers, for he is an expert in such things . . . recutting, repolishing and setting all kinds of stones. He also carries a nice line of new jewelry you will want to see. 239½ S. Spring is the address. VAndike 5417 the phone number.

To exterminate rats, place about their haunts a mixture of equal parts of cornmeal, brown sugar and plaster of paris. For setting a rat trap, use bread which has been soaked in linseed oil, or a few drops of oil of rhodium; they cannot resist it. An oyster is also excellent bait for a rat trap.

You will be simply amazed at the transformation to your silver wrought by the Peerless Platers, 239½ S. Spring (upstairs.) They do such fine repairing and replating of old, discarded pieces you thought quite worthless. Prices are ever so small, too. Ring them up, why don't you?—VAndike 5417 is the number to call.

The heat of the past few days is soon forgotten when we are on our way to San Clemente—the "Spanish Village by the Sea," with Travaglini's Cafe San Clemente the ultimate goal. A more delightfully cool trip will be hard to find—for you travel, preferably, along the Coast Highway, with such a wonderful reward at your journey's end! . . . A marvelous dinner which mere adjectives fail to do justice to. Such hospitality as awaits you; such courteous attention which Mr. Travaglini accords his guests. Do plan to start today, won't you. It is a trip which will live long in your memory. If you cannot get away remember Travaglini's Roma Rotisserie and Food Shop at 1801 W. 7th is also a delightful place to dine. They have food ready prepared to take home, too.

To destroy earthworms in the earth in flower pots, mix a small quantity of finely pulverized tobacco with the earth in each.

Slip covers give your home such a very cool appearance, besides adding years to the upholstering. Have you had yours made as yet? If not let me urge you to drop in or phone the West Coast Slip Cover Company for they make the most perfect fitting covers I have seen—and their prices are very reasonable. They also excel in the making of draperies. The address is 1425 W. 8th St. Ph. No. DR. 6728.

Delicious Drink—For a change from iced tea and chocolate nothing is more refreshing than the following punch: Put a heaping tablespoonful of good tea in a pitcher, pour over it one quart of boiling water and let it stand for a few moments, covered. Strain this into a bowl, add one pound of sugar, juice of six lemons and two oranges and a quart of water; use plenty of ice. It will also add to the flavor to put in a few strawberries or raspberries. This makes enough for twelve people; for a smaller quantity the recipe should be divided in half.

Decide today to get some use out of your worn carpets by having fluff rugs made from them by the Hoffman Rug Works, 2814 W. Jefferson. The phone number being EM. 2048. They also make colonial rugs from rags, you know.

To remove white spots from furniture, use two parts of crude oil and one part of turpentine. White stains left by alcohol on furniture can be removed by rubbing them with spirits of camphor.

Here is something to remember always: To get rid of ants forever, install "Calpro" and in an hour's time they will be gone for all time. Phone the Calpro Sales Co., 3616 W. Pico (EMpire 1038) for full information and prices. They also have offices at 1329 Santa Monica Blvd. and 15 E. Canon Perdido, Santa Barbara.

To renovate and freshen porch furniture, wash it with lukewarm soapsuds and dry quickly in the air, but not in the hot sun; then rub it either with crude kerosene or equal parts of turpentine and raw linseed oil, mixed.

MILLION-DOLLAR SUIT FILED

Charging breach of contract in connection with a plan to form a company to manufacture a dentrifrice, Henry N Creger yesterday filed suit in Superior Court for $1,000,000 damages against Leonard Abrahams.

According to the complaint, Abrahams induced Creger to invest $25,000 in the proposed company under the representation that the former would deposit a like amount and also dispose of $250,000 in stock to friends in the motion-picture industry.

Creger, who asserts the agreement was made in April, 1927, declares Abrahams has failed to carry out the terms of the asserted contract.

Hodson to Head San Fernando Police Division

As the result of numerous requests from citizens and representatives of business interests in the San Fernando Valley, according to Chief Davis, Captain of Police C. A. Hodson yesterday was transferred from command of the property clerk's office at Central Station to take charge of the valley division.

Captain of Police P. C. Ross, who has been in command of Lincoln Heights division during the absence of Capt. James McDowell on vacation, temporarily will fill the position of chief property clerk, Davis announced. The transfers will take effect Monday.

Capt. Hodson takes the position left vacant by the recent retirement of Captain of Police Kierscey. During a former detail as commander of the valley division Capt. Hodson is said to have made numerous friends in that district who desire his return.

FILM GROUP LEAVES TO DEDICATE THEATER

A special train carrying more than fifty screen players last night left the Glendale station of the Southern Pacific for Fresno to participate in the formal opening of Warner Brothers Fresno theater tonight. Several prominent Angelenos in the party also will participate in the civic event marking the premier of Warner's newest theater. The theater, a 2600-seat house, formerly was a part of the Pantages circuit.

Deleted Play Permitted to Reopen Doors

An expurgated performance was promised City Prosecutor Nix by George Scarborough, author of the play "Bad Babies" which was raided by police this week at the Figueroa Playhouse and the performance, threatened with closing every time it showed, was not molested last night. Deletion of objectionable words and phrases and toning down of adjectives, constituted the changes asked.

Members of the cast who were arrested Wednesday evening will have their trial on September 13. They are now out on bail of $500 each on charges of producing an immoral play. Jobyna Ralston, Elinor Flynn, Annette Westby, George Scarborough, author, Arthur Rankin, Norman Peck, Mervin Williams, Dario Shindell, Charles Bruins and Frank Jennings were the ones arrested. Demurrer was filed to the charges yesterday by the attorney for the actors.

Attendant Asks for Sums from Sullivan Estate

A court fight over a claim of $4319.31 filed by Mrs. M. R. Rannie against the estate of Edmond J. Sullivan, former political campaign manager here, was begun yesterday before Superior Judge Weyand. The action was brought in the name of Mrs. Rannie against Emily Bolle, executrix of the last will and estate of Sullivan, who died here on November 19, 1928.

According to the plaintiff the money involved was loaned to Sullivan during his lifetime in amounts from $10 up to $35; was for medicine and necessaries of life; also for services in attending him during his last days.

It is the contention of the defendant that in 1927 when Sullivan's health began failing he was living at the Cambria Union apartments; that he had Mrs. Rannie move to the apartments to care for him and that he paid her room rent and bought groceries for her and her son up until July 5, 1928, when she left for Detroit.

In her answer to the action the executrix denies that the estate owes the plaintiff anything at all for services.

Levee New Chief for Paramount

M. C. Levee will assume his new duties as executive manager of the Paramount studios in Hollywood Tuesday, it was announced yesterday by B. P. Schulberg, general manager of west coast production for the film corporation.

Levee takes over the position now held by J. J. Gain, who has been assigned to a special executive post in connection with the physical operation of both the Long Island and Hollywood studios of Paramount, calling for a division of time between the East and West.

Levee is a pioneer of the motion-picture industry, having entered the business in 1917. He leaves the general managership of the United Artists studios for the Paramount post.

ANYBODY LOSE THIS LIQUOR?

Four Hundred Cases Wait Claimant's Appearance; No Proof Required

The Federal Prohibition Department has 400 cases of what is said to be imported liquor and is not quite certain what to do with it.

Agent Reynolds came upon information that illicit liquor was being stored in a barn eight miles from Pismo Beach. He found the liquor but no owners nor defendants. He is having the owners paged.

Today's Bible Text

"For the fruit of the spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth." Ephesians v:9.

ON THE SPOT

It is Dr. Annie Besant, the theosophist leader, who declares that America is producing a race of supermen. Those who were present at the last college commencements would agree that the race was already here.

THE CITY MOVEMENT

Farm boy burns up the old home in order to force the family to move to town. This sounds like a heroic but effective method, but the folks might get even by compelling him to sleep in the dog kennel.

WANT A RAISE

Said that there are about 160,000 government employees who are exercising such pressure as they can to have their pay raised in the coming Congress. Perhaps this is another reason why governmental economy is difficult. This is a high-priced country and we all know it.

QUEEN OF THE COURTS

Helen Wills has won her sixth national championship at tennis and established herself as queen of more courts than any royal dame who ever trailed through the pages of history. The trouble is that there doesn't seem to be any other girl who can quite press Helen to her limit. She is in a class by herself. The other California Helen is her nearest rival.

AFTER MANY YEARS

An alien from overseas who has now lived in this country for sixty-five consecutive and unbroken years has finally concluded to become a citizen and has made application accordingly. During the Civil War he was uncertain what the result might be and so he kept on waiting. Now that the country seems settled and Hoover is in the Presidency, citizenship becomes really desirable. So here he comes.

THE BAD-CHECK HABIT

Folks who have formed the careless habit of handing out checks without having the funds in the bank are due for a terrific jolt. Under the amended law in effect August 15 this trick falls into about the same class as forgery. There may be a year in jail as penalty, or, if the offense be of an aggravated form, penitentiary doors may close upon the offender for from one to fourteen years. Maids and matrons who have been passing out checks whenever they had a little spending urge will have to put on brakes. The penitentiaries are not attractive retreats for our women, but they must behave.

A BURNING ISSUE

The San Gabriel River caught fire the other day and quite a section of its bed was burned over before the rangers could get their sandbags in action. In this connection it might be mentioned that little if anything is being done to protect our own Los Angeles River from a like tragedy. Some wastrel with a cigaroot is likely to play heck with this landmark some day. If Los Angeles should awaken some night and find its historic river in flames there would be very little sympathy manifest by outsiders. We might at least sprinkle it occasionally or keep a seltzer bottle in the offing. It would be pretty rough if we had to depend upon Pittsburgh and Hoboken for the relief of sufferers from a Los Angeles River fire.

THEY NEVER LEARN

While all the political, social, economic and religious activities of the world are centered upon programs of peace and good will the union-labor leaders continue to think and act only in terms of threats, strikes, boycotts, intimidation, bombing and violence. They have the only cause on earth that seeks to extend its ranks by spreading terror. In the world of business, finance and diplomacy these criminal indulgences have long since been abandoned. Of all living humans the union bosses alone have learned nothing and made no advance as the scroll of civilization has been unrolled. The church no longer seeks converts by threats of hell fire, but the unions compel membership by menace and oppression. There can be little industrial peace while the walking delegates cling to the crimson path.

THE YOUNG PLAN WINS

The Young plan, modified to give Great Britain a larger share of the German payments and with a supplementary agreement for evacuating the Rhineland within a few months, has finally won the support of all the nations involved. Philip Snowden, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, does not get all that he demanded, and probably did not expect to, but he has obtained 80 per cent of it, and the victory will measurably strengthen the hands of the MacDonald government.

The additional funds, according to announcements in England, will be used to "restore" that country's "devastated front"—to give aid, that is, to the army of the unemployed. If, borrowing a leaf from Lloyd George, the Labor government spends the money for needed public works, the result probably will be beneficial and will act as a stimulus to industry; but if it is merely poured into the insatiable maw of the dole it will make matters worse. The degree to which the Labor government makes wise use of these funds probably will be the measure of its life at the British helm. It will have to resist much radical clamor in order to win out.

That all nations which took part in the conference at The Hague are somewhat dissatisfied with the final agreement is an indication that it does substantial justice, or comes as near to it as such a political compromise ever can. The ultimate effects of almost any settlement that could be imagined would be good, if it were a definite settlement to which Europe could adjust itself, not likely to be turned up and rerevised every few years. Doubts are expressed in some quarters as to whether the Young plan meets this specification and as to whether Germany will not, in a few years, defy her creditors and stop payments altogether. Speculation as to these points is rather futile. Nothing in the postwar record of Germany indicates that repudiation is probable; but national tempers change, sometimes very swiftly. A reasonable amount of thinking for the future is good for a nation as for an individual, but too much is apt to interfere with adequate dealing with the present.

As a settlement the Young plan is not ideal, nor based on abstract justice. The latter would require that those to blame for the war pay for it in the exact proportion of their guilt, but no such assessment ever could be made. It is inevitable, for instance, that the United States, which was a wholly innocent bystander, will assume a greater burden than many of those near to the start of the conflict. Fortunately, it is one she is able to bear. Belgium is another example; no one but extremists has ever placed her in any category than that of an innocent victim, entitled morally to receive full reparation for all damage. She will not get it. Historians are still quarreling as to the relative responsibility of the other participants and the Young plan can be regarded as no more than an arbitrary severing of the Gordian knot, an apportionment according to power rather than according to due. As such, it will, it is to be hoped, serve.

The controversy over the international bank, most criticised feature of the plan, still continues, but is of minor moment. Fiscal experts are divided in opinion as to its utility, and apparently only trial can convince anybody.

Many difficulties have been overcome by the conference, as there were in the experts' conference that preceded it, and like the experts' conference it has been on the point of breaking up repeatedly. Only recognition of the imperative importance of an agreement kept the conference going. It has taken ten years of negotiation after the peace treaty to put Europe in a position to pull herself out of the postwar mess—as strong an argument for the maintenance of peace as could well be made.

Between the League of Nations and the Kellogg-Briand pact, the world ought to be able to avoid such complications in the future, if there is any wisdom in it.

THE DANGEROUS SEX

Deaths reported by the Coroner of Los Angeles county for June showed 174 from natural causes. Automobile accidents that proved fatal came next, with sixty-seven cases. This is a heavy toll for travel. If some folks are not normally overtaken by the grim reaper, they seem to feel peevish about it and take after him. The mad speed at which many travel without any apparent reason may be thus explained.

Forty suicides occurred during that month. Twelve accidental drownings, ten homicides, eight industrial fatalities, seven drunk demises, six incinerations, four reaching the end by the railway route, three passing with poison and two from illegal operations all but complete a rather curious list.

There was but one fatal airplane casualty.

After all the most perilous seems to be the safest. About the only place to enjoy a long life would appear to be up in the sky. How Mr. Cole, the centenarian of Pasadena, managed amid modern traffic is one of the enigmas.

Of a total of 349 deaths for the month of June, the males numbered 244 and the females 105. A record like this in time of war would not be surprising. But even in time of peace it appears to be twice as perilous to be a man as a woman. The masculine is the dangerous sex.

BRUSH COLLEGE

Tuition in Brush College often comes high. And yet about the most liberal education in the world comes from buying consolidated something or other. You are let in on the ground floor and get the A. B. C. degree.

Four special courses are offered in the curriculum. While there are others of varying value, yet the highest priced are found in stocks, oil and gold. When a person has graduated in any of these departments he is fairly qualified to meet the austerities of life.

You buy stocks on a margin and fare forth with friend wife to have a blowout over the prospective new palace and car. Good money follows bad to save the investment and you spend your days in lament and poverty. Some rob the till to meet the demands and languish in Leavenworth.

However, the person who invests in stocks is not cured. A gambler by instinct, he knows the law of averages will bring him out on top in the end. The promoter tells him so. So he buys some wildcat oil stock. A friend knows a well that is being put down by upright citizens of the community. It cannot be crooked. Everything is gilt-edged. However, he does not realize the peculiar way it is spelled at the time. A little more money is needed to sink the dry hole a little deeper. The promoter gets the cash and the good citizen goes out and hangs himself in his garage.

Having lost in both stocks and oil, the victim feels he must recoup somehow. The lane must have a turning. He is a good sport and begins to flirt with gold. A new mine that is a dead-sure thing is recommended by some one in whom he has complete confidence. It is like taking candy from a kid. So he takes a little. The hole is sunk and more funds are needed to buy a stamp mill. There is enough ore on the dump to pay for it. The manager tells him so. He finally sells out for a third of what he put into it.

This is all tuition in the big school of experience. After a few experiences of the kind he is ripe for a diploma. A graduate, he now goes to his banker when he would make an investment and chooses some good bonds that pay about 6 per cent. Lessons are learned, school is out; but the diploma is worth it.

However, there is not much to be said for some of the professors!

TRAFFIC-LAW ENFORCEMENT

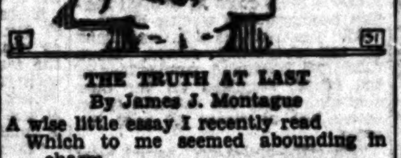
It is one thing to have a traffic law of 200 printed pages and it is another thing to enforce it. Because of its voluminous nature there are many points in the new State motor code which automobile drivers are not heeding. Some of them are not very important, but even important ones are being disregarded particularly those intended to curb the tendency toward reckless driving.

For this reason the California Committee on Public Safety has been delegated to undertake the functions of enforcement. It is hoped that by the aid of the committee the new State code soon will be put in fair running order. This will be done by combining its activities with those of the State-wide Highway Patrol and of automobile associations and other organizations of a civic or semicivic nature.

It is not the intent of the Committee of Public Safety to bear down hard upon motorists in all cases at first. What is most desired is to impress upon all motor-car drivers the fact that they must obey the safety rules, which are few in comparison with the many other regulations. These rules are little different from the old ones of that kind and are based on common sense. Motorists will rarely get into trouble with traffic officers or the courts if they study these simple rules and obey them to the letter. It is only by this regard to the law that the disgraceful number of automobile accidents can be reduced, which, of course, is the main object of motor-law enforcement.

THE SILLY SEASON

Some of the anti-American gossip circulated in Mexico as an opener for the campaign of a radical candidate set forth the statement that Ambassador Morrow had bought the entire State of Morelos with its 200,000 inhabitants for his partner, J. P. Morgan, who would either exploit it in Wall street fashion or use it for private archery practice. If this thing keeps up the only way Jose Vasconcelos can get even is to buy the State of Pennsylvania as a Christmas present for his sweetie.



THE TRUTH AT LAST

By James J. Montague

A wise little essay I recently read
  Which to me seemed abounding in charm.
The author, a man of sagacity, said
  That exercise does a man harm.
That fact, since the days of my earliest youth,
  Has always been patent to me,
But others its useful and obvious truth
  Seem never quite able to see.

Why does not a man have the strength of a horse
  Or a tiger's unquenchable zest?
The question is perfectly simple. Of course
  A man was constructed for rest.
He was not intended to tug at a dray
  Or follow his prey through the trees,
His job is to spend every sunshiny day
  In thinking—but quite at his ease.

The cat needs his exercise, so does the deer,
  And the cause can be easily traced,
Their muscles and limbs must be trained to career
  Through their lifetimes, pursuing or chased.
But a man can recline in a nice easy chair
  Or stretched out in a hammock remain,
And never impose any rough wear and tear—
  Excepting perhaps on his brain.

The cave man, the Viking, the valiant Sir Knight,
  Perhaps had a decent excuse
In taking a wild and abounding delight
  In letting their sinews run loose.
But in building the thing which we think is our mind
  And making it active and fit
I am sure that in time probing science will find
  That exercise helps not a whit.

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

THE recent triumphs of the Midwick polo team in the South and East, climaxing in the winning of two national championships, the intercircuit cup title and the national twelve-goal title, in Chicago—mean more to all us Southern Californians than most of us realize. Polo is the sportsman's sport, the only one entirely free from professionalism or remunerative inducements. It costs you a fortune to maintain a string of polo ponies and achieve the proficiency necessary to play with first-class players. There are several strings of ponies in Southern California which couldn't be bought for $100,000, maintained by men who have never made a penny out of the game and never expect to. They play it for the love of the sport.

New Game to Us

Polo is a new game here. Neil McCarthy, Dr. H. H. Wilson, C. B. Wrightsman and J. Howland Paddock, the four mallet wielders who brought home these two national championships to Southern California, all are local business men who took up the sport within the last five years. McCarthy, the outstanding star of the recent series, is a lawyer who, we are informed, took up the game for his health. Now no game and no strain seems too severe for him.

But it is teamwork which wins for the Midwicks. Every man of the four is a brilliant player and a dashing rider, a sportsman above taking any unfair or even selfish advantage to star in a game. Wherever they have gone they have not only impressed other true sportsmen with the fact that we have crack polo players out here, but that we have gentlemen.

TEAMWORK WINS!

Shocking Our Eastern Friends

People back East simply can't understand such rapid progress in polo—until they think of our climate. Southern California is the only place in America in which polo is played the year around. In winter we have games here at the Midwick Country Club, in summer at the Uplifters Ranch. Without public applause—for the public is just beginning to get interested in polo—they took up the game for the love of it and to establish here another sport which will appeal to the best sportsmen of the rest of the world, and spent their own time and money generously to do it. Year by year they have improved, till this year they won the Pacific Coast twelve-goal championship from the San Mateo Blues. Then in July came a dazzling five-game series with the Uplifters, in which the latter played hard but managed to win only one game. Then the Midwicks went East, playing in a number of southern and eastern cities. In the national polo tournament in Chicago they won the intercircuit cup on August 17 and then proceeded to beat team after team in competition for the twelve-goal championship, winning the finals on August 25.

Stealing Our Stuff

The funny thing is that when the easterners, used to thinking of us westerners as mere infants in the game of polo, witnessed those astonishing exhibitions in competitions in which the Angelenos had to meet the country's best, it was they who began to talk about our climate. It was the only excuse they could make. "Oh, of course," they said, "you can develop some wonderful polo players, when you have the only place in the country where polo is a fine game both winter and summer."

IT'S THE CLIMATE

Give 'Em a Hand

Anyway, we ought to give the Midwicks a rousing welcome home. For this little excursion of theirs is going to bring a lot of eastern poloists out here in the next year or so, and henceforth polo will rank as a really established sport.

NO PERSPECTIVE

BY LANNIE HAYNES MARTIN

There are many who declare that the chronic state of boredom which so universally afflicts modern youth is due to too much leisure, too much liberty, too much money and too little responsibility, but there is another very important factor which enters into this perpetual state of ennui which older people should recognize and for which they should have great sympathy.

For the first time, perhaps, in the history of the world, people born fifty years ago are conditioned in a manner to have more enthusiasm, more wonder, fancy, imagination, anticipation, appreciation, than those born only twenty-five years ago, or less. And all of these qualities named make for happiness, for zest in life, for the exact opposite of boredom.

Youth today, born since the discovery of electricity, since the invention of the telephone and automobile, has no contrasts. Youth is living in a picture without perspective, naturally it is bored. Everything seems flat, and as the young have not seen miracles happen, as we older ones have, they think the world is going to stay just as it is.

Those of us who have lived long enough to have the flat-wick kerosene lamp take the place of tallow candles, who can remember the day when the first big nickel-plated lamp with its perforated cylinder and round wick, known as the argand burner, pushed the little glass flat-wicked lamps off the shelf; those of us who can recall how the whole town celebrated the great event when the gas factory was built and the house was piped for illuminating gas, and that still more marvelous time when the town was wired for electricity and that mysterious light glittered on the same wall where the tallow dip had thrown its flickering ray—we are the ones who know how wonderful life is today!

When I walk down the streets of Los Angeles at night and see the rainbow colors of the neon gas signs, the white and colored moving electric signs and all the flood of light that pours over the city, involuntarily there comes to my mind the picture of a little town in East Tennessee which in my childhood had not a single block of concrete sidewalk, not a single street light, except one big lantern which hung from an iron hook in front of a low, ramshackle frame building, known as the "hotel;" and, of course, the beauty, the wonder, the magic of these lights mean more to me than they possibly could to one who has never stumbled down the dark, narrow, uneven paths of such a village.

How can anyone appreciate a hot tub and a cold shower in a colored tile bathroom who has not had to wait for some one to carry water from the town spring, heat it in big brass kettles and pour it in a tin tub, before a bath could be taken?

At no time in the history of the world before have so many inventions and discoveries come in so short a time, so that those of us who lived in the time before these innovations took place have actually seen the world made over and by the possession of that contrast we have a heritage absolutely unique.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Graining?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

An untrained grainer is worse than a man who doesn't even pretend to do anything beyond painting. For a month after starting to learn this trade, a grainer is not worth any pay, but if he applies himself and has average ability he ought to be worth $15 a week after a month of training.

At the end of a year he should earn $5 or $6 a day if he has any aptitude for this work. After two or three years he becomes a journeyman, making $1 to $2 an hour and maybe $15 a day.

In order to teach this branch of painting to those already in the trade the Frank Wiggins Trade Evening School, Venice Boulevard, between Hill street and Grand avenue, will offer a free course in painting, enameling and graining, beginning September 10. Only men in the trade may join, and for them there is no tuition, the only expense being $1 enrollment fee. Students do not need to take the whole course, but only those features which they especially need.

Those interested should apply in person at the school, between 1 and 9 p.m., September 10 or any school day thereafter. The hours of instruction are 7 to 9 p.m., but the evenings have not yet been decided.

MOVIES FOR LEPERS

When you watch the story unfold on the silver screen does your critical attitude interfere with your enjoyment? Do you wonder, with disgust, if others enjoy the story, the photography and, perhaps, the sound? There are thousands of people on a far-off island who watch every foot of the action and forget their troubles in the story. To them right now 778,000 feet more of film is en route. They are the lepers of the Culion colony in the tropics and the motion pictures are the gift of seven producers, part of the periodical shipment. Movie night is the one gala night of the tragic colony and lasts from sunset to dawn, while the exiles feast their sad eyes on scenes from other lands and times.

Hueneme Harbor

SANTA PAULA, Aug. 27.—[To the Editor of The Times:] As a reader of The Times who would be glad to find its columns at all times truthful and fair, I desire to call your attention to the fact that an absolutely erroneous impression of the facts is conveyed by the following item which appeared as correspondence from Ventura in the "News of Southern Counties" page of The Times of August 27:

"Written and oral protests representing thousands of citizens and taxpayers against the proposed $2,000,000 Hueneme county harbor bond issue occupied the meeting of the Harbor Commissioners at the protest meeting this morning."

As a matter of cold fact, a resolution of protest against the proposed harbor at Hueneme was presented. It carried 1486 signatures.

On the other hand, a resolution or petition cordially and heartily indorsing the plan to build a harbor at Hueneme and commending the Harbor Commissioners for its choice of that place, was also presented. It carried the signatures of 2392 voters and property owners.

It would seem that, in the estimation of the Ventura correspondent at least, the smaller number is of such greater importance than the larger as to completely obliterate the latter.

But unfairness and the telling of but one side of the story never yet won a harbor fight nor any other. H. McPHEE.

A Temperance Team

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I know George Whitcomb of Orange and have read his dry letter this morning with interest. I am wondering if Whitcomb remembers the team that did the most efficient work in Minneapolis for temperance—Rev. W. W. Satterlee and Father McGolrick, Methodist preacher and Roman Catholic priest, and warm friends.

I have heard both men preach antialcohol sermons and there was little choice between them in logic, appeal and force.

I remember well the statement of Father McGolrick, that "From this moment on, no man connected with the liquor business will be received into my church, for it is a traffic without excuse or reason and operates against truth and righteousness, the well-being of humanity and the observance of law."

Rev. Satterlee was a close and loved friend of my family and often spoke to us of his affection and admiration for the priest. They worked in harmony and love, a goodly, godly pair.

A Satirical Wet

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Well, at last, Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt has finished her monologue. And now that it is all over, what did she say that is real news to us?

The remedies to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment she suggests are also old stuff. An editorial published in The Times of August 27 admits it. The editorial states that the Eighteenth Amendment can be stamped out if the will to stamp it out can be aroused and mobilized and that is the principal lesson of Mrs. Willebrandt's series of articles.

Another editorial in The Times states that if Mabel had the task of making the country bone-dry, she would pick the Coast Guard for the heavy work. The boys are young, clean, conscientious and intelligent—likewise most of them are both husky and active. A million of these lads could mop up the country in no time. The trouble is, there aren't enough of them to make a dent.

One thing we can be thankful for. She did not recommend the firing squad. She missed a good bet by overlooking the government marine force. Why not put them on the job in command of Gen. Butler? No doubt they could make a good job of it. And after the Eighteenth Amendment has been fully enforced to the satisfaction of the government, a large majority of the population will be doing time.

ANTON MAZZANOVICH.

Olivera Street Again

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Mayor Porter must be singularly unblessed with imagination and foresight to veto the ordinance closing Olivera street to vehicular traffic.

I visited the Avila adobe several weeks ago and was greatly impressed by the work being done under Mrs. Sterling's able direction. How anyone can fail to see the possibilities of such a street in the midst of Los Angeles is beyond my comprehension.

Other cities older than Los Angeles have taken great pains to preserve historic spots and it seems a shame that we cannot have such a place of our own—that we should be so interested in progress that we lose sight of things having had a part in making progress possible.

Two billion coffee trees in Brazil lead in the production of the world's favorite beverage, producing about 20,000,000 sixty-pound sacks of coffee in a year, as compared to the 8,003,000 sacks furnished by the rest of the world. W. B. J.

Radio Cows to Appear During National Show

Under the influence of radio music, the expectation of several scientists, pseudo or otherwise, is that the animals will deliver a greater cream content. Broadcasters have been requested to have a care lest they sour the milk.

But whether that has anything to do with the story or not, it is a fact that back East several dairies have put radio sets in the cow barns. While the sets were installed to help the milkers laugh off their troubles when popped in the eye by a cow's tail, some of the veterinaries of the vicinity declared the cow's pulses beat more regularly and the milk was better when the music was played.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

By Dr Frank McCoy

author of "The Fast Way to Health"

Dr. McCoy will answer personal questions on health and diet, addressed to him care of the Los Angeles Times. Inclose stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

ARE WOMEN GROWING BALD?

When the bobbed-hair vogue first appeared, there was considerable discussion as to whether it would result in women becoming bald, as many people believed that the frequent cutting of the hair was responsible for the numerous cases of baldness with men. There is no truth in this theory, however, as cutting the hair does not have any tendency toward producing baldness. The loss of hair is always caused by something which affects the nutrition of the hair roots, or by local disease of the scalp.

There is some ground to the belief that the tight hats which men wore a few years ago were responsible for many cases of baldness. If women adopt tight-fitting hats which interfere with the circulation of the hair roots, there may be more cases of baldness among them, too.

Some people have a natural tendency toward longer hair than others because their hair grows more rapidly, or it may become longer because it does not break off as readily because it contains a natural oil which makes it less brittle.

As people grow older, there is a tendency to have less circulation to the top of the head and baldness becomes more common. It might be a good idea for bald-headed people to imitate Father William, who stood on his head every day of his life to keep young.

Dandruff is another frequent cause of baldness. Daily brushing the hair helps to increase the circulation. Circulatory lifting, kneading and pressing the muscles in massage is very beneficial. It is also a good plan to wash the hair at least once a week.

The skull separates the scalp from the brain, and one of the commonest causes of baldness is what is called a tight scalp. The skin of bald-headed people is usually thin, and the bald-headed person cannot, as a rule, wiggle his scalp back and forth.

One with a tight scalp can avoid becoming bald if he will use some method of increasing the scalp circulation. Tonics are practically of no value, but a good treatment is the daily application of ice to the scalp. Hold a piece of ice to the different places of the bald spot until the skin reacts and becomes red. Then massage thoroughly with the fingertips, rubbing in a small amount of cocoanut oil or almond oil. Sunburning the scalp with short treatments from the sunlight or from an actinic ray lamp is also helpful. All vigorous physical culture exercises to increase the general circulation will also be helpful as the blood will then circulate better through the scalp as well as the rest of the body.

It is important to use all of the foods containing silicon, which is the principal mineral usually lacking in defective hair growth. A list of the foods richest in silicon is as follows. Asparagus, cucumbers, lettuce, bran, dandelion, parsnips, fruit skins, strawberries and beets.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Trouble with Stomach

Question: Mrs. H. G. F. writes: "I have a place at the top of my stomach on the right side that gives me some trouble, something like the colic, every month. Can you tell me what it is and the remedy? I am very stout, weigh about 240 pounds. Can you tell me something to reduce my weight?"

Answer: The distress you have on your right side may be due to gall bladder trouble, to stomach irritation, or to colitis in the hepatic flexure of the colon. As you are overweight, the sensible thing to do is to diet to reduce your weight, and your symptoms will no doubt disappear while on the diet, which is necessary for you to take to bring about a satisfactory weight reduction. Space in this column is limited, but I will be glad to send you complete instructions on how to reduce.

Ice Cream and Fruits

Q.: Health seeker asks: "May ice cream or fruit be eaten between meals without interferring with digestion?"

A.: Fruit and ice cream must be considered real foods and should therefore be used in place of a meal, or may be used in addition to a meal if combined with those foods with which they are harmonious.

Erysipelas

Q.: J. L. asks: "Is erysipelas a blood or a skin disease? What is the cause and cure of this disease?"

A.: I consider the true cause of erysipelas to be an acidosis produced through the use of wrong food. It is true there is a particular bacterium associated with this disease, but this micro-organism cannot live in a body free from acidosis.

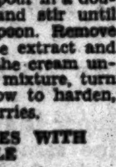
CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES



Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

MEAT CURRY

Take three cupfuls of cooked left-over meat, chop fine, and add one finely chopped medium-sized onion, one small clove of garlic chopped fine, two teaspoonfuls of finely chopped parsley, one large tomato cut in dice, one-half of a chopped green pepper, and one tablespoonful (level) of curry powder, mix all together, season with salt, and pepper, a fourth of a teaspoonful of nutmeg, a half a teaspoonful of thyme, and one bay leaf; take one egg, beat well and add a fourth of a cupful of cream to the egg, mix with the other ingredients, divide in even sized pieces, and make into cake form, roll in flour, place in a baking pan, four tablespoonfuls of butter, place the cakes in this, put in a medium oven and bake until brown on both sides. Place in a saute pan one tablespoonful of butter, add a tablespoonful of flour, and when bubbling add a half cupful of broth. Stir until thick, season with a teaspoonful of curry powder, a seasoning of salt, a few grains of cayenne pepper, and a small piece of lemon rind, one small tomato, chopped fine, one finely chopped, green onion, one-half of a chopped clove of garlic, and a fourth of a teaspoonful of thyme, mix well, and let simmer slowly for twenty minutes. Place in the center of a serving dish mound of rice, arrange the meat cakes around it, strain the sauce over it and serve.

CREAM PUDDING

One-half of a cupful of powdered sugar, the yolks of five eggs, one-half a cupful of milk, one tablespoonful of gelatine, one-fourth of a cupful of cold water, one cupful of whipped cream, one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, soften the gelatine in the water for a few minutes, beat the yolks of the eggs to a cream and add the sugar and beat until light, add the milk and the softened gelatine, pour in a double-boiler and cook and stir until the mixture coats a spoon. Remove from the fire, add the extract and allow to cool. Whip the cream until stiff, fold into the mixture, turn into a mold, and allow to harden, serve with crushed berries.

SWEET POTATOES WITH PINEAPPLE

Six small sweet potatoes, and one-third as much pineapple, one-third of a cupful of honey and one-fourth of a cupful of water, boil the potatoes, with the skins on, cool, peel, and cut them in pieces, about one-quarter of an inch thick, mix the honey and the hot water, cover the bottom of the baking dish with a honey mixture, add a layer of the sweet potatoes on top of it, the pineapple, and continue until all the potatoes and pineapple have been used, pour the remaining honey mixture over them, dot with bits of butter and bake until the potatoes are brown.

PEACH DUMPLINGS WITH WHIPPED CREAM

Take the required number of free stone peaches, pour boiling water over them and dip them in cold water and remove the skins, make an incision in the stem end and carefully remove the stones, roll out a piece of rich pie crust, one-fourth of an inch thick, cover the peaches with this paste, tuck the paste in where the stone has been removed and bake in a slow oven until the peaches are tender. Just before serving, fill the center of the peach with whipped cream, sweetened and flavored with a few drops of almond extract.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, PRACTICAL RECIPES, published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

AIR TRAVEL BOON TO SIGHTLESS

Tediousness of Journey Cut to Minimum, Says Blind Educator on Trip

"Air travel is a boon to the blind, because the tediousness of the long hours of other forms of transportation is cut down to such a short period," according to Miss E. B. Smith of 944 West Thirtieth street, as she stepped into the cabin of a Western Air Express plane for the trip to San Francisco yesterday. She has been blind for fifteen years. Miss Smith has been principal of the Castelar school for the past eighteen years.

The regular steward aboard the plane devoted practically all his time explaining in detail the picturesque terrain between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

BY MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply. This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb-sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

TYPE OF THUMB SUCKING MAKES IT HARMFUL OR HARMLESS

There are all kinds of thumb-sucking babies. Some babies find their thumbs before they have been fed and some have them in their mouths from the minute they are born. Just because the habit has a low sensory stimulation, babies acquire it easily and the habit becomes fixed. The more nervous the baby the more readily will he acquire one or many nervous habits.

If the baby hasn't acquired the habit before the fourth month, this is the time at which he is most apt to develop it. There is far too much hair tearing because of thumb sucking. If a baby sucks his thumb only when going to sleep he should be allowed to indulge himself in the habit. He can't really hurt himself doing this and if left alone it is more than possible that he'll simply outgrow the habit. But when the mother draws his attention to it by using every known means of frustration, then the baby becomes determined to have that thumb or know the reason why. As most mothers can tell you, baby is practically always the winner.

There are certain types of babies for whom thumb sucking is a really serious habit. These are the thin, under-nourished children, who are victims of rickets. Their bones are soft and the vigor and constancy with which they suck their thumbs and press them up against the roofs of their mouths is sufficient to cause real damage to the arch of the mouth—and the alignment of the teeth.

Just because the thumb sucker is soothed by the indulgence in this habit he tends to become uninterested in what is going on about him. Notice a thumb-sucking child. He has a vacant expression almost as if he had taken a narcotic. Then there is the other type of thumb sucker who sucks upon thumb or fingers so violently that one can hear him across the room. This last child is seldom seen without a thumb in his mouth. It is impossible for a child to develop normally when he runs around with a thumb in his mouth. There are very few activities in which a child can engage when so hampered, so that one must look beyond the habit itself and realize its limiting qualities. The child must have constantly enlarging interests in order that this mentality may be stimulated.

Authorities differ as to the methods for curing the persistent thumb sucker. One authority suggested (much to the horror of his modern audience) that the child be given a pacifier and after the transfer from one habit to the other had been made to take the pacifier away. He didn't suggest what should be done if the child went back to sucking his thumb again!

Wrapping the thumb of the small baby with adhesive is as effective a method as I know. If begun when the habit starts (not at bedtime) the child will find it impossible to pop this big thumb in his mouth and will have to turn his attention elsewhere. The older child needs an entire rearrangement of his surroundings and a development of new and more powerful interests that shall wean him away from his habit.

Summer School Sessions Close

Today marks the close of the 1929 summer school of the University of Southern California. According to Dr. Lester B. Rogers, 5306 students attended, an increase of 388 over last year.

The students represented fifty-five California counties, all of the forty-eight States and twenty-three nationalities. Japan and Canada led in numbers of foreign students, with Mexico and China following. Other countries represented are England, Russia, Germany, Armenia, Chile, Spain, Scotland, Argentina, Denmark, France, Guatemala, India, Ireland, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Peru, Poland, Scotland, Hawaii and the Philippines.

SOUTHLAND HOLDS LURE FOR GERMAN

Oil Company Agent Loath to Return to Hamburg; Friends Society Praised

Herr Joachim Von Ernst, former military attache at the German embassy at Washington, later German consul at San Francisco and now representative in Germany of the Richfield Oil Company, arrived here yesterday en route to his home at Hamburg. He is a guest at the Biltmore.

The German visitor waxed enthusiastic yesterday during an interview over the success of the recently organized Society of Friends of the United States in Hamburg, of which he is a director and which numbers in its membership many of Germany's commercial and industrial leaders.

The club, founded by Hamburg's burgomeister, Herr Pedersen, has flourished and has done much, Herr Von Ernst said, to cement friendships between Americans and Germans during the post-war period. Its president is Mendelssohn Bartholdi, member of one of Europe's oldest families and an internationally known scientist. Beginning with a membership of approximately 300 commercial, industrial and professional men of Hamburg, the club has grown rapidly in size and scope of influence and has been a strong factor in establishing new commercial relations between the United States and Germany, Von Ernst said.

"I have been treated with such genuine friendliness since my arrival here two months ago that I am loath to return to Germany," Herr Von Ernst declared. "But I am carrying back many fine memories of California and Californians and when, if the time ever comes, I am able to retire from active business life, I should like to come to Southern California to live."

The visitor plans to leave for New York in a few days, from which port he will sail for Germany.

JAIL TERM FOR MAKER OF 'REMEDY'

John Peterson Sentenced to One Year in Cell for Mislabeling Medicine

John S. Peterson, recently found guilty by a jury of misbranding and mislabeling medicine, was sentenced yesterday by Municipal Judge Sheldon to serve one year in the City Jail. Peterson gave notice of appeal, on which Judge Sheldon fixed bail of $3750.

Chief Deputy City Prosecutor McGann, who handled the trial for the city, introduced as his chief witness August Glaive, State chemist, who testified that the "blood-purifying remedy" sold by Peterson at from $3 to $5 a bottle consisted of drinking water with salt or borax added. Robert G. Wray, inspector for the State Health Board, declared that Peterson has been selling the "remedy" for thirteen years at 426 South Main street. Among his patrons, Wray declares, are several prominent Angeleños, including a Municipal Court judge.

Women Banking Executives Will Have Convention

Women banking executives from every State in the Union will assemble in San Francisco September 30 to attend the seventh annual convention of the Association of Bank Women, which meets simultaneously with the national convention of the American Bankers' Association. According to Miss Grace Stoermer, regional vice-president of the association, Southern California will send ten delegates.

The Association of Bank Women has a membership of 250. Among those who will attend are Miss Julia McBeth, assistant secretary of the Security-First National Bank; Miss Grace Stoermer, director of the woman's banking department of the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association; Mrs. Oda Falconer, director of the San Fernando branch of that institution, and Mrs. M. E. Bonham, assistant cashier of the Security National Bank of Riverside. Only women in executive positions are eligible to membership.

A luncheon and formal banquet at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel on Sunday, September 30, with Mrs. Kathleen Norris and Mrs. Florence P. Kahn as speakers, will constitute the social opening events of the session.

Among those who will assist Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight, chairman of the general convention committee, are Miss Genevieve E. Scheid, American Trust Company; Miss Margaret Dailey, Miss Gertrude Kieferdorf, Miss May V. Musgrove and Miss Dorothy Ferguson, Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association; Miss Frances Andlovic, Anglo-California Trust Company; Mrs. Mabel A. Laurie, Mrs. Julia Rossow, Anglo and London-Paris National Bank; Miss Margaret Downing, San Francisco Bank, and Miss Helen Kavanaugh, Wells Fargo Bank and Union Trust Company.

Veteran Wins Large Award

George Blair, war veteran, who suffered a fractured skull in an automobile accident in Downey March 14, last, was awarded damages of $30,000 against J. G. Johnson, Whittier druggist, by a jury in Superior Judge Norton's court late yesterday.

Witnesses summoned by Joseph L. Fainer, attorney for the plaintiff, testified that Johnson was at fault in the collision, and was exceeding the speed limit at the intersection of Second and College avenue, where the accident occurred. Blair's 80-year-old mother was in court but did not testify. The plaintiff sued for $75,000.

John B. Hydell Laid to Rest

Funeral services were conducted yesterday for John B. Hydell, who served the city of Los Angeles twenty-seven years as assistant safety and plumbing inspector.

Mr. Hydell, who was 63 years of age, leaves a widow, two sons, George V. and Marion K. Hydell, the latter being a deputy in the same city department over which his father acted as assistant chief for many years. Death occurred after a protracted illness.

The services were conducted at Garrett Brothers' Mortuary, 921 Venice Boulevard, under the auspices of Golden State Lodge No. 358, F.&A.M., and interment was in Rosedale Cemetery.

Beauty Show's Aims Exlained

The growth of the cosmetic industry since the war to its present status as fifth in United States commerce will be celebrated at the first annual National Beauty Show presented by the American Salon of Beauty Arts in the Ambassador Auditorium, October 5 to 12. It will be emphasized that beauty culture no longer is a luxury but a necessity in feminine progress, according t oofficers. Aiming to raise the scientific standard of beauty-culture technique, beauty exponents will demonstrate and lecture, according to Alexander Swan II, business manager of the Los Angeles Hairdressers' and Cosmetologists' Association, which is sponsoring the eight-day show.

Painter Killed in Fall When Scaffold Slips

Striking the pavement head first when he fell from a narrow scaffold two stories high, Pat McLean, 45 years of age, a painter, was killed instantly yesterday afternoon.

A fellow-workman, H. H. Swan of 1527 West Twenty-third street, jumped when the scaffold slipped and was not hurt. The two men were painting a house at 1315 South Harvard Boulevard. McLean, it is stated, lost his balance when the scaffold slipped loose at one end. The body was removed to the County Morgue.

McLean lived at 5300 Sierra Vista avenue.

FUNERAL CONDUCTED FOR FRANCIS TRIGG

Funeral services were conducted at the Little Church of the Flowers yesterday for Francis George Trigg, retired manufacturer of Youngstown, O., a resident of Los Angeles since 1927. Interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Mr. Trigg was 74 years of age. He resided at 338 South New Hampshire avenue. He leaves his widow, five sons, D. C., Frederick William and Francis L. Trigg of Youngstown, Bruce Wallace Trigg of Los Angeles and Richard Trigg of Dallas, Tex., and five daughters, Mrs. Helen Jones of Youngstown, and Mrs. Paul Koehler and Misses Marie, Florence and Edith Trigg of Los Angeles.

If gravy is to be judged on flavor you wouldn't make gallons at a time

You can "season to taste" a pint of gravy much more accurately. For a similar reason Hills Bros. roast only a few pounds of coffee at a time, instead of in bulk, by their patented, continuous process—Controlled Roasting. The flavor is actually controlled always. No other coffee can taste like Hills Bros. Coffee because none is roasted the same way.

COCKTAIL WAR AT OXFORD

Authorities at Oxford University, in England, are waging a war against excessive cocktail drinking by the students. As the result of heavy drinking parties recently several of the undergraduates have been gated and fined. Beer is still the undergrads' staple drink, however, one "eight" recently putting down twenty-five pints at a sitting. In the English women's colleges prohibition still rules, and cocoa and lemonade are the favorite drinks.

Girl Plays Sixty Bells

Said to be the youngest bell player in the world, 20-year-old Violet Carrier gave at Loughborough on a recent Sunday the first public bell recital given in England by a woman. She delighted a large crowd gathered around the war memorial tower in Queen's Park with her masterly manipulation of the sixty bells, the largest of which weighs more than four tons. Miss Carrier has had a year's training under the borough carillonneur.

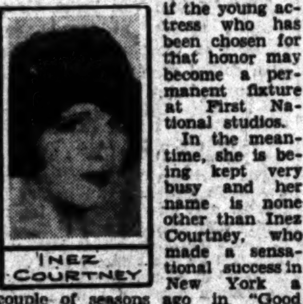
"GOOD NEWS" STAR WINS LEAD

Well-Known Concert Singer to Make Debut With Pathe; Three-Year-Old Player Is Signed on Contract; Champion Rodeo Stars Appear in Westerns

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

It is all settled finally who will play the leading feminine role in "Spring Is Here," for First National.



INEZ COURTNEY

Also it looks as if the young actress who has been chosen for that honor may become a permanent fixture at First National studios.

In the meantime, she is being kept very busy and her name is none other than Inez Courtney, who made a sensational success in New York a couple of seasons ago in "Good News," and who has just finished her first picture role in "Loose Ankles," produced by First National.

Miss Courtney will be especially valuable in "Spring Is Here," think company officials, due to the fact that she played the same role in the stage version of the Owen Davis play opposite Glenn Hunter in New York last season.

Incidentally, First National is looking for a new given name for Inez Courtney. Officials consider the name Inez does not sufficiently fit her pep and piquancy. Louise Fazenda has suggested the name Sheila Courtney, and it looks now as if Sheila she may become.

FRED SCOTT SIGNS PATHE CONTRACT

Now it is Fred Scott, noted in musical circles both locally and in the East, who has cast his lot with the films.

Although Mr. Scott has never appeared on either the stage or the screen other than singing in concert performances, he is now to make his picture debut with Pathe, following various tests of many singers for the role which he is to essay. This part is the leading male character opposite Helen Twelvetrees in "The Grand Parade," a minstrel story, which Fred Newmeyer will direct.

It is likely, we understand, that Scott will be placed under a long-term contract with Pathe.

Juvenile Player With Gloria

It isnt' often that a baby player of 3 years of age is given a film contract of such length that by the time it is finished the youngster will have started to acquire his second teeth.

WALLY ALBRIGHT

But that is what has happened to little Wally Albright, who appeared in Gloria Swanson's latest United Artists' picture, "The Trespassers," and whose work was considered so good by the star that she persuaded officials to sign him on a long-term contract.

Little Wally was selected in the first place from two-score juvenile contenders for the child role in the Swanson picture. And when he had finished his work, Miss Swanson was so enthusiastic that she decided to keep him on her staff.

The child has been in pictures ever since he was a year old, making quite a success in kid roles in M.-G.-M., Paramount and Universal films.

Westerns Are Vocal Now

Just because pictures have gone talker is no reason why lovers of western films are to be cheated out of their favorite fare. Since it has been found possible to make sound pictures out of doors, westerns are again being produced.

ART ACORD

The newest organization to undertake the making of films of the wide open spaces is the J. Charles Davis Productions, which has just signed four former rodeo champions to long-time contracts.

The signers are Yakima Canutt, Art Mix, Buff Jones and Art Acord, who will individually star in a total of twenty-six westerns to be made this year.

Little Marilyn Mills, skilled horsewoman and former stunt rider for the women stars, has also been signed to appear in eight specials in which the trained horses, Star and Beverly, will be featured.

Patty Dupont Among Us

Probably you remember Patty Dupont, who appeared in Von Stroheim's "Foolish Wives." Also it is likely that Hollywood remembers Syl Stokes, Virginia millionaire, who came west and appeared in several pictures, and who married Miss Dupont and carried her away to his ancestral halls.

You will be pleased to know that Stokes and his wife are in town. They are at the Ambassador, but are leaving for the east in a day or two. Miss Dupont's mother is ill, and the former actress came west especially to see her.

PATTY DUPONT

While in Germany, Stokes received an offer of a long-term contract to play leads in U. F. A. pictures, but declined.

George Fawcett Busy

George Fawcett is busy these days. He has just been signed for a leading role in "Ghost City Whispers," a short subject of a series which Robert Bruce is producing and also directing. The pictures are being made at Metropolitan studios and are shown on the Paramount program.

The company will leave Tuesday for location near Yosemite.

Vernon Rickard Assists

Vernon Rickard, well-known radio singer, flew to Fresno yesterday to be present at the dedication of the new Warner Brothers Studio in that city. He will sing several numbers, and will also broadcast from the north.

Two With Duncans

Oscar Apfel and George Davis are the latest prominent players to be signed for "Cotton and Silk," the new Duncan sisters' vehicle which Sam Wood is directing for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Apfel, one of the first film directors, gave up his megaphone three years ago to devote himself to character acting. George Davis is a former Educational comedy star.

CHIEF DAVIS OFF TO SNARE FISH

He Heads for High Sierras on Impromptu Vacation of Ten Days' Duration

A brand new limit of fish stories will be brought back to this city ten days from today when Chief of Police Davis ends an impromptu vacation. Armed with six different sets of fishing poles, a complete outfit of flies and an expression of ferocity, the Chief left yesterday for Silver Lake in the high Sierras.

Curtain Rings Down on Bowl Presentations

Whether by design or by accident, Bruno Walter has compiled a program for tonight's farewell concert of the summer symphony season at Hollywood Bowl which could hardly be richer in sentimental value as applied to the occasion.

Opening the last orchestral treat of the season, Bruno Walter will direct with true insight into a fellow-countryman's score the highly inventive overture of Engelbert Humperdinck's "Haensel and Gretel." Other pioneer works in a Bowl sense on the program are the bacchanale from Camille Saint-Saens' opera "Samson and Delilah," the overture to Otto Nicolai's "Merry Wives of Windsor," and two bracketed Johann Strauss offerings, the concert waltz, "Tales of the Vienna Woods," and the overture of "The Gypsy Baron."

Further enriching a program of distinctly "old home week" proclivities are two Bowl premieres, Felix Mottl's arrangement of various operatic themes from the pen of Christoph von Gluck, and Franz Von Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody No. 1.

Outdoor Scenes of 'Lucky Star' Filmed Inside

Although practically all of the scenes in "Lucky Star," a current screen attraction at the Criterion Theater, are laid out-of-doors, not one of them was actually taken outside of the four walls of the Fox Movietone studio. The task of constructing and designing whole countrysides within the studio fell to Harry Oliver, Fox art director.

One of the principal reasons for making the Janet Gaynor-Charles Farrell talking picture indoors was the fact that it was necessary to depict the outdoor scenes in varying seasons. In one part of the picture the little down-East farm is shown blanketed with snow. In another it is drenched in a rainstorm, and in still another it is bathed in sunshine. All of this, as well as the night scenes, would have been immensely more difficult if the company had gone to the actual locale of the story, it is said.

RHAPSODY OF RAVEL WINS APPROVAL

Walter Proves Adept in French Impressionism; Dancers Charm

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

The last soloists' night of the Hollywood Bowl season was considerably interrupted, first by unmanageable traffic, which delayed players and public, and, second, by an appeal for funds. Up to the time of the intermission, which occurred at 10 o'clock, the most significant and worth-while happening on this Friday night program was a superlative presentation of Ravel's "Rhapsodie Espagnole," conducted by Bruno Walter. Norma Gould and her pupils had "interpreted" the Schubert Unfinished Symphony and were intending to dance the "Nutcracker Suite," by Tschaikowsky, under the direction of Sylvain Noack, later in the evening, after it became necessary to leave. Dvorak's Carnival overture was programmed for the finale.

The Bowl was filled to the much-discussed brim with the largest crowd of the season. Many went home during the intermission. The bid for subscriptions introduced by Mrs. Leiland Atherton Irish during intermission and continued by Hugo Kirchhofer, was to raise a fund of $30,000 to buy a house which overlooks the Bowl and spoils its natural beauty. Several thousands were subscribed.

It was generally understood that the Bowl rim had been perpetually preserved by the original group led by Mrs. Christine Stevenson several years ago. Not until recently when realty firms began advertising the property for sale and the construction of obtruding houses began, did the public realize the menace. It has been a grave disappointment and it is to be hoped that the mistake will soon be rectified.

Bruno Walter's Ravel forever dispelled any doubt of his breadth of vision. The work is thoroughly Latin and very modern Latin at that. Ravel has pictured the romantic lure of Spain in modern impressionistic vein and Herr Walter read it with keen delight. He sees Ravel as he really is, a painter with a full orchestral pallette. The work was all too short as he played it.

Truly it has been said of a great conductor that "he can give wings to sloths, can quicken mummies and lift the leaden feet" and Bruno Walter is a great conductor. The men of the Bowl orchestra are far from sloths or mummies but many leaden feet made their way up to the Bowl in the crowd and the heat last night and he lifted up the people with his revivifying conducting.

It was a novelty enjoyed by many to hear Sylvain Noack conduct for the ballet and the two movements of the Schubert symphony, which had been conceived in a religious-allegorical mood by Miss Norma Gould had a certain spring-like charm. The Gould dancers were young and lovely to look at and their costumes were appropriate for the midsummer evening. A certain simplicity akin to the Greek dances of Isadora Duncan prevailed throughout, but the symphony was too long for the limited number of plastic ideas presented. I remember having much the same impression of paucity of ideas from Maud Allan's interpretations with the Philharmonic a few years ago, but she did not have the advantage of youthful beauty and the charming amateur spirit which prevails among the Gould dancers.

Tonight the Bowl season will close with a fine popular program by Bruno Walter. It will be his farewell and thousands will regret it, for he touches the trained and the casual listener with the same magic wand.

Orpheum Offers Celebration of 'Home-Towners'

The current bill at the Orpheum Theater, starting today, is practically a "home-towners'" celebration. Ruth Mix and Betty Blythe, who jointly share headline honors, have been identified with local productions for years. Miss Blythe has long been a star on the screen and is best remembered for her portrayal of the leading role in "The Queen of Sheba." Miss Mix is the daughter of the noted western film star, Tom Mix, and has been raised and educated here.

Sammy Cohen, another local product, entered the theater world in local presentations and also has been appearing in motion pictures. The Rangers, a vocal septet, which is one of the features of Ruth Mix's Rodeo Revue, was organized in Los Angeles and played at several theaters here before going east.

Other important feature acts on the Orpheum bill which cannot be included among the home-town contingent, but are also well known in Los Angeles, are Jed Dooley, assisted by Audree Evans in "Remarks Befitting the Occasion;" Ray Cummings with Florence Roberts in "One Afternoon;" the eight Gamby-Hale girls; Toby Tobias and his orchestra; Snowball, a colored dancer, and Douglas-Wright and company in "The Handicap."

Vacation Hopes Go Glimmering

When "The Big Pond" closed Robert McWade thought he might have a vacation. His hopes were dashed when his brother, Edward McWade, brought him the part of Eliphalet Potter in "She Couldn't Say No," and had him hold it while he learned the lines.

For the first time since the two brothers went on the stage they are having a real reunion. The families of both are away on summer holidays and the two are keeping house in regular bachelor fashion. Edward is playing the rural character in the farce comedy in which Charlotte Greenwood appears as guest star with the Henry Duffy Players at El Capitan.

HOLMES SELECTED

Phillips Holmes, former Princeton undergraduate who joined the ranks of screen juveniles less than a year ago, has been chosen for the juvenile lead in Paramount's forthcoming production of "The Return of Sherlock Holmes."

WILL ROGERS FILM LISTED

Beverly Hills is said to be making unusual preparations for the gala world premiere of Will Rogers's "They Had to See Paris," which will take place at the Carthay Circle Theater September 18, next.

The Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce is organizing committees to see that the former Mayor of the city has as his audience virtually every prominent resident of the millionaire motion-picture colony.

The Oklahoma and Texas State societies also will be well represented at the premiere. The personnel of the Uplifters' and Midwick clubs, the Panhandle Society of Texas, the presidents and officers of several oil companies and a special Irene Rich party from Pasadena already have requested reservations.

Never in the history of the Carthay Circle has there been such a heavy advance demand for seats, it is reported. The talking-picture debut of Will Rogers will have some unusual features far different from the ordinary, it is said. One of New York's greatest stage stars, who has not been seen on a local stage in years, will be master of ceremonies.

Estabrook Will Start Work on 'Hell's Angels'

Howard Estabrook, Paramount scenarist, is to write the talking version of "Hell's Angels" for Howard Hughes, which goes into immediate production.

This important announcement made by the owner of Caddo Productions is of special significance, it is said, since numerous reports have been prevalent that Hughes was experiencing extreme difficulty in contracting with a writer possessed of unusual creative ability; a qualification essential in order to create a talking version of this production which will equal, if not surpass, the silent finished product.

Credited with contributing in no small measure to the ultimate success at the box-office of such outstanding Paramount talking hits as "Shopworn Angel," "Four Feathers," and numerous others, Estabrook, through his creative performances, is said to occupy an enviable niche in the industry as a writer.

Tenth Season of Biblical Drama Closes Tonight

Tonight's presentation will bring to an end the 1929 season of the Pilgrimage Play. It is an important occasion for the sponsors of the colorful biblical drama, in that it marks the successful completion of ten years of production.

Players of the cast of the spectacular play are preparing to celebrate the decade of achievement by giving the finest performance of which they are capable tonight and by holding a jubilation back stage on the conclusion of the final performance.

Southern California's open-air Oberammergau has established new records during the six weeks' season and has attracted distinguished visitors from afar. Success of the 1929 season gives assurance that the play will be produced next year on an even more elaborate scale than the present presentation.

Post Receives Screen Offer

Guy Bates Post, guest star with the Henry Duffy Players at the Hollywood Playhouse, in "The Masquerader," had been approached by officials of the Paramount company with a proposition to make an advance trailer for the talking picture, "The Virginian."

Post created the role of Steve, the cowboy, in the original production of the stage play on Broadway, a part which brought him into prominence after a career as a Shakespearean actor with Otis Skinner. Other contracts prevented him from playing Steve in the talkie version of the play, the part being offered him at the time it was decided to remake the story. Thus far Post has not decided whether or not to appear in the advance trailer.

NEW TALKIE STARTS

Adolphe Menjou talks, sings and plays the piano in "Fashions of Love," Paramount's latest all-talking feature, which is showing at the Alhambra. Miriam Seegar and Fay Compton, noted English actresses, provide the love interest. Victor Schertzinger directed, and also composed the two songs which are introduced, "Delphine" and "I Still Believe in You." The supporting program of short subjects includes Fox Movietone News, "Humorous Flights," a comedy, and a song novelty.

Revue Proves Chief Item on Million Bill

The combined program of stage shows and talking pictures is proving a hot weather formula for packed houses, judging from the capacity audience which greeted "Joyland Revue," on the stage, and "The Flying Fool," starring William Boyd, on the screen, at the Million Dollar.

Eddie Brown, clowning youth in baggy trousers and collegiate jacket, heads the cast of the "Joyland Revue" in the role of master of ceremonies. His "Magic Rose," with two of the Million Dollar show girls as foils, brought many laughs. A comic ditty, "I'll Do Anything For You," drew several encores.

Costumed in Parisian stage wear, Gray Buckner and Madge Messley contributed a waltz fantasy, a fast tap dance, and a slow motion number. The Three White Kuhns coaxed music and comedy from a bass viol, a guitar, and a banjo. Joseph Lee, violinist, and Urban Thielman, organist, offered selections from light operas, and the Arantos, European novelty act, performed difficult head balancing stunts. The Million Dollar show girls appeared in a Chinese parasol number, a specialty waltz, a sailor's hornpipe, and a Dutch wooden shoe dance.

Newspaper Life Shown in Film at Hillstreet

"Big News," Pathe's all-talking and riotous newspaper film, comes to the Hillstreet Theater today, marking the start of the final week before the closing in preparation for the gala reopening as the RKO Theater.

Robert Armstrong is starred in "Big News," with Carol Lombard heading a brilliant cast of talking players. The RKO stage show will include Edith Evans and Ray Mayer, Countess Sonia and her "Revue Intimate," the Briants, Cora Green and the Wonder Girl.

Chinese Makes Substitution of Guest Artists

Due to sudden and unexpected location calls, the motion-picture celebrities announced for tonight's midnight matinee at Grauman's Chinese Theater will be unable to appear.

The management, however, has gathered together a banner array of vaudeville and screen artists, it is announced. Many friends of these performers, prominent on stage and screen, have signified their intention of being present to do their bit in the way of a proper reception. With this matinee of the "Hollywood Revue of 1929," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer hit enters its eleventh week.

LIONS PICTURED

BLACK MAGIC USED IN CORDOVA DRAMA

The strange, mangled intellect of Capt. Adolph, struggling against its final self-destruction, tinges "The Father" with a dark brooding. Into this play of his, presented by the Cordova Playshop, August Strindberg brings no light, no relief from the horror stifling each one of his characters. Unpleasant, abnormal, this Scandanavian masterpiece holds one by its black fascination.

Laura, attracted to Adolph by motherly pity, finds marriage turning love to hate. Her bitterness conceives a torture, similar to pagan voodooism. Using their child as her weapon, she twists her husband's mind with doubt as to his parentage. This child to him is his conception of immortality. That destroyed, there is nothing left. By planting the seed of insanity in his mind and throughout the village, Laura, the shrew, seeks domination over him and her daughter. Her obsession is almost appeased by the ultimate crumbling of her husband's mentality. But from out of the chaos, instinct, sharpened by hatred, finds a way to thwart her passion. With the last spark of sanity, Adolph escapes by dying from sheer spite.

The tremendous task of carrying such a play is undertaken by Sheldon Lewis, who only at times allows it to get beyond his grasp.

With an understanding of the two-sided Laura, Rose Tapley displays a force which, nevertheless, lacks in delicate shading.

A note of simple sincerity is struck by Farrah Bisson, responsible for the smoothest characterization of the evening. The remaining members of the family are drawn by Edith Agins, Jack Barron, LeRoy Jones, Mortimer and I. Colodny.

Ralph Herman presents "The Father" next week through Saturday night, which should give the cast time to overcome a decided uneasiness that weakened an opening performance.

Holmes Seen in Both Stage and Film Comedies

Although Taylor Holmes is best known here for his starring engagements in "No, No, Nanette," "The Whole Town's Talking" and "The Great Necker," the noted actor was one of the first comedians to be starred in motion pictures. Holmes, now appearing as guest star at the President in "The Sap," with the Henry Duffy Players, appeared for two years in a series of comedies.

Among the best known of his screen successes were "Ruggles of Red Gap," "A Pair of Sixes," "Nothing But the Truth," "Efficiency Edgar's Courtship," "Two-Bit Seats," and others. He starred in the first film version of the farce, "The Very Idea."

Although Holmes has returned to his first love, the stage, his son Philip is now playing juvenile roles in the talkies, while the comedian recently was offered a two years' contract in the films. He may accept following his present engagement in "The Sap."

Poland Writes College Story

"The Sophomore," the Leo McCarey-William M. Conselman production starring Eddie Quillan, which has scored decisively at both Paramount houses in Brooklyn and New York, is the screen story of Joseph Franklin Poland. Poland, who has won a notable standing as result of his production of many leading Douglas MacLean, Reginald Denny and Laura La Plante vehicles, adapted the Corey Ford story to the screen for Quillan.

Poland's original story and dialogue, in collaboration with Ray Harris, of "Sailor's Holiday," in which Alan Hale is starred, starts at the New R.K.O. theater within the month.

Events Planned at Montmartre

Inaugurating the fall season, a new series of Wednesday-night events has been planned for the Montmartre. Each Wednesday evening will be dedicated to a prominent motion-picture star, with a special program arranged in honor of the celebrity.

Proff. Moore and his Montmartre orchestra are providing the dance music at the Hollywood cafe, and during the week will offer original divertissements. Moore, who has a large following, is considered to be one of the finest orchestra leaders in the country.

Belasco Actors to Hold Picnic

Determined to have a Labor Day celebration despite the fact that they are giving a matinee and evening performance, the cast of "The Little Accident," now nearing the end of their engagement at the Belasco Theater, have decided to hold a picnic after the matinee in the green room of the theater.

The theater property man has promised to cover the floor with grass mats and has even arranged for a papier-mache tree to be brought up from the Belasco warehouse. Tablecloths will be spread on the imitation greensward and the usual picnic luncheon served.

Bacon Finishes Warner Picture

Plans for the next few weeks for Lloyd Bacon are indefinite, following completion today of "She Couldn't Say No," starring Winnie Lightner, for Warner Brothers.

Another assignment is expected momentarily from Darryl Zanuck, Warner production head, and meanwhile Bacon sails for a week's cruise in the Santa Barbara channel island group in his power yacht, Mammy.

"LABOR" TOPIC FOR SUNDAY

That Theme Will be Featured Tomorrow With Many Preachers Extolling Workers

"That, ladies and gentlemen, is the church which, at three meetings, raised $635,000 to pay off its indebtedness. The great church plant, one of the finest religious educational institutions in the world, is valued at $2,000,000." Those are the words often voiced by the guides on the "rubber-neck" busses as they pass Immanuel Presbyterian Church on Wilshire Boulevard and Berendo street.

Immanuel is the second largest Presbyterian Church in the United States, with a membership of 4000, the last member to have joined being Andrew Stevenson, business man who recently moved to Los Angeles from Chicago. Mr. Stevenson will be one of the speakers at a Fellowship supper to be given at the church at 6:15 p.m. next Wednesday. Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor of the church for the last twelve years, will give an account of his vacation trip to Alaska. The supper is to be in celebration of the attainment of the 4000 membership goal. Dr. Smith will be in charge of services tomorrow, preaching in the morning on the subject "Is It Harder to be a Christian in Alaska Than in Los Angeles?" The topic for the evening discourse is "Unconscious Influence," a sermon dealing with the theme of healing.

A recent significant addition to the church is Rev. Karl Porter Buswell, who arrived here from San Francisco three months ago to be assistant pastor to Dr. Smith. Mr. Buswell spent several years in missionary and educational work in China and the Near East and served as Y.M.C.A. secretary at Jerusalem and as a teacher of biology at Canton Christian College.

LABOR SUNDAY

Opportunity for ministers to speak in the interests of those who toil will be furnished tomorrow, which will be observed as "Labor Sunday." Hundreds of letters have been mailed by the Church Federation of Los Angeles, suggesting that pastors devote at least one service to the glory and dignity of labor and in discussing means whereby more harmonious relations may be established between employers and employees. Labor Day messages will be special features of the services at First Methodist Church tomorrow. Dr. E. E. Helms, the pastor, will preach in the morning on "The First Laboring Man" and in the evening on "A Challenge to All Laborers." The chorus of 150 singers who have been on vacation will furnish music at both services.

DR. HUGH WALKER

Current criticisms of organized religion, on the part of organized labor, and a discussion of the duty of the church in regard to such criticisms will be treated in a sermon on "Milestones and Crossroads on the Highway of Progress," to be preached by Dr. Hugh K. Walker tomorrow morning at First Presbyterian Church. In the evening, in a sermon on the topic "Wings of the Morning," Dr. Walker will discuss the deeper meanings of the Graf Zeppelin's flight around the world.

DR. JOHN A. EBY

Having returned from his vacation, Dr. John A. Eby of Wilshire Presbyterian Church will be in charge of services at that church tomorrow. In the morning Dr. Eby will preach on "Showers in No Man's Land," and in the evening, following the motion picture "Blue Skies," he will preach on "Rebellions in Our Prisons." Music will be furnished by the Wilshire Male Quartette, with William Ripley Dorr at the organ.

DR. GEORGE DAVIDSON

After a vacation in the East Dr. George Davidson has returned to Los Angeles and will resume his pastoral duties tomorrow at St. John's Episcopal Church, of which he is rector. Dr. Davidson will preach in the morning and evening. Special musical programs in honor of Dr. Davidson's return have been prepared by Dr. Roland Diggle, organist, and the large choir.

REV. C. A. MacDonald

"Personal Evangelism" is the subject of an address to be given at the Wilshire Boulevard Christian Church tomorrow morning by Rev. C. A MacDonald, director of personal evangelism for that church. In the evening Mr. MacDonald will speak on "After Pentecost."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"As ye have, therefore, received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him . . . for in him dwelleth all the fullness of the godhead bodily" (Colossians ii, 6-9,) is the Golden Text in the lesson-sermon for tomorrow on "Christ Jesus" at all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston. Sunday services are conducted at all Churches of Christ, Scientist, of Los Angeles, at 11 a.m. and at many of the churches the services are repeated at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening meetings, which include testimonies of Christian Science healing, are conducted at all churches, and a Wednesday noon testimonial meeting is conducted also by Third Church of Christ, Scientist.

REV. ERNEST LAMB

The first sermon in Los Angeles by Rev. Ernest Lamb, new pastor of First Friends (Quaker) Church, 950 West Seventeenth street, will be preached tomorrow morning when Mr. Lamb will discuss "The Drawing Power of the Church." Bible school will precede the sermon.

DR. WILLIAM EVANS

The pulpit of the Church of the Open Door throughout September will be supplied by Dr. William Evans, Bible teacher and author. Dr. Evans will give a series of Sunday morning addresses on "The Next Great World Crisis," and on Sunday evenings will discuss "What is the Matter With the Church of Today?"

DR. WILSIE MARTIN

Having returned from his vacation at Idyllwild, Dr. Willsie Martin will resume his pastoral work tomorrow at Wilshire Methodist Church. In the morning Dr. Martin will preach on Christ's works, "I am Come," the topic for evening being "A Great Lifting Power."

DR. HARRY BEAL

"Man's Social Destiny" is the subject of a sermon to be preached by Dr Harry Beal tomorrow morning at St. Paul's Cathedral. In the evening Rev. Richard Lief of All Saints' Church, Pasadena, will give a Labor Day address.

SWAMI YOGANANDA

"Spiritual Vibrations of Unique Mexican Scenery" is the subject of a lecture to be given by Swami Yogananda at 3 p.m. tomorrow at Mt. Washington Center, 3880 San Rafael avenue, Highland Park. Following a Hindu-American dinner at 5:30 p.m. a musical program will be given by Alma Real, vocalist, and George Liebling, pianist, and motion pictures of Mexico will be shown.

RABBI M. WINKLER

"An Unfulfilled Promise," a sermon dealing with the recent massacre of the Jews, will be preached by Rabbi Mayer Winkler at 10 a.m. today at Temple Sinai. Dr.

PRISONER TRIES TO END HIS LIFE

Charles Cunningham Slashes Throat in Courtroom

Sentenced to San Quentin for Having Narcotic

Fiancee and Mother Utter Screams of Anguish

CHARLES CUNNINGHAM.

Muttering "I won't go," Charles Cunningham, 28 years of age, a "two-time loser," yesterday afternoon drew a double-edged safety-razor blade and slashed his throat twice just as Superior Judge Vicini sentenced him to San Quentin penitentiary for possession of heroin. County physicians later said he will recover.

Cunningham's act came with dramatic suddenness, just after the judge had pronounced sentence, which by law is prescribed as from six months to two years. As he staggered backward into the arms of V. C. (Jack) Williams, veteran bailiff, two women rose from the front ranks of spectators in the courtroom, and as with one voice, uttered screams of anguish.

FIANCEE IDENTIFIED

One of them identified herself as Miss Margaret Wolgast, who said she lived with Cunningham for three years and expected to marry him if he was acquitted.

The other declined to give her name, but as Cunningham was wheeled away to jail, after receiving emergency treatment in Judge Vicini's chambers, Cunningham said to her: "Don't worry, mother, I'll be all right." She was accompanied by a man of 50 who, court attaches said, is her husband.

Judge Vicini, who had motioned to the bailiff as the prisoner raised his arm, helped Bailiff Williams carry the bleeding man to a couch in chambers adjoining the courtroom, and as Deputy Clerk Stoner telephoned Dr. Benjamin Blank, County Jail physician, the judge aided the bailiff in applying makeshift bandages.

WOUND STITCHED

Two physicians connected with the county health department, Drs. N. P. Leven and H. R. Keyes, arrived before Dr. Blank, and stitched the wound. Dr. Blank and attaches from the jail hospital took Cunningham to the jail hospital.

The prisoner protested against treatment of his wounds.

"I'll tear those bandages off," he said to Dr. Blank. "I want to die. I don't want to stick around; this don't mean nothing to me. And I won't stand for any blood transfusion, either."

But to his mother Cunningham spoke words of comfort, repeatedly assuring her he'd "be all right." He said nothing to Miss Wolgast, nor did the two women speak. But Miss Wolgast kissed him as he was carried away to jail.

PAL HELPS CONVICT HIM

Cunningham was convicted after his asserted accomplice, Floyd J. McLain, had turned State's evidence and testified against his "pal." Policemen Hallsall, Hahn and Schlinske, who took the stand for the prosecution, said Cunningham had concealed a bottle of heroin in the rear seat of his automobile. McLain corroborated this testimony and the case against him was dismissed.

John L. Van Buskirk, prosecutor for the State Board of Pharmacy, conducted the case against Cunningham. Van Buskirk said Cunningham had been confined in the Washington State penitentiary and in the Federal prison at McNeil's Island.

John F. Groene, attorney for the defendant, made a demand just before sentence was pronounced that the court issue a complaint against one of the State's witnesses for perjury. Judge Vicini advised Groene to sign a complaint before a Municipal Court judge if he cannot induce the District Attorney to act.

Woman Jailed for Beating Small Child

Mrs. Ella Edens of 1408 West Tenth Place was held in City Jail last night under provisions of the child-beating law, after police officers investigated a report from neighbors that Billy Kwana, 3-year-old son of Mrs. Marie Kwana, a neighbor of the arrested woman, was the victim of a brutal beating after the mother had left the child in Mrs. Eden's custody.

Last night neighbors heard cries and sent for the police. The officers, according to their report, found that Mrs. Eden had beaten the child with a whip, had attempted to choke the baby and had also plunged the infant in the bathtub in an attempted drowning. The woman gave no reason for her actions after the child was rescued and sent to Juvenile Hall, as she was booked and jailed. The marks of the beating were plainly visible, according to attendants at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. Efforts were being made to locate the mother of the child, who, neighbors say, left the baby several days ago saying that she was unable to provide a home.

Relativity

The late Chauncey M. Depew used to poke a good deal of fun at philosophy, relativity and other highbrow subjects.

"Philosophy," he once said, "has been likened to a blind man searching a dark room in the night for a black hat that isn't there.

"But relativity!

"Relativity is like the dialogue of Pat and Mike.

"'Can I know what I don't know?' says Mike.

"'No,' says Pat.

"'Well, now, there's a certain thing I don't know, and I know it. Then don't I know what I don't know?'

"'I don't know.'"

VISITOR PROCURES ROLE IN PICTURES

Elda Voelkel

Another Southern California visitor has crashed motion pictures in Hollywood. She is Elda Voelkel, 18 years of age, a co-ed from Dallas, Tex. Miss Voelkel left her home to visit Hollywood and try her luck in motion pictures. On her first visit to a casting office she procured a place.

Amateur theatricals put the idea of a screen career into her mind. She participated in college dramatics and also appeared in productions at the Dallas Little Theater.

HAGUE SIGNERS DISBAND TODAY

Reparations Delegates Put Names to Clauses

British Chancellor's Fears Almost Bring Fiasco

THE HAGUE, Aug. 30. (AP)—Preliminaries to the formal ending of the Hague Reparations Conference were concluded today. With a gold pen somewhat less formidable than that with which the Kellogg pact was signed in Paris the names of the delegates were appended to the agreements reached here on evacuation of the Rhineland and on distribution of the Young plan annuities.

The Young plan itself will be formally approved by the delegates in a plenary session tomorrow which will mark the end of the work so often endangered since the conference began on the 6th inst.

Mr. Snowden again was the principal actor today, finding what he said were discrepancies in the texts of certain documents. For a time the British Chancellor stubbornly refused to affix his signature and threatened to keep the conference going until Monday.

Among the documents which went into the records of the conference were letters exchanged with the German government by the powers occupying the Rhineland. They dealt with evacuation of the Rhineland, which must begin for the second zone during the month of September and be completed within three months. The second zone is the Coblenz bridgehead formerly occupied by the American Army on the Rhine.

For the third zone at the Mainz bridgehead, which under the Treaty of Versailles was to have been evacuated in 1935, the departure of the foreign troops must begin immediately after ratification of the Young plan and is to be finished before the end of June, 1930.

Since the French Parliament does not meet until the end of October or beginning of November, ratification of the Young plan will be delayed at least that long. Thus the date for evacuation of the third zone can only be determined later.

TROOPS' WITHDRAWAL ORDERED BY BRITISH

LONDON, Aug. 30. (AP)—The British War Office issued orders this afternoon for withdrawal of British troops from the Rhineland beginning September 14, next.

The British evacuation will be spread over three months, thus making it probable that the last British soldier will be out of the Rhineland by New Year's Day, if not by Christmas.

SHE MAY WED HER DIVORCED HUSBAND

Marion Harris

Revival of an old romance became known yesterday when Marion Harris, vaudeville singer now in talking pictures, admitted she and her ex-husband, Rush Hughes, son of Maj. Rupert Hughes, may remarry.

"We have remained the greatest of friends since our divorce and I have never cared for another man and he says he is not interested in anybody else," Miss Harris declared. "At present he is head of an eastern radio firm. There never has been a truer love affair than ours.

"I think it was my work that broke up our happiness and I am sure things will be different now in event we do remarry. I've plenty of time to make up my mind, but I don't know definitely now."

Miss Harris said her former husband is sending their son, Rush, Jr., and her daughter by a former marriage, Mary Ellen, to Hollywood to join her. They arrive Sunday. Miss Harris came west for a singing engagement. She and Hughes were married about five years ago.

WITNESS IN DEATH TRIAL STIRS ROW

Surprise Testimony of Woman Brings Protest in Physicians' Case

Suprise evidence intended to strengthen the prosecution's case against Drs. P. S. Traxler and R. S. Lanterman will be introduced when the murder trial is resumed Tuesday morning, according to Dep. Dis.-Attys. Kemp and Veitch. The two Glendale physicians are accused of the murder of Delphine Walsh through an illegal operation.

The witness who is expected to give this new evidence is Sara Bayless of 1234 West Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles. Miss Bayless took the stand last night just before court adjourned, but upon the first question a storm of protests came from the defense.

Before adjournment was taken, however, Miss Bayless had testified that she visited Dr. Traxler's office sometime last September. Further questioning was halted by defense objections. Arguments concerning the admissibility of this testimony will be resumed when the trial is reopened in Judge Doran's court.

Mrs. W. E. Jones of 4340 Strohm avenue preceded Miss Bayless on the witness stand. She told the jury that April 25 last, the day of the asserted operation, Miss Walsh, her sister, appeared to be in good health.

Dr. Traxler then took the stand and declared that when Miss Walsh came to his office she already was in great pain, suffering from an operation which she had attempted to perform upon herself. Numerous witnesses had been called by the defense earlier in the trial to substantiate this assertion.

MERCHANT IN STRANGE ACCIDENT

Hardware Man Gets Bath of Hot Oil from Burst Pipe

TAFT, Aug. 30.—Earl Gifford, manager and part owner of the Taft Hardware Company, had an experience today that he will be a long time in forgetting.

Returning from Bakersfield and reaching the foot of Thirty-six Hill, one of the ten-inch oil lines of the Standard Oil Company broke, presumably from high pressure, and shot a stream of oil into the car which Gifford was driving, with the result that the car was turned around and over. The machine was badly wrecked and Gifford thoroughly drenched with hot oil, resulting in bad burns on his face, hands and side, as well as slight bruises and body injuries.

The line continued to shoot a stream of oil for a distance of fifty feet across the highway with several hundred barrels of oil being lost before the Standard pipe-line crew brought the "gusher" under control. Traffic on the road was tied up for some time.

Gifford was brought to Taft by A. Nixon of Ford City and received treatment for his burns and bruises.

MOTHER'S CASE TO JURY TODAY

Woman Accused of Burning Baby to Know Fate

Adjournment Comes as Court Sums Up Evidence

Confessions of Fiendish Act Related by Officer

Taking the stand in her own defense at her trial for first-degree murder before Superior Judge McComb last night, Mrs. Josephine Valenti, 19 years of age, asserted she had no knowledge of how the baby carriage in which her 8-month-old son Dominick was burned to death last July 8 became ignited.

The defense rested its case after Mrs. Valenti's testimony and Dep. Dist.-Atty. Penney launched at once into his summation, in which he urged that the offense charged clearly constituted first-degree murder and argued that the jury should return a verdict which would assure the infliction of the death penalty on Mrs. Valenti.

ATTACKS CONFESSIONS

In his final argument Attorney Christensen devoted his efforts principally to attack the value of the testimony of Esther Garcia, the [illegible]-year-old girl who testified she saw the defendant strike the match. He also minimized the importance of the purported confessions and intimated they had been obtained under duress.

Judge McComb began his charge to the jury at [illegible] p.m. and had not completed it when court adjourned at 9 p.m. He will resume it at 9 a.m. today.

At the afternoon session of the trial Detective Lieutenant Condaffer of the police homicide squad testified that on two separate occasions on the day the baby was burned to death Mrs. Valenti had confessed she had applied a match to the cotton cover over the baby buggy.

ADMISSIONS TOLD

The first of the two confessions Mrs. Valenti is asserted to have made was made to him alone, Lieut. Condaffer testified. It was given to him, he said, at the County Morgue, shortly after he had taken the defendant there to view and identify the body of her child.

Later that evening, he said, the girl repeated her confession at the Central Police Station in the presence of several others, including Everett Harris, an investigator for the Fire Department, and a police stenographer, who took down her statements.

BOTH QUESTIONED

Investigator Harris testified earlier in the day that he was the first officer to question the girl, having arrived at her home at [illegible] avenue, in the yard of which the fire took place, not long after it was extinguished. From her home, he said, he took her and her husband, Sabatino Valenti, to fire headquarters for further questioning.

She steadily denied to him, he said, that she had any knowledge of how the baby carriage could have become ignited.

The only other prosecution witness of the day was Mrs. Maria De Rosa of 120 South Mission Road, who testified that Mrs. Valenti had offered to give her the baby.

SISTER-IN-LAW WEEPS

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Penney called Emma Valenti, 12-year-old sister-in-law of the defendant, to the stand, but before she could give any testimony she broke into a violent fit of weeping and was excused. The prosecution closed its case with the testimony of Lieut. Condaffer.

After making the usual motion to dismiss, which was denied by Judge McComb, and a motion to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal, Defense Attorney Christensen called the husband of the defendant as the first defense witness. He was asked to contradict testimony of his mother, given the day before, that his wife had [illegible] the baby constantly and he [illegible] but admitted that once he saw his wife slap the child.

New Teachers Are Selected

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 30.—Twenty-eight new teachers of "special professional training and experience" have been elected to the staff of the Bakersfield city schools, it was announced by L. E. Chenoweth, city superintendent of schools, who today assigned the new instructors to the various school buildings where they will serve during the coming term. All positions on the city staff are now filled and all administration work has been completed for the opening of schools on September 16.

School machinery will be set in motion on Friday morning, September 6, when the city school supervisors will meet, to be followed by a general teachers' meeting [illegible] Saturday morning, [illegible] and a meeting of teachers and principals on Saturday afternoon.

LETTER TELLS OF RAIN IN HAWAII

VISALIA, Aug. 30.—If Tulare county could have some rain like the one which fell at [illegible] near Lihue on the Island of [illegible] of the Hawaiian group, on [illegible] there wouldn't be any court [illegible] here over water, Joe Sherman, former well-known local resident, declares in writing to old friends here. Sherman has been making his home at Lihue for several years.

On the 25th of July, [illegible] of rain fell at Hanamaulu, [illegible] it during the daylight hours, the plantation office reported a precipitation of 2.85 inches [illegible] Lihue received what is considered as "just a sprinkle" there, [illegible] inches in twenty-four hours, [illegible] would be considered a good annual rainfall in Tulare county.

This storm did little damage, as it was not accompanied by [illegible]. The golf course at Waila [illegible] was flooded for some time.
